

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3360

After entering the city, Tang Hao walked down the street and looked around.

The city was huge, but the buildings inside were not as big as the average ones, and the style was somewhat retro.

The business here was quite prosperous. All kinds of shops were available, and business was booming.

After walking a few streets and seeing too many things, the initial novelty had disappeared. His eyes looked forward and fell on his cheap eldest Senior Sister.

From behind, her curves were truly like that of a demon, round and alluring.

As if she felt the gaze behind her, she turned around and glared at him.

Then, he turned back and quickened his pace.

Tang Hao looked at it a few more times, then retracted his gaze.

He was just acting. This cheap Senior Sister was beautiful, but not to the point of making him lose his mind. He had seen many beautiful women with different styles, and in terms of figure, none of them were inferior to this one.

However, her cold and frosty temperament was rare.

“A descendant of the blue ... Bing clan?”

“Her bloodline seems to be even stronger than pervert mu ‘s. She’s not that old, but she’s almost at the spiritual God Realm. She can be considered a genius.”

He thought to himself.

Pervert mu was only slightly talented and could not be considered a genius. However, this person had always been called a genius, which was why she could be the big Senior Sister of Xiao mang mountain.

“He’s so young, and he’s about to advance to the spirit God stage, which is also the Golden immortal stage. The foundation of this Dragon count divine clan is truly terrifying.”

His heart was heavy.

In the immortal world, golden Immortals were mostly old monsters who had lived for more than a thousand years. There were very few of them in the younger generation. They were basically all outstanding disciples of the zenith heaven. There were only a few of them in the entire immortal world.

In this place, a mere genius was already close to the strength of a golden immortal.

From this, one could see the huge gap between the two realms.

The current Dragon count clan was truly stronger than the ancient immortal world back then.

Even though he had expected that the Dragon count clan would be very powerful, now that he had seen it with his own eyes and understood it, he could not help but be shocked.

In front of such a powerful celestial race, Pangu world was indeed an insignificant existence. No wonder there was only one dragon count in the nine-colored celestial race, and his cultivation base was not high.

Perhaps they didn't even bother to wipe out Pangu world.

As they muttered to themselves, they came to a shop.

The cheap Senior Sister went in, while Tang Hao stayed outside.

The things were all on his Senior Sister, so it was useless for him to go in.

After more than an hour, the cheap Senior Sister came out.

"Let's go!"

The two of them returned to the city gate.

After leaving the city, he summoned the Luan and the two of them flew towards Xiao mang mountain.

"Something doesn't seem right!"

As he flew past a mountain range, Tang Hao's heart suddenly skipped a beat.

"There's an ambush!"

He looked around the mountain range and immediately understood.

Someone wanted to deal with him!

To deal with pervert mu!

“Senior ...” He raised his head and was about to call her Senior Sister, but when he looked ahead, he was stunned. That Senior Sister was riding on the rainbow Luan, suddenly accelerating and quickly leaving.

It was obvious that she had also sensed it and did not want to help at all.

“That’s true. It’s good that she didn’t hit him when he was down. Why would she save him?” Tang Hao mumbled.

“This might be a good opportunity. If I want to transform my body and achieve the goal of immortal and God dual cultivation, one divine crystal is not enough!” He muttered to himself for a moment, then a cold glint flashed in his eyes and killing intent overflowed.

He was in need of divine crystals, and this group of people just so happened to deliver themselves to him.

At that moment, he urged the Luan He was sitting on to fly forward as usual, as if he did not notice those auras.

A moment later, in the mountain range below him, rays of divine light suddenly appeared and rushed up.

“Who ... Who are you?”

Tang Hao pretended to be flustered.

“You perverted thief, where are you running to? you have nowhere to go today. Just die!”

The person who came shouted loudly, but his tone was somewhat proud.

Tang Hao swept his gaze to his left and right. There were eleven people, five gods and six demigods, spread out to his left and right, surrounding him.

Looking at her appearance and clothing, he understood.

These people were from the hidden Dragon Mountain.

The ice beauty he had captured before was a disciple of this force.

“It’s you guys! What are you guys doing? I’m warning you, don’t mess around!” Tang Hao deliberately shouted a few times and fell down.

“You still want to escape underground? Hehe! We’ve already suppressed this place. Today, you perverted thief will not be able to escape even if you have wings. ”

A black-robed youth with a sinister expression shouted.

“I’m stunned! Good!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

He kept going down, put away the Luan, and landed on the ground, looking like he was about to escape.

“You perverted thief, where are you running to? we’ll skin you alive today!”

The figures quickly caught up, each of them releasing their auras and pressing down.

Tang Hao suddenly turned around. A black light flashed in his hand, and a black spear appeared. The tip of the spear was stained with blood.

“What ... What is this aura?”

“What level is this divine weapon?”

The eyes of the few people who pounced on him all focused, and their expressions instantly turned dull.

An intense look of disbelief spread out in their eyes.

They had never seen such a shocking aura before ...

It wasn’t a true God weapon, nor was it a spirit God or a heavenly God. It seemed to be the even more terrifying yang God, or even an ancestral god weapon.

Chi Chi Chi!

In an instant, a sky full of spear light shot out like a storm and engulfed this group of people.

The group of eleven people exploded.

“This guy ... How can he be so terrifying?”

“What’s going on? Isn’t he just a God?”

They dragged their broken bodies and screamed in horror, trying to escape. All of them looked as if they had seen a ghost.

“I am a God!”

Tang Hao smiled. His figure flashed and the sky was once again covered with spear light.

At this moment, he was using the body of the pervert mu. His strength was only at the mid-level God Realm, and his divine abilities and talents were also very limited. However, with his immortal soul and an ancestral god weapon, he could erupt with strength far beyond the mid-level and crush this group of people.

Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff!

The group of people exploded again, and divine blood splattered everywhere.

“Hurry up! Hurry up and remove the restriction!”

Someone roared madly.

In order to kill this perverted demon, they didn’t hesitate to buy a restriction that could suppress the divine body and set it up in this mountain. As long as they were in the restriction, they couldn’t change their divine body form.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao fired another shot.

The spearlight covered the group of people and exploded them again.

Then, he reached out and grabbed these people one by one, placing them into the void divine furnace.

He put away the divine furnace and looked around. He found a restriction, which was a set of array disks, and put it away.

Then, with a wave of his sleeve, he destroyed all the auras.

“Not bad!”

Then, with a smile, he called out the Luan and sat on it.

With the flesh and blood of these 11 Celestials and the divine crystals, he would have greater confidence in transforming his body and cultivating the divine Dao.
