

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3346

“Hmph! Human ant, you still want to run?”

Somewhere in the immortal realm, two divine lights were speeding.

The one chasing behind him was a nine-colored divine light.

After chasing for a moment, he stopped, grabbed a divine bow, and fired an arrow.

The next moment, a figure exploded in the distance. It was one of the Feng clan zenith heavens.

He shot forward and fired another arrow, blowing big Luo up again.

Then, he opened his mouth and swallowed it.

“Four more ...”

He turned around and looked in all directions.

He had memorized the auras of the five people just now. As long as he followed them a little, he would be able to catch up.

“I wonder if Lei Jue has caught that woman. He should have. She has the lowest cultivation level, so he should be able to catch up with her soon.”

He had tracked the aura of one person, but he did not give chase immediately. Instead, he looked in the direction that his other companion had flown in.

He had already taken care of one of them, and that guy should have caught up with him by now. However, there was still no news of him.

“Don’t tell me they’ve already been caught and are doing that!”

He was suddenly startled and laughed out loud.

This human celestial maiden was different from his Celestials. She was delicate and had a different kind of charm.

“When he’s done, he’ll naturally come to me!”

He chuckled and moved, chasing after the human that he had just tracked.

After half a day of chasing, he finally caught up to his target and successfully devoured it.

“That’s weird. Why hasn’t lei Jue come yet? there’s no news at all.”

At this moment, he began to feel that something was wrong.

It had been so long, but there was still no news. This situation was not right.

However, this was the immortal world. With Lei Jue’s power, he couldn’t have been in trouble. What was he doing?

“Let’s go and take a look!”

After hesitating for a while, he decided to go and look.

He was in no hurry to kill the remaining three humans.

Lei Jue hadn’t been looking for him for a long time. Perhaps he had found something good, so he was avoiding him.

How could he tolerate this kind of thing!

He returned to the place where they had separated, and quickly followed the direction Lei Jue had gone. At the same time, he spread out his divine sense and searched along the way.

“No, I didn’t! Still nothing!”

“There’s no trace of him at all. Where did he go?”

A few hours later, his expression gradually turned grave.

In his heart, he felt a little uneasy.

They had not found him after so long, not even a trace of him. Could it be that ... Something had happened?

But how was that possible?

With Lei Jue's strength, even a human Celestial King might not be able to kill him!

Besides, weren't these celestial Kings of the human race all in hiding? all of them were terrified, so how could they dare to attack the gods race?

"Still nothing!"

He expanded his search area and searched everywhere. However, after half a day, he still found nothing.

Lei Jue had completely disappeared!

"I'll go back and ask! What if he has already gone back?"

In the end, he gave up on searching and headed towards the celestial ancient bridge.

"You're back so quickly?"

The immortal ancient bridge was erected in the void, and a nine-colored figure sat cross-legged on the bridge, guarding it.

Sensing the approaching divine light, he couldn't help but open his eyes and look into the distance.

This seemed to be a little fellow from the Lei clan!

"How many humans have you killed? I just want to go back!" When the figure approached, he snorted in a low voice.

"I don't want to go back, but I want to find someone. Lei Jue, who was with me, is missing. I couldn't find him after searching for a whole day, so I came to ask if he has returned!" The figure stopped in front of him and respectfully said.

The old man on the bridge shook his head and said, "no one has ever returned."

"That's strange. I've looked everywhere and asked a few clansmen, but they all said they didn't see him." That person asked, puzzled.

"You can't find it?"

The old man on the bridge was also surprised.

This situation was a little strange!

A member of his God clan had actually gone missing in the celestial world!

"He's deliberately not wanting to be found! Or, he has entered some hidden place, so you can't find him. Wait for a few days, he will naturally appear." The old man on the bridge said, not thinking much of it.

"It doesn't look like it! Also, I have a bad feeling about this." The Thunder clan man said.

"Ominous? Buzzzzzz! Are you trying to say that the geniuses of my gods race have died in the immortal world? Hahaha! How could this be possible? Ridiculous! Ridiculous!"

The old man on the bridge was so angry that he laughed and shouted, "this human is nothing but an ant to us Celestials. Have you ever heard that an ant can shake the heavens?"

"But ..."

That person still wanted to argue.

"No buts, let's go back! After a few days, that kid will naturally appear on his own." The old man on the bridge was a little impatient and waved his hand.

He simply didn't believe that the genius of the Thunder clan would die Here!

The Lei clan genius hesitated for a moment before turning around to continue his search.

At this moment, a divine light flew over from the other side of the void and landed on the bridge.

"A genius from my Lei clan has fallen. Quickly apprehend the murderer and bring him back to the divine world!"

The divine light exploded, and an angry roar came out, shaking the world.

The old man sitting cross-legged on the bridge shuddered and almost jumped up.

His eyes were wide open, revealing an expression of extreme disbelief.

That genius from the Lei clan was really dead?

Who was it?

Who in the immortal world could kill him?

Who would dare to kill him?

Were they not afraid of the divine realm's wrath and the complete destruction of this realm?

"As expected!"

The Lei clan genius's body trembled as he muttered to himself.

He had a premonition before, but he couldn't believe that there was someone in the immortal world who could kill Lei Jue. Now, the news from his clan had confirmed Lei Jue's death.

Geniuses like them would leave behind a wisp of their psyche in their clans to be made into soul lamps.

Once they died, no matter where they were, the soul lamps of their race would be extinguished.

The divine light quickly dispersed.

The old man on the bridge stood up and paced back and forth on the same spot, but he was a little anxious.

The death of a genius here was not a small matter. He had to catch the murderer and hand him over to the Lei clan. Otherwise, things would be troublesome.

“Do you know who he is?”

After a while, he raised his head and looked at the Lei clan genius in front of him with a burning gaze, “which Immortal King is it? Were there any special characteristics? Or do you have something that can be used to track him?”

“This ...”

The Lei clan genius shook his head and laughed bitterly.

If he knew anything, he would not have come here to ask.

“Then tell me what happened in detail.” The old man on the bridge said.

“Alright!”

That genius muttered to himself for a moment before explaining what had happened in detail.

“The dead Lei Jue went after a woman? And that woman only had the cultivation of a newly promoted zenith heaven? After that, there was no trace of him at all. He didn’t even send you a message to ask for help?”
