

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3313

The bright moon Palace.

Tang Hao opened his eyes after the immortal soul returned to its place.

With a flick of his sleeve, countless golden lights flew out.

This time, he had gained quite a lot again, with nearly 1000 Dao beads.

He devoured them all, and his cultivation level rose by another thousand stars, reaching the level of 7000 stars.

“I’m going to meet senior. Maybe I can get some good treasures!”

He chuckled and stood up.

On the way back, he saw a familiar face. It was that good senior, the treasure Daoist.

This senior was his Lucky Star. He had brought him to find many good things, such as the Emperor blood yellow soil and breathing earth.

After informing Chun Xuan, he put on his golden fighting robe and quickly left the imperial capital.

Half a day later, he arrived at the place where he had met treasure Daoist.

He then used a spell technique to track her down for a moment before he found her.

Treasure Daoist was riding an old white Crane, flying slowly.

He was dressed in a white robe and riding a White Crane, looking like a Sage.

“It’s not easy to survive these days!”

Treasure Daoist sat cross-legged on the back of the crane with his hands in his sleeves. His eyes were half-closed, and he looked calm.

Suddenly, he let out a soft sigh.

In the past, the immortal world was so peaceful and quiet. But now, all kinds of demons and ghosts had appeared. Today, there was a great evil, and tomorrow, there was an old demon. It was simply too scary! It made him a little nervous, and he hid here and there all day.

Even if he had become a golden immortal, he still did not feel safe.

What made him even more troubled was that the treasures had become fewer!

After those old monsters were born, they were all like hungry ghosts. They dug three feet deep into the ground and almost robbed all the treasures.

“It’s difficult!”

He sighed again, feeling a little melancholic.

“Eh? There was a reaction? Hahaha! There’s a treasure!”

After flying slowly for more than an hour, the ruler in front of him suddenly trembled and jumped up, pointing in a direction.

He immediately revealed a look of wild joy.

“Hurry up! Let’s hurry!”

He patted the old crane he was sitting on and shouted.

The old crane was invigorated. It flapped its wings and flew forward.

“Is there a treasure there?”

Tang Hao, who had been following them in secret, was also invigorated.

He quickly swept over and searched the area before treasure Daoist.

“There’s indeed a treasure!”

In an underground crack, he saw a trace of treasure light. It was an immortal mine!

This mine vein was buried very deep, and there was a very heavy accumulation of Yin Qi in the underground crack, making it very difficult to discover.

“Senior is truly My Lucky Star!”

Tang Hao chuckled. He went underground and used his divine power to collect the entire mine.

After a long while, the treasure Daoist arrived on the old crane and began to investigate.

“Eh? There was nothing! That’s strange! Could it be that my treasure has sensed it wrongly?”

After a careful examination, treasure Daoist was puzzled.

This place didn’t even have a single strand of hair!

“There’s no reaction!”

When he looked at the ruler again, the light had already dimmed.

“It’s really strange!”

He muttered, feeling strange.

However, he didn’t pay much attention to it. This treasure had made mistakes in the past, so it was normal for it to make mistakes once in a while.

“Forget it!”

After a while, he still couldn't find any treasure, so he gave up and continued flying forward on the old crane.

"There's an immortal encounter. Let's go and join in the fun!"

He wandered around aimlessly. When he saw immortal encounters, he would rush over to join in the fun and snatch some Dao beads. If he didn't have immortal encounters, he would continue to ride the old crane and wander around, trying his luck.

Tang Hao followed him all the way, snatching immortal opportunities and taking treasures in advance.

Of course, he didn't go too far. He took two or three and left one for treasure Daoist.

"That's weird! It's really strange. This treasure was clearly very useful in the past, but why is it so useless now? it keeps making mistakes!"

After a few days, treasure Daoist became more and more depressed.

This treasure of his was an Immortal King's Supreme treasure. Logically speaking, there shouldn't be any mistakes.

It was normal for it to happen once in a while, but now, it had made a few mistakes in a row.

He had made a mistake in the absolute beginning land before, but that was the wrong number of treasures. Now, he had clearly found a treasure, but when he rushed over, he found nothing.

"Could it be that even Celestial King artifacts can break?"

He picked up the ruler and knocked on it, feeling very puzzled.

“There’s another reaction. What is it this time? why is the reaction so big?”

After spinning for a few more days, the ruler suddenly trembled and emitted a bright divine light, which shocked him.

He had never seen the ruler have such a huge reaction.

“Hahaha! There must be a Supreme treasure!”

He was stunned for a moment, and then he was overjoyed.

The greater the reaction, the more valuable the treasure was. He had once found a broken Celestial King weapon, but it had never had such a strong reaction. This meant that the treasure this time must be a complete Celestial King weapon.

Or other treasures of the same level.

“I hope I’m not wrong this time!”

He suppressed his excitement and rushed in the direction indicated by the ruler.

“There’s a Supreme treasure in that direction?”

Tang Hao was excited.

After following them for so many days, he had snatched quite a few treasures, but their grades were not very high. To the current him, they were not of much use.

At once, he also rushed in that direction.

“That’s weird, there’s nothing?”

He rushed to the front and circled around before treasure Daoist, but he didn’t find anything.

After flying forward for a while, he didn’t find anything.

“Eh? Another mistake?”

When treasure Daoist arrived and looked around, he was also stunned.

“Something’s wrong! The ruler is still reacting, which means that the treasure is here ... It’s in this mountain!”

He took the ruler and walked around. Finally, he stopped in front of a mountain.

However, upon closer inspection, this was just an ordinary mountain range with no treasures at all.

The strange thing was that the ruler in his hand was still glowing. It was pointing at the mountain range, buzzing and trembling.

“I know, there’s a whole other world here!”

He was still very experienced and immediately guessed that there was another world in this mountain range, but it was hidden by an array.

Tang Hao hid to the side and watched.

At this time, it was not convenient for him to investigate. After all, this Daoist of many treasures was also a golden immortal. His divine will would be sensed as soon as he moved.

It was better to just wait and let treasure Daoist search for it.

“It’s really strange! This place is quite strange!”

Treasure Daoist walked here and there, dropping down from time to time. He walked here and knocked there, looking more and more distressed.

After searching for half a day, he still couldn’t find any clues.

Even after using his divine eyes, he did not find any traces of abnormality.

He had never encountered such a situation before. He, the treasure Daoist, had been searching for treasures for tens of thousands of years and had seen all kinds of formations and methods.

In the past, he could have found it with some effort, but now, he found nothing.

If it wasn’t for the fact that the ruler in his hand was still reacting and trembling, he would have thought that he had found the wrong place.
