

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3345

“I’m going to kill you!”

Dragon count roared at the sky, and a shocking nine-colored divine light bloomed from his body. In the next moment, his body began to expand, turning into a giant that was entirely golden.

Tang Hao had anticipated this move, so he was faster than him and revealed his immortal spirit body.

“Die!” He shouted and grabbed his gods Palace, smashing it toward giant God long Bo who was still expanding his body.

Ah!

There was a scream.

That Dragon count staggered and fell down, and half of his head was smashed apart.

“You still want to kill me!”

Tang Hao sneered. Ten thousand laws divine mountain also flew out and smashed down together with the gods Palace and the sea calming divine Pearl.

The three Supreme treasures smashed long Bo’s skin and flesh, causing his flesh to split open.

“Three Emperor artifacts? Who ... Who are you? And this lightning, how did you get this lightning?” The Dragon count was completely stunned, and after a moment, he let out a shrill cry of shock.

He found it unbelievable. Humans were so weak that they could be killed easily. Why was this human in front of him so terrifying?

His physical body, divine powers, and treasures were all so terrifying!

Especially the lightning, it was like the legendary lightning!

“I told you, the person who will kill you! Your flesh and blood, I want it!”

Tang Hao laughed coldly. He grabbed the ten thousand laws divine mountain and smashed it down again, completely crushing Dragon Count’s head.

Subsequently, he grabbed that Dragon Count’s arm and forcefully pulled it off.

Then, another one.

Then two legs!

“And your power, I want it too!”

In the end, he extended his hand toward the head that had reformed and pressed it on the divine crystal between his brows.

This was the source of a Dragon Count’s power, where the core was!

He was going to take this divine crystal!

“No... Don’t! You can’t do this!” “No!” Long Bo screamed in fear.

He could sense that all the power in his body was leaving him.

This human could actually strip him of his power as a celestial!

This was too terrifying!

This person was definitely a great enemy of his long Bo clan, and he definitely could not be left alive!

He struggled, trying to send his thoughts out, but the four directions had been sealed, and this place was already a cage.

“Don’t ... Don’t ...”

His consciousness quickly scattered, and his voice became weak.

In the end, Tang Hao dug out the divine crystal between his brows and threw it into the great void divine furnace.

Next, he opened his mouth and sucked the flesh and blood of this Dragon count into his stomach, starting to devour it.

This immortal spirit body of his was originally an imitation of the Dragon count clan. He had the ability to devour and could continuously evolve.

After swallowing this Dragon count, his immortal spirit body would become even stronger!

After doing all this, he shrank his body and returned to his original form. Then, with a wave of his sleeve, he destroyed all the traces in this area.

“Good treasure!”

He stretched out his hand and the divine spear on the ground flew into his palm.

His divine sense poured in and instantly erased all the imprints left on it, refining it for his own use.

“I don’t think it’s necessary yet, just throw it into the divine furnace!”

After playing with it for a while, he also threw the divine spear into the divine furnace.

However, he was afraid that the gods race would come after this guy when they found out that he was dead. If they were exposed, it would be troublesome.

“Lady Feng!”

After that, he concealed his aura and deactivated the formation. He then headed toward Feng Qingyan.

Feng Qingyan stood there, still in a daze.

The battle just now had completely shocked her.

“Are you alright?”

Tang Hao asked her with concern when he saw her dazed expression.

“I’m ... I’m fine!”

Feng Qingyan quickly replied.

“Did you ... Specially come to save me?” She said in a low voice.

“Mm! I happened to see it before, so I came to help you. ” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“I’m sorry!”

Feng Qingyan’s eyes suddenly turned red, and she bit her red lips.

“What’s wrong?”

Tang Hao was confused.

“It’s my fault for not being able to stop martial uncle. I’ve already tried my best!” She began to sob as her delicate body trembled. Tears rolled down from her beautiful eyes.

In the beginning, she could still restrain herself, but very quickly, she broke down and started to cry.

Tang Hao was silent.

She had always blamed herself for what had happened to her, and now, she had encountered such a huge change. Many of her clan members had died, and she had almost been taken away, so she had lost control of her emotions.

“I’m fine! I’m not blaming you!”

Tang Hao said gently as he stepped forward.

She raised her head and looked at him with tears in her eyes. Her eyes were full of gentleness and grievance.

Suddenly, her body moved and she pounced over, hugging him tightly.

“I’m fine now!”

Tang Hao said softly.

After hugging her for a long time, she slowly calmed down and regained her senses.

“I’m sorry!”

She suddenly let go and took a few steps back. Her beautiful face was so red that it was almost dripping with water.

“We should go! It’ll be bad if they find a dead person!”

She lowered her head, not daring to look at him.

“En!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“Do you still want to save your clansmen?” He asked.

She hesitated for a moment, but still shook her head firmly.

“I have thousands of clansmen with me. I can’t take any more risks. They won’t want me to save them.”

“That’s good!”

Tang Hao had the same plan, but he wanted her to say it herself.

“Let’s go to the ancient tai Chu land and hide!”

Tang Hao said after some thought.

He couldn’t go to the Saint spirit dynasty as it was too risky. The best way was to go to the ancient tai Chu land, which was extremely well-hidden and difficult to discover.

“You make the decision!”

She hummed in agreement and nodded.

Tang Hao opened his mobile abode and kept her. He then turned around and headed back to the ancient tai Chu land.

Along the way, he carefully hid his tracks.

Half a day later, they arrived at the ancient tai Chu land successfully. They then traveled all the way to the cave abode that had been set up in this place.

“The ancient tai Chu tide is everywhere, and its aura is chaotic. It’ll be hard for them to find us, so we’re safe for now.”

Tang Hao settled her down in the cave abode.

“Thank you ... Young master!”

She bowed and was stunned, but she did not know what to call him. In the past, she used to call him President Shi, but obviously, his surname was not Shi, and he was no longer President. She only knew that his surname was Tang, but she did not know his name.

He knew very little about him, and he knew no more than the rest of the world.

After thinking about it, he could only call out to young master first.

He was so young, so it was most appropriate for him to call her that.

“No need to thank me! You go in first and take a rest! I still have something to do!” Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled.

“En!”

She responded in a low voice.

Tang Hao gave her a few more instructions, then turned around and left the cave.

He circled around and raised his hand to shoot out rays of divine light, setting up a large array to hide his aura.

Then, he returned to the hall, sat down, and took out the divine furnace.

He lit up the divine fire and started refining. He refined everything on the body of the Dragon count divine clan. He was determined not to leave behind any trace of Qi.

Only in this way could they be absolutely safe!
