

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3339

“It’s him!”

Tang Hao’s immortal soul stood in the air. His eyes shone with divine light as he saw the scene in the distance.

There, a figure was standing proudly in the sky, facing the sea of Thunder of the immortal tribulation.

He was the first on the zenith heaven roll, Taishang Taoist!

Tang Hao wasn’t surprised at all. This person had been a zenith heaven for God knows how many years. His cultivation was already quite profound, and with this opportunity, he would naturally be the first to pass the Tribulation.

He just watched.

He would have to transcend this immortal King tribulation sooner or later. Now, he could observe it so that it would be more convenient for him to transcend tribulations in the future.

“It’s the Grand Supreme!”

“It should be him!”

All the zenith heavens in the immortal world nodded their heads after seeing this.

It was reasonable for him to be the first to undergo the Tribulation.

This immortal tribulation lasted for an entire day.

Taishang Daoist used many methods, although it was difficult, he still successfully passed the Tribulation.

“Congratulations, fellow Daoist, on reaching the celestial King realm!”

“Greetings, Grand Supreme Immortal King!”

The Tribulation lightning dispersed, and many figures appeared in all directions. They were all zenith heavens who had come to congratulate him.

Tang Hao also went over to congratulate him.

This Taishang Daoist didn't have any enmity with him, so it wasn't a bad idea to have a good relationship with him.

“It's this kid!”

“He's also here!”

When the rest of the big Luos saw him, their expressions changed slightly. Some of them looked embarrassed, while some of them looked gloomy and unfriendly.

This kid's cultivation seemed to be getting deeper and deeper. Perhaps he would also be going through a tribulation soon.

Even if some of them had advanced to the immortal King realm, they probably wouldn't be able to suppress this kid.

"Hmph!"

They snorted unhappily and left with a flick of their sleeves.

"You're too polite, fellow Daoist!"

On the other hand, the Grand Supreme elder was rather polite to him. He raised his hand and saluted him.

Tang Hao returned the gesture and left.

In the blink of an eye, another month passed, and another person crossed the heavenly Tribulation. It was the old monster from the netherworld River great religion.

However, after the tribulation, this old monster didn't look for trouble. Instead, he continued to search for immortal encounters.

He had also thought it through very clearly. If he were to deal with that kid, he would only be able to chase him away at most. He wouldn't be able to kill him, so there was no need to waste this effort. He might as well use his Immortal King cultivation base to snatch more immortal fate. This was the more important thing.

Tang Hao was happy to see that happen.

Another month later, another two people would undergo the heavenly Tribulation. They were both old monsters ranked in the top few on the zenith heaven roll.

Tang Hao's cultivation base had also successfully entered the realm of 90000 stars.

"90000! It was fast! As long as I can condense another 10000 Dao stars, I will reach the peak!"

In the bright moon Palace, Tang Hao opened his eyes and smiled.

He had reached this realm quite quickly. It had only been a few years since he had advanced to the zenith heaven realm, and he had already reached 90000 Dao stars.

"Continue!"

He rested for a while, then his immortal soul came out and was about to rush into the sky.

At this time, his expression changed. He suddenly raised his head and looked into the distance.

It was that direction again!

It was the same fluctuation, the same aura!

"This is really bad!"

His expression changed.

For there to be such a disturbance now, it meant that outside the regional wall, someone was trying to break the regional wall again. Last time, it was just a test, this time, it was the real attempt.

“What’s going on?”

“It’s this fluctuation again, and it’s coming from that direction!”

At this moment, countless people in the immortal world were shocked again. They all focused their eyes and looked in that direction.

Whether it was the immortal kings, zenith heavens, or golden Immortals, all of them were solemn.

Just as everyone was bewildered and speculating, another wave of fluctuations came.

It was even more intense than the previous round.

“Not good!”

At the peak of the medicine Mountain in the Thearch puppet sect, immortal execution King’s expression changed.

The last time, the regional wall only shook slightly, but this time, it was a huge shake. Right now, outside the regional wall, there was obviously an extremely terrifying force bombarding the regional wall, which was why it could create such a huge wave.

Immortal Emperor!

He was an immortal Emperor-level ancestral God!

“All disciples of Emperor puppet sect, come back!”

She stood up, rushed into the sky, and shouted in all directions.

The power of the ancestor God was unstoppable!

Even she didn't dare to face an ancestor God!

The only thing he could do now was hide.

“What's going on? Why were they attacking the regional walls? Are they going to break the contract?”

The celestial Kings hiding in various places were all shocked and angry.

They didn't pay much attention to it after sensing the unusual movement last time. After some discussion, they all felt that it was unlikely that the other side would break the contract.

But now it seemed that the other side was determined to tear the contract and destroy his immortal world.

“What do we do now?”

“We're finished!”

Then, they were extremely frightened and didn't know what to do.

Their plan had been disrupted.

Against the terrifying Dragon count divine clan, they did not have any chance of winning!

They were only at the immortal King realm, and as long as an ancestral God descended, they would all be slaughtered.

“Where is Emperor Tianhuang?”

“I don’t know! The heavenly Dao hasn’t awakened yet, and I don’t know when it will!”

They looked up at the sky anxiously.

“Fellow Daoist! What had happened? Why do I feel like something earth-shattering is about to happen?”

With a few exclamations, the nation-protecting Saint led the two Saint emperors into the palace.

The three of them had extremely grave expressions.

“The sky is falling!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he looked into the distance.

From the other side, a series of powerful fluctuations could be felt, shaking the entire immortal world.

He could already see that a faint crack had appeared in the void, and it was constantly expanding.

“The sky is falling? Is the immortal world finished?”

The old dynasty founding Emperor was in disbelief.

“Hurry up! Quickly take them in and hide!”

After a moment, he reacted and shouted anxiously.

Then, he brought tantai Feiyun along and left.

Clang clang clang!

Soon, the rapid ringing of the bell spread throughout the Saint spirit celestial dynasty.

In the imperial capital, many figures rushed into the sky, took out pagodas, and opened them.

From all four corners of the Imperial City, countless figures rushed over and poured into these pagodas.

“This was originally a plan for when the celestial dynasty was destroyed. It has never been used for so many years. I didn’t expect it to be used today!” The nation-protecting Saint looked around and smiled bitterly.

All these years, he had never felt as uneasy as he was now.

“Fellow Daoist, come with us and hide inside later!”

He said as he looked at Tang Hao.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded. He called for Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci to come over and put them into his portable herb garden.

“Let’s go!”

The nation protecting Saint stood up and led the way towards the center of the Imperial City.

At this moment, from all four corners of the Imperial City, many figures on pagodas were flying towards the center of the Imperial City.

The originally bustling Imperial City was now empty.

Tang Hao raised his eyes again and looked into the distance.

There, the crack was expanding, and a dazzling golden light was leaking out.

The moment he entered the center of the Imperial City, the crack completely collapsed with a violent fluctuation, and endless golden light gushed out.

In the golden light, the shadow of a bridge could be seen.

This Golden Bridge extended from the other side of the void and entered the celestial world. On the bridge stood many figures, all of them shrouded in nine-colored divine light.
