

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3336

“What’s going on?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

This fluctuation was extremely vast, and it actually came from an extremely far place. It must be extraordinary.

Even an Immortal King couldn’t create such a big commotion that could spread to half of the immortal world.

“It’s like ... The fluctuations of the void. What’s going on?”

He furrowed his brows slightly, and a hint of uneasiness rose in his heart.

“This is ...?”

At this moment, countless people in the immortal world sensed this fluctuation. Their expressions changed and they looked up.

“What’s going on?”

“Is this the birth of an immortal encounter?”

Everyone was extremely bewildered.

The first thing they thought of was the celestial fate, but after thinking about it carefully, they realized that it wasn't right. No celestial fate had ever caused such a huge impact that came from half the celestial realm.

In the past, the immortal encounter had only affected half a continent.

"This aura ... Something's wrong!"

"Why do I have a bad feeling about this?"

Many Immortals of the great all-embracing heaven looked worried.

They all had a bad feeling about this.

It was as if this fluctuation represented some kind of ominous sign.

"Go! Let's go take a look!"

At that moment, many people moved and rushed in the direction of the fluctuation.

"This fluctuation ... What's going on?"

The arch puppet sect.

At the top of the medicine Mountain, under the Hong Meng tree, a pair of beautiful eyes suddenly opened, and a sharp light shone out.

Immortal execution King suddenly stood up. Divine light shone in his eyes as he looked into the distance.

This fluctuation caused her heart to palpitate.

“This is clearly the fluctuation of the regional wall! However, how could the wall of the immortal realm have any fluctuations? Could it be ... Someone wanted to break the wall? But, who is this?”

She mumbled, feeling a little uneasy.

“It’s the regional wall! Who is it?”

“The regional wall is moving!”

At this moment, the celestial Kings who were hiding in various places in the celestial world were also alarmed.

However, they didn’t dare to move, nor did they dare to release their divine senses to investigate.

They could only look in the direction of the fluctuation and guess.

At the same time, he sent out the clone he had killed to investigate.

“He’s still over there!”

After activating the teleportation formation and traveling for another half a day, Tang Hao was close to the source of the energy fluctuations.

From all directions, figures continued to rush over. Some were immortal souls, while others were true bodies.

They also felt a strong sense of uneasiness from this fluctuation, so they came to investigate personally.

“That’s weird! I didn’t see anything out of the ordinary!”

They searched the surroundings and used all sorts of divine eyes and spells, but they found nothing.

There was nothing unusual in this world.

When he was close to the source of the fluctuations, Tang Hao stood still and took out his spirit truth Magic Eye.

He used the power of his Dharma Eye to scan the void. After a while, he shook his head and revealed a disappointed expression.

He didn’t find anything.

“Then ... What is it?”

He didn’t feel at ease because of this. Instead, he felt even more uneasy.

Thearch puppet sect.

Immortal execution King retracted his divine eyes and frowned.

This situation was very unusual.

“Could it be them? But why did they break the wall? Didn’t we have an agreement? In a few years, it will be time for the sacrifice. Could it be that there is a change there?”

She mumbled as her heart grew heavy.

“Hmph! This group of ants!”

At this moment, in the deep, vast darkness, there was an ancient Golden Bridge floating.

On the other side of the bridge, there were many blurry figures.

They were tall and were all shrouded in brilliant nine-colored divine light. The divine light was the most intense between their brows, as dazzling as the sun.

Their eyes were like torches as they passed through the immortal ancient bridge in front of them and the boundless boundary wall. They saw a vague scene where many Immortals were lingering with confused and uneasy expressions.

Looking at these Immortals, they all sneered with disdain.

Immortals were just lowly creatures!

In front of their noble God race, they were like ants!

“A few celestial Kings and zenith heavens want to fool us? That’s too easy on them!”

“That’s right! The agreement made 10000 years ago between the ancestor God and their Emperor Tianhuang is no longer suitable for today. It’s time to nullify it!”

“The reason why we signed the contract back then was because the ancestor God pitied them for wagging their tails to beg for mercy. That’s why we signed the contract. Such a contract is useless to us Celestials and should have been abolished long ago!”

These people whispered.

“The immortal ancient bridge is ready. Soon, we’ll just have to wait for the ancestor God to descend and shatter the regional walls. We’ll turn this so-called immortal world into our God race’s hunting ground!”

“At that time, I will be the first to rush into this world. This time, I will kill at least three celestial Kings of the human race!”

“Three? It was too little! The celestial Kings of the human race are nothing but pigs and dogs to us Celestials. How much effort can it take to kill a few pigs and dogs?”

Their tone gradually became excited.

Soon, they disappeared, and even the Golden ancient bridge lost its divine light, revealing the green stone bridge that stretched across the void.

In the immortal realm, Tang Hao searched for a long time, but he still found nothing.

He shook his head in disappointment.

After this round of investigation, not only did he not eliminate the uneasiness in his heart, but his suspicions also became stronger.

Because the unknown was the most terrifying!

“Could this be ... The so-called Great Tribulation?”

He scanned the void in all directions and muttered.

However, according to the night Immortal King, the so-called catastrophe wouldn’t happen so soon.

“Of course not!”

Just as he was in a daze, he sensed a familiar presence behind him. He didn’t have to turn around to know that the night Immortal King had arrived.

He didn’t know what the night Immortal King had done to him, but he was able to tear open the void and appear behind him every time.

“What is that?”

Tang Hao turned around and looked at her.

“I don’t know either!”

The night Immortal King shook his head, and his face was unusually serious.

“Aren’t you a Celestial King?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

Was there anything she didn’t know in the immortal world?

“So what if he’s a Celestial King? he’s not a Celestial Emperor!” The night Immortal King chuckled. “No one among us immortal kings knows about this. In fact, this has never happened before.”

“The strange movement just now was the regional wall moving!”

As she spoke, her tone gradually became serious.

“Regional wall? You’re saying that outside this regional wall, someone is shaking the regional wall?”

Tang Hao was shocked. His expression changed.

“That’s right!”

The night Immortal King nodded.

“Motherf * cker!”

“F * ck!” Tang Hao cursed under his breath. His expression was grim.

Who else could it be that wanted to break the regional walls? it was naturally the Dragon count celestial race!

That bunch of F * ckers, don't tell me they're thinking of destroying the immortal world?
