

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3355

At the regional wall entrance.

On the immortal ancient bridge, a figure seemed to sense something and looked up.

“My Lord!”

Behind him, the old man at the sun god Realm seemed to have sensed it as well. He called out in a low voice, “did something happen just now? should we pursue it?”

The ancestor God turned around and looked into the depths of the immortal world, where a monstrous purple light was blooming.

“What are you chasing! Just now, nothing passed by, you’re wrong!”

With that, he turned around and looked deeply at the old man.

“Yes! My Lord!”

The old man bowed and said in fear.

If he could sense it at his realm, then Lord ancestor God would definitely be able to sense it as well.

Since Daren denied it, then he must have his own considerations.

“This kid is quite capable. I thought he was dead for sure!” Looking into the darkness, the ancestor God murmured in surprise.

That Tianhuang old man was the heavenly Dao of the immortal world. It was truly amazing that the person he wanted to kill could escape!

“Alright! This kid has a huge grudge against Tianhuang and he might be a chess piece against Tianhuang in the future. Tianhuang ... Should die.”

“However, he’s a human. I don’t know if he’ll be able to survive after entering the firmament ...”

“He should be able to. A top genius like him should be able to survive no matter where he goes.”

He stopped in his tracks and muttered to himself.

“Let’s go back! Don’t tell anyone about what happened in this world, it’s too embarrassing. If I hear any rumors in the future, I’ll hold you all responsible!” After a short while, he turned around and shouted at the group of heaven’s favorites.

“Yes! Lord Elder God!”

All the paragons said respectfully.

They were all people who cared about their reputation, so they naturally wouldn’t tell anyone about their crushing defeat.

Moreover, this wasn’t even a one-on-one battle. They had besieged a single person with so many people, yet they still suffered a crushing defeat. If such a battle record were to spread, it would probably cause a shock to the entire Shen clan, and the clan behind them would be completely disgraced.

“As for that brat from the Lei clan, he was killed by a few human celestial Kings. When I was taking revenge, I didn’t pay attention to my limits and directly destroyed their bodies and souls.”

The ancestor God said.

“Lord ancestral God is wise!”

The old man at the sun god Realm took the lead in flattering.

“Let’s go!”

The ancestor God finally laughed. He activated the Golden Bridge beneath his feet and fled into the darkness.

The darkness was boundless.

Tang Hao did not know how long he had been flying.

He was in a very bad condition. On his way to the realm entrance, he had been bombarded by the heavenly Dao divine Thunder many times. Those were the Thunderbolts released by the Furious immortal Emperor. His body had been shattered several times after just a few strikes.

Even though he could be reborn, he was still extremely weak.

At this moment, he couldn’t even release his divine sense far. At a glance, all he could see was darkness, and he couldn’t find the way to the divine world.

“What’s that? It’s a golden light, a bridge. Oh right, it’s that group of God race!”

After wandering in the void for a long time, he suddenly saw a golden light in the distance.

The sudden appearance of a ray of light in a world that was originally lightless was unusually eye-catching.

He immediately concealed his aura.

There was another ancestor God on the bridge!

Fortunately, the person on the bridge did not notice him and went straight ahead. He followed from a distance.

This was his only way out.

If he could not find the way to the God World, he would be lost in this void.

After an unknown period of time, the Golden Bridge in front of them suddenly disappeared.

He took a closer look and could vaguely see a boundary opening.

He immediately used the last of his strength and rushed over.

As soon as he left the realm entrance, he didn't have time to check the situation around him. He crushed the Jade talisman he had prepared earlier. It was an escape jade talisman used for random teleportation.

There was a flash of divine light, and his figure was swallowed up by the void ripples.

"I don't know what this kid can do in my gods race ..."

Nearby, the ancestor God flicked his sleeve and wiped away all the aura.

At this moment, he was looking forward to it.

A hundred-year-old human boy who could reach the 90000 stars of the zenith heaven and defeat all the heaven's favorites of the celestial race, what would he do in the celestial world?

"Let's go! Let's go!"

He let out a long laugh and sealed the realm entrance.

Somewhere in the divine realm.

In the middle of a barren mountain, there was a cackling sound.

A handsome man in a silver robe was carrying a person on his shoulder and running quickly through the mountains.

The person on his shoulder was a graceful woman in a green muslin dress. She was carried upside down on his shoulder, and her posture was a little unsightly, which highlighted her round and full buttocks.

“Today is really a good day!”

The man hummed a little tune as he flew away, his eyebrows dancing with joy.

He had spent so much time setting up a trap and had finally caught this little beauty. Next, it would be time for him to have a good time.

“I, mu Xiaoyao, am indeed the smartest and wisest flower-picking thief in the world. There’s no flower in this world that I can’t pick!”

“Let’s do it here. The earth is the bed and the sky is the seat. There’s no place more carefree than this!”

He scanned his surroundings with a burning gaze and picked a Valley.

There were flowers, grass, and even a pond. The scenery was not bad!

Landing on the grass, he put the person down and rubbed his hands in excitement.

“This woman is really not bad!”

He examined the unconscious little beauty on the ground again, and he became even more restless.

With a chuckle, he squatted down and was about to take off his clothes.

At this moment, he suddenly heard a sound above his head. He looked up and was dumbfounded.

A ripple appeared in the void, and a figure fell from it, smashing toward his head.

“What’s going on? Did someone find out what I did?”

That was his first reaction.

But it didn’t look like it!

Just like that, he stood rooted to the ground.

Plop!

The man came crashing down, landing heavily on his head.

This guy’s breathing was chaotic and very weak. Could it be that he was escaping and happened to land on his head?

This was too much of a coincidence!

Damn it, where did this unlucky fellow come from? he’s ruining my mood!

He was furious. He stood up and was about to slap this guy to death.

“Eh? What is this?”

When he saw the person's appearance, his body trembled and he froze on the spot.

His eyes widened in disbelief.

This guy ... Was even more handsome than him, oh no! This was not the main point. There was nothing between this guy's brows. This was impossible in the divine world!

Although some high-level bloodlines could hide the divine crystals, they would at least retain some special divine patterns and clan emblems.

Also, this guy's aura was so strange. He had never seen such an aura before.

This was not the aura of a God race!

While he was still bewildered, the man's eyes suddenly opened. Two beams of divine light shot out from his Black star-like eyes, which were as bright as lightning.

Ah!

The handsome man cried out in pain, covered his eyes, and stepped back.

"You're unlucky to have run into me!"

The next moment, a cold mumble exploded in his ears.

He heard the sound of something breaking through the air. Then, a palm pressed on his head.

After that, he didn't know anything and the world fell into darkness.