

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3306

“Heavens!”

The members of the primordial beginning sect looked up at the sky, their faces pale with fear.

The immortal’s Hall above them was extremely terrifying, as if the sky had cracked and collapsed.

For a time, they all felt a sense of powerlessness.

“How did this immortal Palace become so terrifying?”

“So many demons, so many golden Immortals ...”

Celestial Lord Samantabhadra looked up with his eyes wide open and filled with extreme shock.

He had seen this immortal Palace on the day of his duel with the primordial chaos boy and had a deep impression of it.

However, this immortal’s Palace was several times stronger than before, and its aura was more terrifying.

There were also countless demons inside. With a single glance, it was a vast expanse, and he was so scared that his scalp almost went numb.

How many demon clans and prehistoric tribes had this kid suppressed?

He groaned in his heart.

“Hurry up! Block it!”

On the side, the heavenly Dao Daoist roared, waking him up.

He gritted his teeth and hurriedly activated his treasure to block the attack.

However, in the face of such a peerless immortal Palace, his treasure couldn't resist it at all. It was instantly blown away, and the light curtain that was opened was also shattered.

The immortal Palace continued to press down, unstoppable.

“Hurry up! Retreat!”

The heavenly Dao Daoist gritted his teeth and rushed forward. He struck out with both palms at the immortal Palace above him.

Only then did everyone on the ship wake up. They screamed and fled in all directions.

Ah!

Daoist Tian Dao screamed crazily and activated his celestial core power in an attempt to resist this immortal Palace.

“I'll join you too!”

Samantabhadra swept over and stretched out his palms, pressing them on the bottom of the immortal's Hall.

"Hmph!"

Tang Hao snorted disdainfully. His figure flashed and he reached the top of the immortal's Hall.

He stomped his foot and stepped on the immortal's Hall.

The immortal's Hall trembled, and divine light shone brightly.

The two people below immediately gave a muffled groan as they were jolted down.

"Today, my main body is not here yet. I'll teach you a little lesson!"

Tang Hao glared at them. He shouted coldly and put the immortal's Hall away.

"This immortal ship is not bad. I'll take it!"

Then, he stretched out his hand and put away the empty immortal ship.

Whoosh!

His body flickered and he quickly plundered the Dao beads before he left.

"That's ... Celestial venerable Tang?"

“Those people are from the Yuanshi sect?”

At this moment, the immortals on the divine mountain finally reacted. They were all shocked.

Then, they became excited.

They didn't expect that they would be able to see such an explosive scene when they came to join in the fun.

It was unbelievable that celestial venerable Tang, who had descended as an immortal soul, had sent two celestial Venerables of the Yuanshi sect flying with only one treasure!

“Celestial venerable Tang's Divine Art is truly unparalleled!”

“Yup! He defeated Buddha Hunyuan before, and now he can defeat two heavenly venerates with just his immortal soul body. His abhijna is getting more and more powerful.”

They clicked their tongues in wonder.

Ever since celestial venerable Tang had been promoted, he had defeated the two celestial Venerables, Xumi and dark night, scared off Dragon King Tian, and defeated the Buddha of origin. He was more powerful than ever and had never lost a battle. He really had the air of invincibility.

“Shh!”

They discussed for a while before someone suddenly stopped them.

Only then did the crowd react. The people of the Yuanshi sect were still at the side. After being humiliated so much, they would be furious and take it out on them when they heard them praise celestial venerable Tang so much.

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

They turned around and left in a hurry.

After they had walked far away, they started to discuss excitedly again, and laughter rang out from time to time.

“Motherf * cker!”

The faces of the people from the sect of Yuanshi turned livid.

No matter how far they walked, they could still hear it clearly.

“This monster seems to be getting more and more powerful!”

Samantabhadra said through gritted teeth.

Even though he was unwilling to admit it, it was the truth.

That kid had only obtained his immortal soul and only brought one treasure, but he had already made them suffer a great loss. This was enough to prove how much he had improved during this period of time.

Not only did the treasure become more powerful, but his cultivation must have skyrocketed as well.

This was undoubtedly bad news for them.

During this period of time, they had also improved, but it seemed that they were still far from being able to compare to that kid.

“He’s very bold. Using immortal souls to search for Immortal Destiny really does give him an advantage. Apparently, he has his own teleportation system in the immortal world, which makes it more convenient for him to travel. He can also search for the most Immortal Destiny in the shortest amount of time possible. ”

“In terms of speed, we’re far from being his match!”

The heavenly Dao Daoist sighed.

Originally, he was still smug about his progress, but now that he saw that kid, he was listless.

This comparison was really infuriating!

“That kid, how did he become so strong? It’s that scary?”

Beside him, Ye Futian looked like he had lost his soul.

When the palace fell just now, he was so scared that his soul almost flew away, and he felt a deep sense of powerlessness.

He felt that with his current strength, he was like a mayfly in front of that fellow. He was simply too insignificant and insignificant.

A few years ago, the two of them were still able to fight, and he even had the upper hand.

The great void sovereign looked at him and could not help but laugh.

Young master ye was still young! As for him, he already had experience, so it wasn't that hard to accept.

Back in the sanctuary, when that kid had just come up, he could have killed him with a finger. But in the end, he didn't kill him either. In just a few years, he had grown so much that he had smashed him to death.

The situation in front of him was so similar.

"This kid ..."

He grinned, feeling extremely vexed.

In the past, he thought about revenge every day, but now, all he could think about was how to save his life.

"Let's go!"

Samantabhadra sighed and took out another immortal ship for everyone to board.

“I won’t look for the immortal encounter for the time being. I’ll go back to the sect to hide for a while. After a few days, that kid will give up.” With that, he controlled the immortal warship and headed for the primitive sect.

“He’s leaving just like that?”

In the air, Tang Hao watched them return to the primitive sect with his spirit eyes.

“Alright! I can change my target!”

Since the people of the sect of Yuanshi had hidden in the sect, he did not want to waste any time.

Therefore, he activated his Dharma Eye and continued to search for his target in the immortal world.

“Eh? Who is this?”

After searching for half a day, he suddenly found a familiar aura in the immortal world.

He was short and wearing a golden Kasaya, looking like a young child. Who else could he be but the primordial chaos boy?

“What is this old virgin doing?”

“What’s wrong?” Tang Hao mumbled curiously.

He had also heard a lot of interesting rumors about this primordial chaos boy. It was said that this guy practiced the Virgin technique, so he had maintained the appearance of a child. For tens of thousands of years, he had never lost his virginity. He could be called the most legendary old virgin in the immortal world!

He was curious when he saw the boy flying around in the sky above the sea.

He immediately activated his Dharma Eye and peeked even more carefully.
