

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3310

In the North of the Saint spirit dynasty.

It was a barren, broken land.

An immortal ship came from afar.

“We’re here. This is the place where Saint spirit dynasty undergoes tribulation. From the minor Saint realm lightning tribulation to the major golden immortal tribulation, we all undergo it here.”

On the ship, the previous Saint Emperor, tantai Feiyun, pointed at the vast tunnel ahead.

Tang Hao glanced at it and nodded slightly.

This piece of land was big enough to pass the zenith heaven tribulation.

“You have quite a few tails.”

The nation protecting Saint raised his head and looked at the sky. He frowned.

Ever since they had left the sacred Spirit royal capital, there had been people spying on them and following them.

“Sage, don’t worry. With you and celestial venerable Tang around, there’s nothing to worry about!”
Tantai Feiyun laughed out loud.

“We still have to be careful!” The nation protecting Saint shook his head with a grave expression. “These people all have extraordinary origins. They’re either from Supreme sects or top clans. Their methods and foundations are far superior to our Saint spirit celestial dynasty.”

“That’s right! We still have to be careful, I’ll cross it first later!”

Another old divine Emperor said.

He was even more senior than tantai Feiyun and was the first Sage Emperor of the celestial dynasty.

“Ancestor, let me do it!” Tantai Feiyun said hurriedly.

“No need! I’m a senior, so naturally, I’ll go first!”

The old divine Emperor waved his hand.

“There’s no time to waste, I’ll cross it now!” He raised his head and looked at the sky. Then, his figure flashed, and he left the immortal warship, flying forward.

“I’ll go over there!” Tang Hao said as he pointed into the distance.

“Good! I’ll guard this side. Please be careful, fellow Daoist. ” The country protecting Saint said.

Tang Hao nodded, then stood up and headed toward the other side of the Tribulation transcendence.

“This place is not bad!”

He looked for a mountain and sat down on one of the peaks.

He had calculated the distance. Given the range of the zenith heaven tribulation, it would not affect this place.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A moment later, thunderclouds began to appear, covering the sky.

The entire world fell into darkness, and the atmosphere was somber.

“It’s starting!”

Tang Hao looked up and saw a golden bolt of lightning falling from the sky, illuminating the vast world.

Even though he was so far away, he could still feel the terrifying aura of the Tribulation lightning.

Very quickly, the lightning dissipated.

Five or six minutes later, another bolt of lightning struck.

“There shouldn’t be any problems. As long as there’s no interference, I’ll be able to successfully pass the Tribulation!” Tang Hao narrowed his eyes and looked at the old divine Emperor’s condition. He had received the two bolts of tribulation lightning very easily.

He closed his eyes and began to sense the void around him.

Ten minutes later, he made a discovery. Someone had already arrived and was hiding in the void ripples.

Whoosh!

When another bolt of tribulation lightning fell, a golden light flew out from the ripples and shot straight toward the center of the lightning tribulation.

“A talisman?”

Tang Hao was shocked.

It was clearly a Golden Jade talisman that was emitting a shocking divine light.

“It’s the Yuanshi sect!”

The next moment, he reacted.

As one of the most ancient inheritances, the primordial beginning sect had a deep foundation in the three DAOs of elixirs, weapons, and arrays. They had mastered many ancient secret techniques.

He had once heard that the Yuanshi sect had a very powerful talisman called the primitive treasure carriage. It should be this item.

“It’s smart to use talismans!”

He snorted and raised his hand to grab the golden light.

In an instant, the immortal Qi between heaven and earth surged and turned into a giant Golden Palm. It grabbed the golden light before it could rush into the range of the immortal tribulation.

Bang!

With a loud bang, the Golden Palm exploded and disappeared with the talisman.

“Hmph! This kid’s reaction is quite fast!”

In the ripples of the void, Daoist Tian Dao sneered.

He was not surprised. The first talisman was to test that kid.

“He blocked one, but we still have more. I’d like to see how many he can block!” Beside him, Samantabhadra sneered.

With a wave of his sleeve, rays of golden light flew out, all of which were the premier treasure carriage.

This treasure carriage was not a particularly powerful technique. It was not of much use to those in the zenith heaven realm. It was usually used by those in the Golden immortal realm. But now, this treasure carriage had come in great use.

To interfere with the immortal tribulation, they couldn’t do it themselves. Even if they activated their celestial artifacts and attacked from a distance, they would still be affected by the immortal tribulation, and at that time, they would be skinned even if they didn’t die.

And this treasure carriage was not their celestial artifact. It did not have any trace of their aura and could be used as they pleased.

“Hahaha! I’ll join you!”

Tian Daoist laughed and waved his sleeve, releasing a large amount of golden light.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

All the golden light was blasted out with a dense air-piercing sound.

The two of them looked through the ripples, their eyes filled with joy.

This kid had stolen so many of their Dao pearls and caused them to be in such a sorry state. They had to take revenge today. Even if they could not successfully interfere with the Tribulation, they could at least make this kid feel bad.

“Hmph!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao grunted coldly. His body flickered, and he instantly appeared in front of the golden light and thrust his palm forward.

Peng Peng Peng!

All the golden light exploded.

However, in the next moment, countless rays of golden light shot out from the ripples and scattered in all directions.

Tang Hao waved his hand at lightning speed, and in an instant, he sent out hundreds of palm strikes, blasting all the treasure carriages to pieces.

However, this thing seemed to be endless, surging out in waves.

“Hahaha! Kid, you can continue!”

“If you shoot one, I’ll shoot ten more. You’ll be tired to death!”

In the ripples of the void, the two celestial Venerables laughed out loud, somewhat pleased with themselves.

They felt extremely carefree when they saw the boy’s exhausted appearance.

“Hahaha! The two old men from the sect of primordial beginning are quite interesting to think of this. ”

Not far away, people came one after another. After watching for a while, they were all happy.

The people of the sect of Yuanshi were playing monkeys!

And that Tang kid was the monkey that was being played.

“If they don’t have a million, they must have at least 100000 of the primitive treasure carriage! I’m so tired that the kid will die!”

“Why don’t we go too! Let’s make that kid more tired!”

They mocked him for a while and then attacked him.

A few whooshes.

Divine light continued to shoot out from all directions, heading straight for the center of the immortal tribulation.

Some of them were talismans, some were immortal insects, and some were puppets. They had all kinds of techniques.

“Not good!”

On the other side, the nation protecting Saint and tantai Feiyun’s expressions changed when they saw this scene from afar.

All the people who had rushed over were gathered there, but there was not a single one on their side.

The target of those people is only fellow cultivator Tang.

“Hurry up! Go help!”

The nation-protecting Saint shouted and hurriedly flew up. He went around the immortal tribulation and rushed over.

Tang Hao’s expression was grim.

There were already six to seven groups of people, and they all attacked at the same time, making him a little tired.

He kept stretching out his hand and slapping in all directions, trying to stop these people's methods.

"No! If this continues, we definitely won't be able to stop them."

After a while, Tang Hao felt a little strained, and his mind gradually sank.
