

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3361

“Senior Sister!”

Tang Hao rode the Luan and caught up to his Senior Sister.

“You’re fine?”

She glanced over and was a little surprised.

Just now, she had sensed that there were more than ten auras within the mountain, quite a few of which were gods. Even if they couldn’t keep him here, they couldn’t possibly have let him escape so quickly.

And looking at his appearance, he didn’t seem to have suffered any injuries.

“Of course I’m fine! What could happen to me?”

“Why did you come out so quickly? Where are they?”

She looked towards the mountain, but did not see anyone chasing after her.

“Senior Sister, of course I’m fast in this matter, but I’m not fast at all in certain matters.” Tang Hao made a face like a ruffian. He stared at her with a burning gaze, his eyes moving back and forth over her well-endowed body.

“You ...”

Her pretty face sank, and frost condensed around her body.

“Shameless!”

She gritted her teeth and scolded in a low voice.

However, her expression quickly returned to normal.

This perverted Junior Brother had always been like this, and she was used to it. Every time, she would only scold him a few times and not do anything.

She turned her head and urged the Luan she was sitting on to gallop away.

“Teasing this cheap big Senior Sister, it seems quite interesting!”

Tang Hao grinned.

“They all say that Senior Sister is greasy, but this Senior Sister is not greasy at all! What a pity!”

He muttered and urged the Luan to follow.

When they returned to Xiao mang mountain, he and that cheap Senior Sister did not mention the little episode on the road.

He returned to his cave abode and continued his closed-door cultivation.

He had to change his physique as soon as possible and cultivate the divine Dao. Only then could he continue to survive in the divine world and continue to improve his strength.

The spiritual will of the ancient Dao senior said that it could hurt the Tianhuang Emperor and buy him some time.

However, he did not know how long it would take. Was it a few years or a few decades?

Therefore, he had to seize the time and become stronger.

As for how to return to the immortal world, that wasn't a problem. There must be a passageway between the Dragon count divine world and the nine-colored clan. Through this passageway, he could return to the lower realm and ascend to the immortal world.

In the blink of an eye, another half a month had passed.

His main body's injuries had recovered quite a bit.

"I can try it now!"

In the cave abode, Tang Hao's real body opened his eyes.

Most of the heavenly Dao divine lightning in his body had already been refined, and the rest had been suppressed. He was fine.

With a wave of his sleeve, rays of divine light flew out and floated in the cave.

They were all divine crystals of different shapes and colors, and the divine light they emitted was also different.

The higher the cultivation and the stronger the bloodline, the brighter the divine light.

Among them, the Lei clan's divine crystal was the most dazzling.

Tang Hao took a deep breath. He reached out and took the Lei clan's divine crystal.

Holding the divine crystal, he could feel the surging energy inside.

Within it, there was the essence of the Lei clan's heaven's favorite.

"I'll use this divine crystal to reforge my body!"

He muttered, opened his mouth, and swallowed the divine crystal.

BOOM!

After the divine crystal got into his stomach, it shook violently, sending waves of surging energy to his limbs and bones.

His body trembled.

His blood, flesh, and meridians were all torn apart by the impact of this force.

In the next moment, his flesh and blood regenerated.

Annihilate, rebirth, and the cycle continued.

After each transformation, his flesh and blood began to change. It wasn't that his flesh and blood had become stronger, but that his immortal body was already quite powerful and could fight against a Protoss of the same level.

At this moment, it was the nature of his corporeal body that was undergoing a change. It gradually turned from an immortal body to a God Body, possessing the characteristics of the Dragon count celestial race.

Other than his flesh, blood, bones, and bones, his dantian, Dao ocean, had also undergone a massive transformation.

His dantian expanded and was split into two. Half of it was the sea of the path with an immortal abode inside. Inside the abode was the huge Natal world.

As for the other half, it started out as nothingness, but soon, a tiny crystal core formed.

This was a divine core!

The core of power was in the body of a God.

By absorbing the power of the Lei clan's divine crystal, the divine core continued to grow. It was completely black and shone with Black Lightning. It was extremely similar to the Lei clan's divine crystal.

As his divine core expanded, rolling divine origin spread out and filled this half of his dantian.

From the outside, it looked as if there were two galaxies in his dantian. They were both rotating and emitting completely different auras.

Half immortal, half god!

After an unknown amount of time, the energy of the divine crystal was finally absorbed.

At that moment, a black divine crystal appeared between Tang Hao's brows. It was the same as the one he had seen before.

"Hu!"

In the cave abode, Tang Hao opened his eyes.

He took out a mirror and looked at himself. There was an additional divine crystal, but nothing else had changed. Even his skin was as fair as before, shining with a Jade-like luster.

He clenched his fist and activated the power of his body. He was much stronger than before.

He looked inside again and checked the situation everywhere. He couldn't help but reveal a satisfied expression.

The transformation of his body was considered a success.

At this moment, he had transformed into a divine body and could cultivate the divine Dao.

His cultivation had also reached the heavenly God Realm, a three-star cultivation.

Originally, that proud Son of Heaven from the Lei clan was a Nine Star heavenly God. However, when he took the divine crystals and absorbed them, he was worn out and could only reach three stars.

His current cultivation level was three stars in the heavenly God Realm in the divine Dao, and 90000 stars in the zenith heaven realm in the immortal Dao.

The current divine Dao was much lower than the immortal Dao, but he should be able to catch up soon.

“Not bad!”

He smiled in delight.

With this body, he could change the appearance of his immortal spirit body and he would be a true God.

“Swallow all these divine crystals!”

He opened his mouth and swallowed a green divine crystal.

These people had low cultivation levels, so their cultivation levels wouldn't rise much after devouring the divine crystals. However, by devouring divine crystals, they could improve the quality of their divine crystals and master the divine abilities they contained.

The celestial race was divided into many bloodlines, each with their own divine powers. For example, the Lei clan was born with the divine power to control divine Thunder. The MU clan, like the ancient Azure wood celestial clan, could control the power of plants.

After devouring all 11 God crystals, he started to transform his immortal spirit body into the appearance of a God.

“This body, I’ll devour it too!”

Since the main body had been successfully modified, there was no need to keep this body of a pervert.

He peeled off the divine crystal, extracted the essence from his body, and threw the rest of his body to the immortal spirit body to devour.

Then, his true form changed, turning into the appearance of pervert mu. He even disguised the divine crystal between his brows.

He now felt that this identity was quite useful. At least, it could attract hatred. So, he decided to continue using this identity.

There was a pleasant surprise when he Reforged his physical body this time. The remaining heavenly Dao divine lightning had been expelled, and he had almost recovered.

In the next few days, he got used to his current divine body. When everything was ready, he left the cave.
