

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3381

“I’m the heaven’s favorite of the formless Palace! Hong Tianyi!”

The young man shouted, and divine light burst out from his body. His face changed.

Originally, he looked ordinary, but now, he suddenly became handsome and had an extraordinary temperament.

“Heavens!”

The entire carriage was in an uproar.

The surrounding people were all shocked and excited.

Wu Xiang Palace was one of the top forces in the hundred territories of East continent. It was on the same level as tai Qing Palace and had a yang God.

This Hong Tianyi was the most famous figure in this generation of Wu Xiang Palace. He was known as the number one genius in the hundred territories.

He was young, but he was already a three-star celestial deity now.

“Oh! It’s you!”

Tang Hao's reaction was mild.

He had also heard of this person's reputation.

Hong Tianyi was stunned by his reaction.

He had thought that once he revealed his true identity, this little pervert would be scared witless, or even kneel down and beg for mercy. But in the end, he was so calm, which was really out of his expectations.

Then, his face darkened and he became more and more annoyed.

This little perverted Bandit really didn't know what was good for her. She even dared to be so frivolous and disrespectful when she saw him, the number one heaven's favorite of the hundred territories!

"Surnamed mu, How dare you!"

He snorted coldly and shouted impolitely.

Seeing this, the other people in the car all revealed gloating expressions.

This little perverted Bandit was probably going to be out of luck!

This Hong Tianyi was also an admirer of the Tai Qing saintess. The perverted Bandit had insulted the saintess, which undoubtedly angered him.

"Yup! I've always been very bold!"

Tang Hao grinned.

“You ...”

Hong Tianyi was furious and was about to attack.

“Al! My brothers, please don’t attack! If we fight here and injure someone, the consequences will be very serious. This is not the hundred territories, where there are no laws or taboos.” The driver turned around and shouted.

Hong Tianyi’s aura stopped and he suppressed it.

Indeed, this was the divine martial country, and there were strict laws that even a heavenly God like him had to abide by.

“That’s the way! Speak properly, don’t attack!”

Tang Hao looked at him with a half-smile.

“Little thief, don’t think that I can’t deal with you. Wait until I’ve made a military contribution and have power in the divine martial Kingdom. I have many ways to kill you.”

Hong Tianyi took a deep breath and suppressed his anger with great difficulty.

His handsome face was flushed red.

He leaned over, lowered his voice, and shouted.

“Then I’ll wait for you!”

Tang Hao smiled and glanced at the man’s forehead.

First-grade divine crystals!

Good stuff!

“This little perverted Bandit is really arrogant!”

“I think he’s an idiot, a fool! A puny mid-level God dares to challenge a heavenly God, and he’s the number one genius of the hundred territories. Even if he’s in the divine martial Kingdom, he’s dead for sure.”

The surrounding people all sneered, their eyes full of ridicule.

For a God to challenge a celestial God was simply courting death!

Although the divine martial Kingdom had strict laws, there were still many ways to kill a person. With Hong Tianyi’s identity, there were many people in the divine martial Kingdom who were willing to help him get rid of this little pervert in order to rope him in.

“Very good! I’ll remember your words, just you wait!”

Hong Tianyi took another deep breath, suppressed the anger in his heart, and sat back.

He glared at her and then closed his eyes. He started to take in a deep breath to calm his mind.

He was the number one heaven's favorite of the hundred territories. What kind of noble status was that? what was there to compete with a scoundrel? the more angry he was, the more he would become a joke.

Tang Hao felt bored when he saw that the man had stopped moving. He leaned against the wall and closed his eyes comfortably.

In the blink of an eye, six hours had passed.

The capital of the divine martial Kingdom was already in sight.

"Look, we've arrived!"

The driver shouted.

Tang Hao stuck his head out and looked into the distance. He saw a towering giant city. The city walls were millions of feet tall. They were not black, but gold. They were made of some kind of divine metal. From a distance, they shone with a piercing light.

The city was huge, more than a hundred times bigger than Tangshan City.

"Everyone, I'll stop at the city gate later. You'll have to go in on your own."

The driver said.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao stood up and smiled.

The coachman looked at him in surprise. He had noticed just now that this person had actually provoked a heavenly God and was only a mid God. Wasn't this person a little too bold?

“Where's the place to sign up for the Army?”

Hong Tianyi stood up and shouted.

“Oh! It's near the city gate. You'll know if you go there and ask.” The coachman said.

“Alright!”

Hong Tianyi nodded.

“Little thief, just you wait! When I've made an unparalleled military contribution and shook the entire divine martial country, it will be the day of your death!” He turned around and glared at Tang Hao coldly.

After he finished speaking, his figure flickered and he disappeared.

The people around him looked over, but concealed light was still gloating.

Then, they also flew out and landed at the gate of the divine capital.

“Joining the army is that good?” Tang Hao stood there and rubbed his chin.

Looking at Hong’s attitude, it seemed that joining the army and making a contribution was a very important thing.

“Hey! Of course, it’s good to be able to make a contribution. Let’s not talk about being promoted to a noble, and we’ve also gotten all kinds of treasures. However, how can it be so easy to make a contribution? nine out of ten people will just be cannon fodder!” The coachman turned around and said with a bitter smile.

“That person is a heavenly God with outstanding talent. Of course he can go and it’s easy for him to make a contribution. But brother, as for you, it’s better not to go.”

He looked at Tang Hao and shook his head.

“That’s not for sure!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Hey! Even if you want to join the army, you’ll have to wait for a year and a half. Haven’t you heard that there’s going to be a great battle soon? there will be many geniuses and experts participating. If you go now, you’ll be nothing but cannon fodder.”

The coachman said.

“I’ve heard of it, but I don’t know much about it.” Tang Hao said.

“You’ll know if you go to the city and ask around. At this time, the world is under the control of those geniuses. Ordinary people shouldn’t get involved.” The coachman advised.

At this moment, the car had already started to descend and gradually stopped at the city gate.

“Alright! Then I’ll ask around first!” Tang Hao jumped out of the car.

He had not decided whether he wanted to join the army. He would first go to the city to make some inquiries and make some comparisons before he could make a decision.

He went to the gate and registered, then he entered the city smoothly.

He went straight to the restaurant in the city and began to inquire about the news.

“There’s no way you can enter the Holy Land right now. None of them are recruiting, but you can go to the Prime Minister’s or Marquis’s residences. They’re all recruiting. The treatment is okay, I guess. It depends on your ability and your contributions!”

“Join the army? “It’s too dangerous. With your strength, you’ll just be cannon fodder. Reward? That’s great. You can accumulate battle merits and Exchange them for treasures. You can exchange them for anything, as long as it’s in the divine Kingdom Treasury. ”

“Moreover, the battle merits now are three times what they were before. In the past, one battle merit was counted for every person killed, but now it’s three points.”

Tang Hao made a decision after he made some inquiries and figured out the situation.
