

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3325

In the blink of an eye, another three months had passed.

Tang Hao was busy snatching immortal opportunities and collecting spiritual essences. He did not have a moment to rest.

Now, from zenith heaven to earth Immortals and human Immortals, everyone was busy snatching the immortal encounter. They wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to improve themselves. He was no exception.

The three celestial Venerables of the Saint spirit dynasty, the Saint protector of the country, and the two old Saint emperors had also led the people of the celestial dynasty to fight for the immortal encounter everywhere.

During this period of time, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci had both reached the half-step realm. They were only waiting for their Natal world to be opened, then they could cross the Tribulation and advance to zenith heaven.

What surprised him was that Dragon King Tian did not come to him.

He had thought that Dragon King Tian would come to his door or take revenge on him. For this reason, he had even taken precautions and set up many avatars in various parts of the celestial dynasty. Once Dragon King Tian appeared, he would be able to receive the news.

Since that fellow was not coming, he was happy to be idle.

“Medicine God mountain?”

On this day, as usual, his immortal soul was wandering around in search of immortal fate when he heard a piece of news from his clone.

In the distant northern continent of the immortal realm, a divine mountain appeared. It was called the medicine God mountain.

There were many immortal encounters on the mountain, and the Dao beads there contained more than ten times the Dao accumulation of ordinary Dao beads.

However, in order to obtain these Dao beads, one had to pass some alchemy Dao tests, which was not easy.

“Pill Dao test? This is interesting!”

Tang Hao was interested.

He was quite skilled in alchemy. If he went, he would definitely gain a lot.

He immediately returned to the capital of the sacred Spirit Kingdom.

The news of the medicine God mountain would soon spread throughout the immortal world, attracting the attention of all zenith heavens. Even his enemies might go, but it would be dangerous for his immortal soul to go, and he would have to bring his physical body along.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re back! Are you going to the medicine God mountain?”

As soon as he landed in the imperial capital, he saw the three of them.

“Are you guys going too?”

“Yup! We specially came back to wait for you, fellow Daoist. I knew you would definitely go!” The nation protecting Saint laughed.

“Daoist Tang’s alchemy Dao is unparalleled. The divine pill that is currently ranked first on the alchemy ranking was made by him. With his abilities, he will definitely be able to suppress all the immortals and obtain the most immortal fate.” Tantai Feiyun laughed heartily.

“Yup!”

The old divine Emperor at the side also stroked his beard and laughed.

“The three of you have overpraised me!”

Tang Hao laughed.

He didn’t feel that he would definitely be able to obtain the most immortal fate. After all, there were too many old monsters now, and all of them were figures of the Qiyuan era. They had lived for tens of thousands of years, and there must be some powerful figures among them.

“Al! Fellow Daoist Tang is being modest again!”

The country protecting Saint said.

“Let’s go!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Good, good! Let’s go over first!”

The nation-protecting Saint laughed and took out an immortal boat.

The four of them got on the ship and went to the nearest Immortal City. They rushed to that continent through the teleportation array.

“I heard that the medicine God mountain belonged to the ancient medicine Immortal King. He must have set up those tests.”

“That man was the number one Alchemist of the ancient times, and his alchemy skills were unfathomable! No wonder those tests are so difficult. It’s so difficult to solve even one of them!”

“Exactly! So many people have gone, but not many have passed the test. ”

As soon as he stepped out of the teleportation array, he could hear people discussing the medicine God mountain.

From the teleportation array behind him, more and more people walked out. They were all heading to the medicine God mountain.

“It’s really lively!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

The four of them boarded the immortal boat and headed straight for the medicine God mountain.

“We’re here!”

About ten minutes later, a pillar of light that connected the sky and the earth appeared in the distance. Countless divine lights rushed over from all directions and gathered toward the pillar of light.

When he got closer, Tang Hao saw the situation inside.

Within the pillar of light was a majestic divine mountain. It was covered in clouds and mist, and it was a verdant landscape.

In every corner of the divine mountain, there were many bi ‘an divine trees.

On each Divine Tree, there were scrolls hanging.

There were futons placed around the divine Tree.

At this moment, many people were sitting on these futons. Some were holding cauldrons and refining medicinal pills, while others were scratching their heads, racking their brains to think of some problem.

“It seems like those scrolls are the test!”

The nation protecting Saint said as he swept his gaze across.

The four of them put away the immortal boat and entered the mountain. They weren’t in a hurry to complete the test, but first understood the situation.

“The tests here are divided into nine grades according to the height. The higher you go, the higher the grade and the more difficult it is. The highest grade is nine, and it is at the peak of the divine mountain!”

Tang Hao turned his gaze to the summit.

There were very few people there. There were only three to five of them. Most of them were gathered at the mountainside. Here, most of them were rank-4s and rank-5s. The difficulty level was considered average.

And even if it was medium, the difficulty was quite high. Those who could sit here were all alchemy Masters, leading figures.

“Old Tiantong, old Samantabhadra, and ye Futian ... Old Taixu are here too?!”

He swept his gaze around the mountainside and saw many old acquaintances.

The two celestial Lords Tiantong and Samantabhadra, along with ye Futian, Supreme Taixu, and a group of people from the Yuanshi sect, occupied a Divine Tree and sat in a circle.

Just like the others, some of them were refining pills, while others were frowning in deep thought.

As if sensing his gaze, sovereign Taixu, who was deep in thought, suddenly came to his senses and looked up.

The next moment, his expression changed.

His eyes were filled with panic and fear.

It's that kid!

Now, the person he was most afraid of seeing was this kid!

His cultivation base was still at the Golden immortal stage. During this period of time, he had obtained some immortal fate, but it had only risen to the intermediate golden immortal stage. This kid, on the other hand, had long since reached the zenith heaven realm, and his cultivation base was unfathomable.

Even the two heavenly venerates, Tiantong and Samantabhadra, were no match for this kid.

With this brat's sacred art, killing him would be a piece of cake.

His face was pale, and he moved closer to Tiantong and Samantabhadra.

The only people who could save his life now were these two.

Tang Hao chuckled when he saw that.

Did this old man think that he could live by clinging to the primitive sect?

What a joke!

Beside Supreme Taixu, ye Futian also looked up, and his expression changed.

"Master, that kid is here!"

He shouted at the heavenly Dao Daoist.

“What? That kid is here?”

The heavenly Dao Daoist immediately cried out in alarm, his expression somewhat flustered. The next moment, the pill cauldron in front of him shook, and with a bang, it exploded.

“A!”

Seeing this, the heavenly Dao Daoist was stunned. He slapped his thigh in frustration.

He had already been refining this furnace of pills for half a day. It looked like he was about to succeed, but in the end, he failed at the last step.

“It’s all because of this little brat!”

He narrowed his eyes and cursed in a low voice with a dark face.

He didn’t dare to continue refining pills. Instead, he adopted a vigilant posture and glared at Tang Hao as if he was facing a great enemy.

“You guys continue!”

Tang Hao met his gaze for a moment, then suddenly grinned.

Now was not the time to deal with the primordial beginning sect. To kill big Luo, his cultivation and supernatural powers were not enough.

“I’ll go up!”

“Let’s go!” Tang Hao turned around and said to the three of them, then he flew up.
