

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3367

“Good stuff!”

“It’s the nine-colored skeleton!” Tang Hao exclaimed as he examined the skeleton.

The skeleton of an Immortal King was an excellent material for refining treasures.

“You can extract the spine and make a spear. I’ll call it the spirit spear.”

He muttered to himself for a moment, and many ideas popped up in his mind.

Then, he started to examine the divine crystal fragment.

Although it was only the size of a Pinkie nail, the aura of this fragment was very shocking.

“It’s an ancestral God crystal. The sect master’s guess should be correct. The sun god exploded in order to devour the fragment,”

“If even sun god can’t withstand it, I wonder if my divine crystal can ...”

He touched the divine crystal between his brows and was a little worried.

“I still have to try. It’s best if I can use some formation to suppress the power of this divine crystal so I can slowly absorb it.”

In terms of cultivation, he was obviously not as good as this sun god old freak, but in terms of formation skills, he was undoubtedly stronger.

With the help of the formation, he would have a chance to refine this fragment.

He sat in place and thought for a long time. Then, he flicked his sleeve and took out many materials to start refining the array.

This refining process took him seven days.

He had created eighteen layers of formations, layer by layer, surrounding himself.

These formations could absorb the Qi of heaven and earth for his use.

Once he was ready, he activated the formation and began to extract the Qi of heaven and earth.

In the immortal world, this was called immortal Qi, but here, it was only called Heaven Earth Yuan Qi.

“It’s almost time!”

After a few hours, his spiritual will moved and he took the divine crystal fragment in front of him. He opened his mouth and swallowed it.

BOOM!

As soon as the fragment entered his stomach, a terrifying force immediately spread out, almost shattering his body.

He immediately activated the formation's power and pressed down.

With great difficulty, he finally managed to suppress the fragment and began to slowly absorb it.

Wisps of nine-colored divine light kept coming out of the fragment and moving up his meridians to his glabella, which was then absorbed by the divine crystal.

From time to time, the fragment would tremble, and its aura would become a little violent. He had to do his best to suppress it and control it.

Fortunately, he was well prepared and had not been in any danger.

After an unknown amount of time, the aura on the fragment slowly weakened. He had already absorbed more than half of the essence within.

The divine crystal on his forehead also underwent a great change.

It was originally black, but at this moment, it became a little transparent, like a diamond, crystal clear. Faintly, there was a nine-colored brilliance flashing, but it was very weak.

At this point, he could easily absorb it without the help of the formation.

After a few days, the divine crystal fragment cracked and turned into dust.

The essence within had already been completely absorbed.

The nine-colored divine crystal on Tang Hao's glabella grew brighter and brighter. It could be seen with the naked eye.

This divine crystal was like a brilliant diamond embedded in his glabella. Nine-colored divine halos were flowing around it, making it extremely dazzling.

"Hu!"

Tang Hao exhaled and was about to open his eyes.

Suddenly, his expression changed. He felt a surge of power erupting from his divine crystal and gushing out.

He subconsciously raised his head and this force rushed into the sky.

In an instant, a nine-colored pillar of light tore through the formation and shot into the sky.

The wind and clouds suddenly changed.

A vast divine might spread out and suppressed the surroundings.

"What ... Is that?"

"Nine colors ... Could it be that an ancient divine object has appeared?"

In all directions, many people raised their heads and looked up, revealing shocked expressions.

“That’s ... Impossible!”

In the distant Black Lotus Mountain, a figure sitting cross-legged suddenly stood up and rushed into the sky.

He was dumbfounded as he looked at the nine-colored light pillar that shot into the sky in the distance.

Nine colors ... Could it be related to that divine crystal fragment?

The person who had snatched the fragment had successfully devoured it?

But how was this possible? it was a treasure that even a yang God expert could not absorb and would explode to death.

“No matter who he is, it’s impossible for him to absorb it successfully. Something will definitely happen to him. This is a good chance for me to take back the treasure!” His eyes suddenly focused, revealing a fiery color.

In the next moment, his figure flashed and disappeared.

He burst out with his fastest speed and flew in the direction of the light pillar.

“I’m afraid something has happened to the divine item, let’s go and take a look!”

Countless figures flew up from all directions of the Tangshan region and headed toward the divine light.

At this moment, it was not just the Tangshan region. People from the surrounding regions also sensed the divine light and looked up with surprise.

Following that, they also moved and headed towards the Tang Mountain region.

“Not good!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

This divine light was so bright that it would definitely alert all the celestial races around. Although the Tangshan region was not much, it had four heavenly God experts. If people from the surrounding regions came, it would be even more troublesome.

He had just successfully devoured it and had yet to get used to it, so it was not suitable for him to fight with others.

He tried his best to suppress the surging power in the divine crystal. With a wave of his sleeve, he withdrew all the formations around him and rushed into the sky.

“There’s someone!”

The sect master of the Black Lotus sect was the fastest. He had already arrived nearby and caught a glimpse of the figure that had swept out of the mountain.

“What’s that?”

With just a glance, his entire body trembled, and he was dumbfounded.

The figure was shrouded in bright divine light, and he could not see his face clearly. However, he saw a flash of nine-colored divine light between his brows ...

This also meant that the guy had succeeded. He had refined the divine crystal fragment completely!

“How is that possible?”

At this moment, his mind was greatly shaken, and his heart was filled with disbelief.

Even the ancient yang God expert had failed. His divine crystal had exploded and he had died. How could this guy have succeeded?

Who was he?

After a moment of daze, the figure disappeared.

He looked around and activated his divine eyes, but he could not find any trace.

“Who is it?”

He retracted his gaze, but he was still in a daze.

First, he had sneaked away the treasure under his nose without anyone knowing. Now, he had successfully refined the fragment. When did such a powerful figure appear in the Tangshan region?

No!

He couldn't be from the Tangshan region, he must be a powerful figure from somewhere else!

He pondered for a moment and gave up on the idea of continuing the pursuit.

This person could even easily refine such a divine item, so he must have an extremely extraordinary divine ability. His background must also be extremely great. He was not someone that a mere two-star celestial deity like him could provoke.

"Let's go!"

He immediately turned around and went back the way he came.

At this moment, divine light arrived from all directions and swept into the mountain to investigate.

Two of them were heavenly God-level auras, while the rest were spiritual God-level auras.

"What a dense Qi of heaven and earth. There must be a divine item that appeared and was taken away by someone."

They investigated the area and were shocked by the dense Yuan Qi that remained.

The dazzling nine-colored pillar of light and the dense Heaven Earth Yuan Qi were undoubtedly the birth of a world-shaking divine object.

Now that there was no divine item, it must have been taken away by someone else.

“I saw a divine light in the distance just now. It looks like old man black Lotus. He must have taken the treasure!”

“Old man black Lotus? Let’s go to the Black Lotus sect and make him spit out the treasure!”

The crowd clamored for a while, and then they all moved, heading towards the Black Lotus sect.
