

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3354

“How could this be ...”

The ancestor God was in a daze when he saw this.

So many paragons had come at him together, yet they still couldn't suppress this human brat and were being forced to retreat!

“Trash! They're a bunch of trash!”

He gritted his teeth and cursed.

After all, he was a first-class heaven's favorite of the gods race. To think that he would be killed so miserably by a human!

Not far behind him, the old man at the sun god Realm was dumbfounded.

His eyes were wide open throughout the entire process.

It was too shocking!

This human genius was almost on par with the top geniuses that his Celestials had nurtured with all their might!

One had to know that these geniuses were the result of the gathering of the leaders of ten thousand clans and countless experiments!

“Mom! This kid is too fierce!”

In the Buddha realm, the primordial chaos boy shuddered when he saw this.

Of course, he had an immortal spirit body, but how could he be so fierce? at most, he could only fight one or two people, but this kid could fight dozens at once. He was simply too fierce!

“Not bad!”

Emperor Tianhuang looked on and nodded with a smile.

The more powerful this kid was, the better. If he could defeat this group of gods race monsters, he could drive the gods race back and ensure the safety of the immortal world.

“You guys should stop! If this battle continues, I’m afraid all of you monstrous geniuses will be devoured. You’re all heaven’s pride experts after all, it’ll be a pity to lose even one of you.” He looked at the ancestor God and smiled.

“Hmph!”

The ancestor God looked up, and his face was ashen under the divine light.

The operation this time was jointly organized by a few of their clans, and there was quite a bit of resistance in the divine realm. If they were to run back with their tails between their legs now, their clans would lose all their face.

However, if they didn’t run, a few of these heaven’s favorites might die Here, and their losses would be even greater.

“It’s all because of this damned brat!”

He gritted his teeth and glared at the human brat.

It was this brat who had single-handedly destroyed his plans.

“If I make a move, Tianhuang will definitely stop me. It’s very difficult to kill this kid. I might as well let him go. This kid won’t live anyway. Tianhuang will not let him live.”

He thought to himself.

“Stop! Let’s go!”

He shouted at the battlefield.

The group of heaven’s favorites from the Celestials stopped.

Even though they were unwilling, they still retracted their divine bodies and flew back.

All of them were a little tired, and their auras were weak.

It was a stark contrast to the high-spirited and insufferably arrogant appearance they had when they arrived.

“When I return, I’ll work hard on my cultivation and come back to kill this human brat!”

A heaven's favorite of the Celestials said viciously.

"You guys have no chance!"

The ancestor God looked over and said with deep meaning.

Then, with a wave of his sleeve, he swept up everyone and headed towards the ancient bridge.

Tang Hao only retracted his immortal spirit body after they were some distance away.

His face was a little pale, and his aura was weak.

He had fought dozens of heaven's favorites of the gods race alone. Naturally, he had paid a high price. His celestial core power was almost depleted and he had also used up all his pills.

He took out the last few pills and swallowed them all, recovering some of his strength.

He heaved a few sighs of relief, but his expression did not ease up in the slightest.

His crisis had only just begun.

His opponent was the only Emperor in the immortal world!

With his current cultivation at the zenith heaven realm, he was too powerless to face an immortal Emperor.

From the moment he appeared until now, he had been thinking about how to deal with it, but he couldn't think of any feasible solution.

In fact, he was in despair.

“Not bad, young man!”

At this moment, Emperor Tianhuang's voice came from above.

The next moment, the dazzling figure appeared in front of him and stood a few hundred feet away from him.

“It's alright!”

Tang Hao laughed dryly, but his body tensed up.

There was no aura on Tianhuang old man's body, but he was so terrifying. Facing him was like facing an endless abyss.

“What the hell is this?”

He roared in his heart.

“Father!”

At this time, a clear shout was heard, and the immortal execution King appeared from the side and called out anxiously.

“Zhiqing! What’s wrong?”

Emperor Tianhuang turned around and smiled, but his tone remained calm.

Even in front of his own daughter, his tone did not seem to have any emotional fluctuations.

“Father, he is a member of my Emperor puppet sect. Can you please let him go? although he has the ancient Dao Emperor’s treasure, he is not his successor!” Immortal execution King said anxiously.

“Is that so?”

Emperor Tianhuang’s expression was indifferent.

“Zhiqing, it’s not like I’m trying to harm him. How can I let him go? he has made a great contribution to our immortal world in this battle and saved the people of the immortal world. I should be thanking him.” Then, he said with a faint smile.

“Young man, I have high hopes for you. Why don’t you become my disciple?”

He said as he looked at Tang Hao.

Watch your mother!

Tang Hao cursed in his heart.

He wasn't a three-year-old child, how could he believe such nonsense!

The old dog probably didn't want to kill him because he was afraid that it would be too embarrassing. Also, his daughter had appeared to ask for his help, so he wanted to lie to him first before killing him.

"Brat, hurry up and leave. Take advantage of the fact that the regional wall has yet to close up and escape into the God World. This way ... You will have a chance of survival!"

At this moment, a voice rang out in his heart.

"An ancient Dao senior?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

This was the first time his spiritual sense had appeared since he had taken ten thousand laws divine mountain.

"The reason why I didn't show myself was to preserve my strength. I knew that this day would come and you would run into planet Tianhuang. Now, you throw me out and go to the regional wall as fast as you can."

The ancient Dao divine sense anxiously said.

"Escape into the divine realm? That's a good idea, at least we can live!"

Tang Hao gritted his teeth and said to himself.

This was the only way!

If he stayed here, he would only die!

“I can hurt him and buy you a lot of time. Next, it’s up to you!” He said.

With that, ten thousand laws divine mountain shook and rushed out.

“Tianhuang, long time no see!”

A loud shout.

In the next moment, the divine mountain expanded and became hundreds of millions of feet tall. Endless purple divine light spread out and covered half of the immortal realm.

“Ancient order?”

Emperor Tianhuang’s expression changed for the first time.

“Not good!”

Then, he exclaimed in a low voice.

The ancient order had appeared to protect that kid!

As expected, the kid was no longer there.

“Over there!”

His eyes shone with divine light and he instantly found the position of the kid. He was escaping in the void and looking at the direction, it seemed to be the regional wall.

That brat is trying to escape to the divine realm!

As his spiritual will moved, golden lightning appeared in the void.

“Ah, Yingluo!”

Tang Hao was instantly struck, and his blood and flesh exploded.

“Motherf * cker! Tianhuang old dog, just you wait!”

He gritted his teeth and continued to escape.

“Stop!”

An angry roar came from behind.

Along the way, lightning flashed and struck him, causing his flesh and blood to explode.

He continued to reincarnate, and with a breath of air, he madly charged forward.

When he was about to reach the entrance, he activated a spell technique to cover his tracks and rushed in.
