

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3363

“The weather is so good!”

Tang Hao was riding the Luan, flying close to the ground.

“Eh? That guy looks so familiar!”

“It’s that perverted Bandit!”

“No wonder! I just want to beat him up when I see him!”

In the distance, a few figures were passing by in the void.

They noticed the figure that was flying slowly.

Upon a closer look, their expressions changed. Their eyes were spitting fire and they were filled with righteous indignation.

This was the famous lecher!

In this land, the most hated person was definitely this person!

All the men hated him to the bone!

“He’s actually swaggering around like this, Hmph! Don’t you want to live?”

“Kill him!”

They shouted anxiously.

“Wait, do you guys remember what happened at Hidden Dragon Mountain a few days ago?” One of them was quite calm and reminded them.

“Hidden Dragon Mountain? Are you talking about the missing eleven disciples?”

“Yeah! It’s this matter!”

Everyone’s expression turned serious.

Not long ago, the disappearance of eleven disciples of Hidden Dragon Mountain had caused quite a stir.

It was said that before these 11 disciples went missing, they went to ambush this perverted Bandit.

For this matter, the elder of Hidden Dragon Mountain even went to Xiao mang mountain, and the two sects almost fought.

“It has nothing to do with him, right?”

“Yeah! He does have a little bit of strength, but it’s not enough to kill those eleven disciples of the hidden Dragon Mountain. You should know that those few disciples are pretty strong. They are all elite disciples and five of them are middle ranked. ”

“That’s right. It can’t be him. Otherwise, the people from Hidden Dragon Mountain wouldn’t have let this matter go. I don’t think they would believe that it was this perverted Bandit who killed the people.”

They were discussing.

Their gazes towards the figure in the distance were filled with disdain.

This mu fellow’s talent was not bad, but he had no heart to cultivate. All he knew was to poison people and trick them. They had always looked down on him.

“It’s definitely not him. It’s rare for us to run into him. We must teach him a lesson!”

“That’s right! We’re doing this for the heavens!”

Very quickly, the fire of justice was reignited in their hearts, and their fighting spirit was boiling.

“Let’s go!”

After some planning, they escaped into the void and chased after the figure.

“Today is really a good day!”

Tang Hao was still riding the Luan.

Behind them, the group of people’s eyes were spewing fire when they heard this.

This perverted Bandit was actually still so carefree, it was really hateful!

“Kill him!”

“If I don’t kill him, I’m not a human!”

They cursed in a low voice, all of them very angry.

“Look, there’s a mountain in front of us. It’s the best place to take action. Once he enters, we’ll take action together.”

“Good! Let’s do this!”

They suppressed their anger and followed him all the way.

Half an hour later, the Luan slowly flew into the mountain ahead.

“Do it!”

The group of people waited for a while more before they attacked together.

They rushed out from different directions, each of them releasing their auras. They held their battle spears and divine halberds and attacked.

“Pervert, die!”

Loud shouts shook the void.

The Luan stopped in the middle of the crowd.

The person on his back raised his head and looked at them. He grinned, and his smile was extremely bright.

“F * ck! You’re still laughing!”

“Pervert, you’re about to die and you still don’t know!”

The group of people were furious.

“You’re the ones who are about to die!”

Tang Hao sighed. His body flickered and he disappeared from the Luan’s back.

“Eh? Where is he?”

The group of people were shocked.

Before they could react, they felt a piercing sound above their heads. A silver-robed figure descended from the sky and stomped his foot in the air. With a swish, an extremely majestic force suddenly spread out.

This force was like a landslide or tsunami, causing their bodies to shake.

With a few whimpers, he spat out mouthfuls of divine blood.

Their faces instantly turned deathly white, and their eyes widened in disbelief, filled with shock.

With just a kick in the air, a wave of aura was dispersed, and it was enough to make them vomit blood. What kind of terrifying strength was this?

This couldn't be the true God Realm, it must be the spiritual God Realm!

This perverted demon had advanced to the spiritual God Realm?

For a time, wild waves were set off in their hearts. They did not dare to believe it, and they were extremely resentful.

How unfair it was for such a scourge to be able to advance to the spiritual God Realm!

"You guys aren't any good either!"

"Hmph!" Tang Hao snorted coldly. The aura around him spread out and suppressed the seven people below. They gradually bent and trembled in pain under the pressure.

Perverted Bandit mu wasn't a good person and had harmed many women. However, there weren't many good people in this land.

The seven people below, in the memory of the rapist mu, were not good people. They had killed many people and robbed them of their treasures.

In this place, there were not many people who killed their own kind and devoured their flesh and blood, but there were many in private.

In order to kill their own kind, they had invented many treasures and formations that could restrict the divine body.

The divine body was too big. Once it was revealed, it would cause a huge commotion. That was why there were these treasures.

The last time when the people from Hidden Dragon Mountain ambushed him, they had also set up such a formation.

This kind of array was also divided into different grades. It could restrict the divine bodies of different levels of Protoss. The higher the grade, the more effective it was. Even spiritual God Realm could be restricted.

Of course, formations of that level were extremely rare and expensive.

“Thunder crystals? Not bad!”

Tang Hao’s figure flickered and appeared in front of one of them. He extended his hand and touched the green divine crystal between his brows.

“My power, what have you done to me?”

Very quickly, the man screamed in fear, his entire body shaking like a sieve.

He realized that all the essence in his body was being extracted and sent to the divine crystal between his brows.

He had never seen such a strange situation before.

“You’re too noisy!”

Tang Hao shouted coldly.

This person seemed to have been choked by his throat and could no longer make a sound.

“Alright, I’m done!”

A moment later, Tang Hao pinched the divine crystal with three fingers and dug it out from between the man’s eyebrows.

As for that God, his entire body had already shriveled up, as if he had been sucked dry.

Gulu!

The other six people felt their scalps go numb and were extremely frightened.

Was this fellow really that pervert mu?

How could he have such a terrifying and shocking technique?

“Now, it’s your turn!”

Tang Hao turned around and looked at them.

Soon, heart-wrenching screams rang out in the mountains.

Ten minutes later, a silver-robed figure flew out of the mountain.

That place had been razed to the ground, and not a single breath was left.

“Continue!”

Tang Hao left the place and found a new place to ride the Luan, which was now slowly moving around.

He needed to kill more Celestials, take their treasures, and devour their divine crystals, flesh, and blood to strengthen his divine crystals and immortal spirit body.
