

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3353

“Don’t hold back, kill them with all your strength!”

“If we can’t kill this human brat, how can we go back with our faces!”

The group of Protoss geniuses had ugly expressions on their faces after failing to take him down after a long time.

They all gritted their teeth, and their auras rose sharply.

Just now, they had all looked down on him, thinking that with so many people attacking together, they could easily kill this brat. But in the end, they were blocked, causing them to lose face.

As they went all out, Tang Hao was starting to feel a little strained.

After all, he was only one person.

His mind moved, and a purple light shot up from the top of his head.

The ten thousand laws divine mountain appeared and hung high above his head.

Rings of purple ripples continued to spread out, suppressing the paragons of the Protoss in all directions.

“What is this?”

“This divine light can actually suppress my divine essence!”

A wave of exclamations exploded.

The group of Celestials 'heaven's favorites were all shocked.

Before they could recover, another golden light shot up into the sky. It was a golden immortal Palace. There was a vast world inside, with countless Taoist Sutras and Buddhist scriptures being chanted, mixed with the roars of dragons and tigers.

"What's that? The ancient celestial soil!"

They focused their eyes and were shocked again.

A mountain and a Hall, they exuded boundless might and suppressed the entire void.

The group of heaven's favorites felt like they were stuck in a quagmire and were suppressed.

Then, another divine light appeared.

A dazzling Pearl rushed out and smashed down.

Ah!

With a scream, a heaven's favorite staggered and fell down.

Then, Peng Peng Peng!

The Pearl was like a bolt of lightning, swimming through the crowd and knocking away the heaven's favorites who were caught off guard.

"It's the ancient Dao Emperor's ten thousand laws divine mountain!"

When the purple divine mountain appeared, the ancestor God's eyes narrowed slightly.

The name of this treasure had shaken the ancient world, so he naturally knew of it.

However, when he saw the Golden immortal Palace, he revealed a puzzled expression.

Although the power of this treasure was shocking and was not inferior to Emperor artifacts, the material and aura did not seem to come from the hands of an immortal Emperor. It was a little strange.

"The sea calming Pearl!"

When the Pearl appeared, his pupils shrank again.

This was a good thing. If he had a few more, his power would far surpass that of ten thousand laws divine mountain.

"Three Emperor artifacts? This kid ... He really has a lot of treasures!"

He was a little speechless.

The celestial world was not like his celestial race. It was already amazing for a zenith heaven realm cultivator to have one emperor weapon, but this kid had three. He was truly monstrous!

“How does this guy have so many Emperor weapons?”

The paragons were also extremely shocked.

Each of them had at most two, one weapon and one armor, but this human had more than them, and that was not counting the two ancestral God weapons he had snatched!

“Not good!”

Then, their expressions changed.

There were two treasures above their heads suppressing them, and one treasure was wandering around, ambushing them continuously. That fellow was holding an ancestor God battle spear, and was abnormally valiant. It was as if a God had descended to the mortal world, forcing them to retreat continuously.

“Motherf * cker!”

Some of the Celestials were caught off guard and were first hit by the sea calming divine Pearl. The next moment, that fellow charged over with a divine spear. The spear hit him so hard that he vomited blood and was sent flying.

He stopped and wiped the divine blood from the corner of his mouth, his expression extremely ugly.

“I won’t keep you company. I’ll use my divine body to tear you apart!”

He raised his head and howled, and brilliant divine light burst out from his body.

“We also use it! Let’s tear him apart together!”

The other heaven’s favorites of the gods race looked at each other and nodded.

In the next moment, in all directions of the void, one figure after another burst out with dazzling divine light.

One giant God after another appeared in the world. Each one was tens of millions of feet tall. At first glance, they all looked similar, but the divine patterns on their bodies and the divine crystals between their brows were somewhat different.

Tang Hao activated his immortal physique without hesitation.

The nine-eyed giant God descended upon the earth once more.

His appearance had changed again. He had grown a bit taller, and he was a few million feet taller than giant God Dragon count, who was the tallest in the four directions.

At the same time, his aura also became more powerful.

On his back, there were two protrusions that looked like the embryonic form of a pair of wings.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

An earth-shaking roar.

As soon as he appeared, he pounced directly at a giant God beside him and slapped him. Then, he opened his mouth and blasted out another divine light, causing the giant God to stagger and fall down.

“His immortal spirit body is even stronger!”

“It’s indeed devouring! This celestial body is evolving!”

The two great emperors were stunned.

Their gazes all fell on the bulge on the back of the immortal body.

It was like a pair of wings that were still growing, and it was about to be successfully nurtured.

If he succeeded, would he become a powerful divine ability like the nine divine eyes?

BOOM! BOOM!

Only the rumbling and angry howls could be heard in the world.

Previously, the battle between the two giant gods was already earth-shattering, but now, dozens of giant gods were fighting together, making the situation even more terrifying.

Emperor Tianhuang frowned as he looked on. From time to time, he reached out his hand to repair the void and the land.

“The wings ... Are coming out!”

On the immortal spirit body’s back, two protrusions continued to grow and gradually turned into the shape of wings.

Suddenly, a blinding divine light burst out from it, illuminating the vast heaven and earth.

Whoosh!

There was a loud bang.

A pair of dazzling light wings spread out behind the immortal spirit body. It was extremely resplendent! It was extremely gorgeous!

Then, there was a swish!

This pair of wings of light spread out, and with a sudden spin, swept in all directions.

Ahhhh!

In an instant, there were screams as the Dragon count giant gods all had their flesh cut off.

“They’re not wings of flesh. They’re wings of light formed from some kind of divine light!”

Emperor Tianhuang squinted his eyes and saw the wings clearly.

This was a kind of divine light condensed by an immortal spell, just like the famous divine lights of the ancient times, and its power was quite extraordinary.

“Gulp! Gulu!”

A huge hand reached out and grabbed all the flesh and blood that had been cut off, swallowing it in one gulp.

“Not good!”

The group of Celestials ‘paragons were shocked again.

This guy was already so powerful. If he devoured their flesh and blood, wouldn’t he become even more abnormal?

They took out their weapons and expanded them to their maximum, ready to attack.

At this moment, nine extremely bright beams of divine light burst out from the celestial spiritual body.

“Ah, Yingluo!”

The few giant gods who were the first to bear the brunt immediately screamed and fell down.

BOOM! BOOM!

It was the sound of the immortal walking over and shaking the earth. He held a black spear in his hand and roared as he struck out with it. A heaven's favorite raised his spear to block but was forced back. The spear pierced through his shoulder.

Pfft!

The nine-colored divine blood gushed out and splashed in the air.

"Swish!"

He waved his divine spear to the side and blasted away another heaven's favorite of the Celestials.

Tang Hao wielded his spear and opened his Nine Eyes. A pair of wings of light spread out from his back. He forced the group of Protoss geniuses to retreat. Divine blood splattered everywhere. He was invincible!
