

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3369

F * ck! Are you trying to send a beggar away?

Tang Hao grumbled in his heart as he received the divine coins.

“Hey! There’s nothing to worry about, isn’t it just a Grand Pure Holy maiden? I will sleep with her sooner or later!” Tang Hao patted his chest, looking like a hero.

As soon as he said that, the crowd fell silent.

The sound of a falling needle could be heard.

Everyone’s eyes were wide open, revealing a look of horror.

Deng Deng Deng!

They backed away as if they wanted to cut off all ties with Tang Hao.

“Senior brother, farewell!”

They let out a strange cry and scattered.

“Hmph! All you can do is talk!” Senior Sister Bing Shan glanced over.

She crossed her arms over her chest, making her already bulging chest even more prominent. It was indeed a little majestic and magnificent.

Tang Hao instinctively glanced at it.

“Shameless!”

She seemed to have noticed it and suddenly put down her hand.

She snorted again and turned away.

“Useless thing, why is it so big!” As she walked, she lowered her head and mumbled angrily. On her cold face, there were two red clouds.

“Carefree!”

Just as Tang Hao was about to leave, he heard two sounds above him.

He raised his head and saw that it was his cheap master and that beautiful master’s wife.

“Xiaoyao, they didn’t mean to drive you away. They just had no choice.” His cheap master landed on the ground and grabbed Tang Hao’s hand with a pained expression.

“Who would be willing to let you leave this Xiao mang mountain!”

The beautiful mistress said in a sweet voice.

She stood at the side and glanced at him with her charming eyes.

“Yup! Your master’s wife and I can’t bear to part with you, but we have no choice. If you don’t leave, not only you, but also our Xiao mang mountain will be gone. Take this, this is what your master has prepared for you.”

His cheap master took out a storage bag and stuffed it into Tang Hao’s hands.

“You, go west. It’s better if you leave the hundred territories. There’s a divine Kingdom there. You can go there and try to explore. Femme fatale! It’s not like you don’t know!”

His cheap master pointed to the West and said solemnly.

“This is what master’s wife prepared for you!”

The beautiful master’s wife stepped forward and handed him a ring.

Master’s wife was still the one who put in the effort!

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he opened the box.

From this, it could be seen that this beautiful master’s wife was really interested in the lecher.

However, he wasn’t a pervert, so he didn’t feel anything.

“Thank you, master and mistress!”

“Thank you,” he said. Then, he turned around and left.

He hummed a tune and was in a good mood.

To him, as long as his identity as a pervert wasn't exposed, it didn't matter if he left or not.

“You think I'm leaving just like that, leaving the Tangshan region? Hmph! You guys are too naive!”

He left the mountain and headed west for some distance before he stopped.

At this moment, there was no better place for him than this.

Didn't they want to kill him, the perverted thief? It just so happened that he wanted to kill them too. He also wanted to see what the Grand Pure Holy maiden was like.

At such a young age, he had already reached the heavenly God Realm. He was indeed a first-class genius. Compared to the group of geniuses who had descended to the immortal world, he was only a little weaker.

After some thought, he had a plan.

He wiped his face and changed his appearance and aura. Then, he swaggered toward Hidden Dragon Mountain.

The Grand Pure Holy maiden was temporarily staying in the hidden Dragon Mountain.

The group of bootlickers were naturally there as well.

When he was about to reach Hidden Dragon Mountain, he saw many divine lights shooting over from all directions. They all landed in front of Hidden Dragon Mountain's Gate.

"No, I didn't!"

"I didn't find it either!"

After these people met, they all shook their heads, their faces full of disappointment.

"I'm fine! We'll find it sooner or later!"

"That perverted Bandit has been doing evil for many years, but he's still alive today. He must have some tricks up his sleeve. We won't be able to find him so quickly. Don't worry, let's go into the mountain first, take a rest, and drink some wine. The Saint is also here."

"The Holy maiden is also at the banquet? That's great! Let's go!"

These people talked excitedly as they walked into the mountain.

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow.

It seemed that these people had been looking for him these days.

"Let's go to a bar! It's a good opportunity to meet this Holy maiden!"

Pervert mu had only heard of this person and had never seen him before.

He flew forward and landed in front of the hidden Dragon Mountain. Then, he swaggered in.

The disciples guarding the door glanced at him and didn't doubt him.

During this period of time, there were too many people going in and out of the mountain Gate, and there were new people coming to visit the saintess every day. They were too lazy to ask.

With the saintess of the Tai Qing Palace and several elders here, no small fry would dare to come and make trouble.

Tang Hao followed the group of people and headed toward the mountain behind them.

At the mountainside, a banquet was being held. Hundreds of people had gathered, all of them young.

At the head of the table, there was a Lotus seat covered with a thin veil.

Through the chiffon, a graceful figure could be seen. She was wearing a white chiffon dress and a veil. Although her face could not be seen clearly, her perfect figure could be seen.

"A thin veil and a veil. Is this saintess shameful?"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he glanced at the screen.

He didn't continue to inquire, but found a random seat and sat down.

He was very familiar with them. After sitting down, he chatted with the people around him and drank to his heart's content.

“That ice beauty is here too!”

While he was drinking, he glanced over again.

The people sitting on the saintess’s left and right were all powerful figures. They were all famous heaven’s favorites from the hundred territories of the East continent. Each of them was outstanding and had an extraordinary aura. Some of them were even heavenly gods, and the lowest was at the eight or nine stars of the spiritual God Realm.

The people from Hidden Dragon Mountain were there as well, and one of them was the ice beauty that had been caught by perverted Shepherd the other day.

She was quite pretty and could be considered above average. However, compared to the cheap Senior Sister, she was still far from it.

“Still nothing?”

After drinking for a while, some of the elites looked over at the mountain Gate and frowned.

More than half of the day had passed, and there was still no news of that perverted Bandit.

“Hey! Don’t worry. How can a puny God possibly escape from our grasp?” Someone at the side laughed.

“Yup! As long as that perverted Bandit shows himself, any one of us can kill him with a finger!”

Someone chimed in, his expression full of disdain.

They were all top heaven's favorites from the East continent's hundred territories. Killing a perverted Bandit from the Tangshan territory was as easy as stretching out their hands!

"Yup! No rush!"

Everyone burst into laughter.

Everyone was somewhat disdainful. They didn't put a little perverted Bandit in their eyes at all, and they weren't in a hurry at all. It was best that the perverted Bandit showed up later so that they could have an excuse to spend more time with the saintess.

It would be a pity if they were killed too early.

"Come on! Drink! Let's drink!"

"Let's do it!"

The group of heaven's favorites laughed and drank their wine.

The atmosphere on the mountain was extremely cheerful.
