

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3311

“Kid, continue!”

In the ripples of the void, the various celestial Venerables laughed with carefree expressions.

Previously, this kid had snatched quite a number of their Dao pearls and made them look rather disheveled. Now that they had a rare opportunity to teach this kid a lesson, how could they not be happy?

They were prepared to toy with this brat for now. When the old divine Emperor of the Saint spirit dynasty was almost done with his tribulation, they would strike with all their might to destroy the immortal tribulation, rendering all of the old divine Emperor’s efforts useless.

This way, they could vent the anger in their hearts.

In their eyes, the people from the Saint spirit celestial dynasty were on that kid’s side.

“Since you guys insist on doing this, I won’t be polite!”

Tang Hao’s face darkened. He was furious.

He was not a good-tempered person. Since these people wanted to humiliate him, they had to pay the price.

He gritted his teeth and his body shook. With a boom, a shocking divine light burst out.

Accompanied by a monstrous purple light, ten thousand laws divine mountain was the first to fly out. It spread out circles of purple ripples and suppressed the void in all directions.

He controlled it perfectly and didn't let the divine light enter the range of the immortal tribulation, in case it was affected.

The next moment, another divine light flew out from his head.

It was the gods Palace!

The Golden immortal's Palace expanded and stretched across the void, exuding boundless divine might.

The two Supreme treasures suppressed the surrounding void.

Tang Hao's body flickered as he charged toward a ripple in the air.

In the ripples, the two elders of the primordial beginning sect were still a little dazed and didn't react.

"I'm not afraid! He has already used two of his Supreme treasures to suppress the void. What can he do to us?"

The heavenly Dao Daoist came back to his senses. Instead of panicking, he sneered.

The reason why this kid was so powerful was because he had those two treasures!

His strongest divine power, the purple-gold Palm print, was based on the ten thousand laws divine mountain and the gods Palace. He had relied on these treasures to block the origin chaos boy.

Now, without these two treasures, he was no longer a threat.

“Just in time to deal with him! If we join forces, we can definitely defeat him!”

Beside him, Samantabhadra shouted with a shocking battle intent.

This was a good opportunity!

As long as he could defeat this brat now, he would be able to break his legend of invincibility and stop him from being arrogant.

And those people in the world could no longer flatter this kid!

“Alright!”

Tian Dao shouted. His body shook and his aura exploded.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Two figures swept out from the ripples in the void at the same time. They waved their hands and took out two treasures, a sword and a mirror, which burst out with shocking immortal power at the same time.

Divine light enshrouded the mirror, and auspicious multicolored clouds rose as a terrifying aura was projected out.

On the immortal sword, layers of sword light burst out, and its momentum continued to rise.

“Go!”

Two shouts.

The mirror trembled, and a bright divine light gushed out.

The immortal sword trembled and cut open the void, shooting forward.

“These two old men are quite hardworking!”

“That brat will definitely lose!”

All four sides were watching.

In their eyes, the young man was no match for the two old monsters of the primitive sect without two Supreme treasures. He would be defeated in this battle and his invincibility would be broken.

“What ... What’s that?”

All of a sudden, a celestial venerable’s eyes narrowed as he saw the kid raise his hand and take out a Pearl.

In the next moment, the seven-colored divine light shone brightly, engulfing his vision.

He could no longer see anything. He could only sense a monstrous aura accompanied by a seven-colored divine light erupting.

“Heavens! What kind of treasure is this?”

His mind was greatly shaken and he was extremely shocked.

This aura was not inferior to that of the gods Palace at all. It had reached the level of an Emperor weapon.

But how was that possible?

How could this kid have any other Emperor weapons?

“What is this?”

The two elders of the primordial beginning sect were even more shocked by this aura.

They could sense a vast heaven and earth Qi and a strong upper sky Qi in the seven-colored light.

But that was impossible!

For any treasure, even if it was made from connate spirit items, the connate aura would dissipate after refinement. It would not be so strong.

What kind of treasure was this?

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

The divine light from the mirror exploded.

Then, there was a clang. The immortal sword wailed and instantly dimmed.

Tiantong and Samantabhadra's eyes widened in shock.

It was that Pearl!

Just like that, it smashed down directly and easily broke the joint attack of the two.

"I'm afraid it's not the legendary sea calming divine Pearl!"

After going through all the Pearl-type treasures, the two of them finally came to an unbelievable conclusion.

The Pearl in front of him was actually the legendary sea calming divine Pearl!

Only such a treasure could have such divine might!

"F * ck! How could he have such a legendary true treasure?"

Heaven's path Daoist roared wildly in his heart.

He was so jealous that his face was twisted!

It was not enough to have ten thousand laws divine mountain. This kid actually had a sea calming divine Pearl!

Was the heavens blind?

Why did he have to give this kid all the good stuff?

This was too unfair!

Fuck!

Samantabhadra also cursed, his jealousy unrecognizable.

“Quickly retreat!”

Then, the two of them kept the treasures and retreated.

With a treasure like the sea calming divine Pearl, and this brat’s cultivation had also increased greatly, he was at least at the standard of five thousand stars. They did not have much chance of winning.

“You want to leave?”

Tang Hao sneered. He activated the sea calming Pearl and smashed it again.

Clang!

The immortal sword staggered and wailed.

Pfft!

The heavenly Dao Daoist trembled and vomited a mouthful of golden immortal blood.

“Since you’re here, you should leave something behind. Don’t even think about taking this sword back!”

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the immortal sword, gripping it tightly in his palm.

“Don’t even think about it!”

Heaven Daoist priest was furious. He clapped his hands and madly urged the immortal sword to call it back.

This was the immortal King Sword, the best treasure he had on him.

Although the primordial beginning sect had an Emperor weapon, there was only one. It didn’t belong to him alone. He was still using a Celestial King weapon.

“Behave yourself!”

Tang Hao clenched his fist and roared,

He called the sea calming divine Pearl back and suspended it above the immortal sword. The seven-colored divine light spread out and suppressed it crazily.

“Come back here!”

“You brat, let go of me!”

The heavenly Dao Daoist gritted his teeth, his expression somewhat crazed.

“Tiantong, don’t panic. I’ll help you!”

Samantabhadra was a little anxious. He activated the mirror and was about to attack.

“You’re looking for death!”

“Go!” Tang Hao shouted coldly. He used his divine will to send the sea calming Pearl flying toward the mirror.

Clang!

Then, with a plop, Samantabhadra’s body trembled, staggered, and fell backward. His old face was already pale.

His eyes were wide open, filled with fear.

A casual smash could have such a shocking power. This sea calming divine Pearl was a little too terrifying.

Tang Hao recalled the orb and continued to suppress the immortal King Sword. At the same time, he poured his divine sense into the sword and began to scan the imprints left inside.

In just a few breaths, he had cleared all the imprints and refined this immortal King Sword.
