

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3308

“Virgin brother! What’s wrong?”

“Aren’t you?” Tang Hao smiled.

“I ... I am, but so what?”

The primordial chaos boy cursed, his tender face turning red.

What he hated the most was people laughing at him for being a Virgin. This was the greatest insult to his character!

“Since that’s the case, then that’s good! I didn’t call him wrong!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“F * ck your mother!”

The primordial chaos boy was beyond furious.

For so many years, no one had ever dared to humiliate him in front of him like this!

“You little brat! You’re looking for death!”

He let out a shrill cry, and the aura around him surged wildly, emitting a shocking Buddhist light.

The next moment, he shot out and threw a punch.

“Brother Virgin, I still have something to do, so I’ll take my leave first. Thank you for your treasure, see you again!”

Tang Hao grinned. He turned into a beam of divine light and fled.

He was only an immortal soul. Although he had the gods Palace, he was no match for the primordial chaos boy.

“Don’t run! Give me back my treasure!”

“You little brat, just you wait! When I advance to the celestial King realm, you’ll be the first one to die!”

The primordial chaos boy chased for a while and only stopped when he saw that he couldn’t catch up, cursing in anger.

He was about to vomit blood!

Originally, it was such a joyous occasion to obtain the sea calming divine Pearl! But in the end, this damn brat jumped out of nowhere and snatched the treasure away.

Not only did she steal his treasure, but she also mocked him for being a Virgin. She was simply despicable.

“I was too careless! I didn’t notice him!”

He stood on the spot and thought carefully for a moment. Then, he revealed a vexed expression.

This guy must have had his eyes on him long ago, and he had never thought that anyone would have any ideas about him, so he was careless.

“My sea calming Pearl!”

He slapped his thigh and couldn't help but wail. His heart was bleeding.

Such a heaven-defying treasure, yet he had given it to this kid!

That kid already had a lot of heaven-defying treasures, ten thousand laws divine mountain, the gods Palace, and now a sea calming divine Pearl. How could he not be afraid?

“No, if I want to fight against that kid, I need an Emperor artifact. But there are too few Emperor artifacts in the immortal world. Only the Supreme sects and top clans have them. Where Can I Get one?”

Then, he was a little vexed.

His cultivation level was much higher than that brat 's, but unfortunately, his treasures were too inferior.

Of course, this so-called difference was only when compared to that kid. If he were to be compared to other old monsters, he would not be inferior at all.

He had a pile of Immortal King weapons on him, and the ten thousand Buddha cassock he was wearing was the best among Immortal King weapons. Few old monsters could compare to him.

However, that kid was too freakish!

He had two Emperor artifacts, and he had also refined a treasure that was comparable to an Emperor artifact. In total, he had three. Compared to this kid, he was simply too poor!

“I’ll have to think about it and refine one myself!”

He touched his chin and began to ponder.

He was not bad at forging weapons either. After all, he was a famous monster in the ancient times. He was good at alchemy, weapons, and arrays. He had forged many treasures that were comparable to Immortal King weapons.

However, if he wanted to reach the power of an Emperor artifact, he still had to think about how to refine it.

After all, he was only at the zenith heaven realm. If he wanted to reach the power of an Emperor weapon, he would have to find another way. For example, that kid’s gods Palace was very special.

“Forget it. I’ll go get some Dao beads first. Cultivation is the most important thing. I’ll think about how to refine an Emperor weapon when I have time!”

After a while, he shook his head and turned to leave.

By then, Tang Hao had already flown far away and found a place to land.

“I’ve earned big this time!”

He picked up the sea calming Pearl and looked at it carefully. He could not help but smile again.

He didn't expect to have such a great harvest this time.

He couldn't use this Pearl now. He needed to nourish it for a period of time. When the time came, it would be another trump card.

The sky-destroying ten thousand spells handprint, the gods Palace and this sea calming Pearl would be his three strongest techniques.

"Not bad!"

He put away the bead and took out the spirit God's eye.

Up until now, he had only robbed two groups of people from the primitive sect and the primordial chaos boy, but he still had many enemies, such as the sky seeking sect and the Xuanyuan clan.

"The heaven seeking sect ... Has been found!"

Very quickly, he made a discovery.

His avatars were scattered all over the place, so he could gather information very quickly and easily grasp the movements of the major forces. Once they appeared in a continent, he could find them quickly by using his spiritual eye.

He used the same old trick and snatched away the Dao beads before the people of the heaven seeking sect could do so.

"It's that kid!"

“Damn it, he’s here again! You’re like a ghost!”

Celestial venerable Xumi, who was leading the team, was furious.

However, there was nothing he could do. Although this kid had the body of an immortal soul, he had the gods Palace to protect him. He could do nothing but watch as this kid beat them to it again and again, took the Dao beads, and then left.

“Let’s go! Let’s go back and lie low for a while!”

Helplessly, heavenly venerate Xumi could only bring his men back to the sky seeking sect.

“That kid is here! Hurry up! Quickly run!”

When Tang Hao caught up with the Xuanyuan clan’s people and tried to snatch the Dao bead, the Xuanyuan clan’s people turned around and left immediately.

Apparently, they had heard about what had happened to the primitive sect and the sky seeking sect.

“Tsk! How boring!”

Tang Hao was bored.

He took the Dao bead and left.

In the following month, he ran all over the immortal world and robbed a bunch of enemies. His harvest was quite rich.

He was happy, but the people from the major forces were on the verge of tears.

In the past month, this kid had robbed countless people and seized countless immortal opportunities. The most abominable thing was that he liked to disgust people. Every time, he would deliberately beat them to it and let them watch him take away the Dao bead.

“This kid is a devil!”

“We’re still fine, but the primitive sect is the worst. They were robbed four times, and two celestial Venerables attacked, but they couldn’t keep that kid’s immortal soul. Instead, they suffered a loss. It’s really embarrassing!”

The people of the major forces sighed and were extremely distressed.

Originally, they were the ones who wanted to block that kid. Why did the situation now seem to be reversed? was that kid going to block them?

However, they had no other choice!

For a time, all the major forces were filled with worry.

“It’s almost time. Let’s go back and rest!”

In the air, Tang Hao activated his Dharma Eye again and searched for a long time, but he still could not find a target.

Some of them hid back at their mountain gates and did not come out. Some of them used various methods to cover their tracks, making it difficult for him to discover them.

Every major force had an Emyrean old monster. It was not difficult to achieve this.

From now on, it would be very difficult for him to succeed again. It was a good time to go back and digest the things he had robbed during this period of time and turn them into his own cultivation. He also had to properly nourish that sea calming God clan's pill.

He immediately tore open the void and returned to the Saint spirit dynasty.
