

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3385

“A God from the 9th Battalion?”

Divine martial Kingdom’s camp.

A towering figure stood in a floating city.

He was dressed in black Dragon Armor and had a domineering and iron-blooded aura.

He looked into the distance and was a little surprised.

The array Dao experts that he had sent had not come out, but in the end, a soldier from the human Battalion had come out alive. This was something he had not expected.

“It’s better than no one coming out. Go and bring him over!”

He turned to the person on his left and ordered.

“Yes, Commander-in-Chief!”

That person’s figure moved, and he swept out of the city.

“I’ve heard that this formation was created by Grandmaster Tian He, and it’s extremely powerful and profound. However, a trifling God managed to walk out of it. This is truly a Strange Matter!”

Suddenly, the void beside them changed, and a figure in golden armor stepped out.

His aura was as bright as the sun in the sky. It was the aura of the Yang God Realm.

“I’m also very curious. Could this soldier from the human barracks be protected by the great destiny?”

In the next moment, another god general descended.

A body of fiery red armor wrapped around her slender and graceful figure.

The armor was a little lacking, revealing a lot of her snow-white skin, her flat and tight waist that was like a water snake, and her straight, slender, Jade-like legs. They were strong and well-proportioned, without a single bit of fat. They were the perfect pair of legs.

Her face was shrouded in a gorgeous divine light. It was somewhat unclear, but one could still vaguely see that it was an unparalleled beauty.

She landed lightly, her silky black hair dancing in the wind.

Her appearance attracted the attention of all the soldiers.

Many of them had heated gazes, some with admiration and some with infatuation.

But very quickly, many people withdrew their gazes and lowered their heads, somewhat ashamed of their own inferiority.

This was one of the ten divine generals of the divine martial Kingdom, divine general Fei Feng. He was also a legend of the divine martial Kingdom. He had advanced to the sun god Realm at the age of 300 years old, and his divine arts and combat strength were unrivaled among his peers.

Not only in the divine martial Kingdom, but also in the entire East continent, she had countless admirers.

“Great fortune? That’s not something that ordinary people can have. For someone like him, he’s just a little lucky at most!”

A clear laugh rang out as an Azure-armored divine general descended.

Then, one after another, the divine generals descended into the city.

As they talked and laughed, they all looked out of the city.

There, two figures were sweeping over.

“Greetings, commander, and Lord Divine generals!”

Tang Hao landed and bowed respectfully.

Before he came, he had made preparations to make his disguise flawless. Even these ten celestial Kings wouldn’t be able to see through him.

“No need to be so polite!”

The commander in chief in Black Dragon Armor smiled and said, “You being able to walk out from the enemy’s formation has greatly increased the morale of our divine martial Army. I have said before that as long as you can walk out, you will be promoted on the spot.”

“From now on, you’re a Centurion. You’ve been promoted two ranks in a row. Are you satisfied?”

“Many thanks, commander!”

Tang Hao said respectfully.

“You ... Do you remember how you managed to walk out of it? Also, what was the situation inside the formation? tell me in detail. If you can help me break the formation, I will reward you handsomely for your great service!”

The Commander-in-Chief said.

At this moment, a group of people rushed over from the side. They were all wearing long robes, and they were from the array Department.

They came to the side and stood still, listening.

Tang Hao had already prepared an excuse, so he repeated it.

“He walked out casually? This is too good of a luck!”

“Yup!”

Hearing this, everyone burst into an uproar.

From what this person said, it was all due to luck. Everyone else had died early, but he had stumbled and crawled out. It was really somewhat unbelievable!

However, they did not suspect anything.

After all, this was the only possibility.

Who would believe that a trifling mid-level deity could see through a great formation set up by a formation master whose name shook the entire East continent?

“You said you encountered a few strange places? How is it strange?”

The old man leading the array Department suddenly asked.

He furrowed his brows in deep thought.

“I can’t really tell. I just feel that it’s different from other places.” Tang Hao said hesitantly.

“Different? Could it be where the eye of the formation is?”

“It’s possible! Perhaps he’ll run into the formation’s eye while wandering around. ”

The group of people from the formation Department said excitedly.

“Can you draw out the route you’ve taken and the places you’ve been to?” The old man from the array Department said.

“I should be able to!” Tang Hao said.

“Come, come, come, draw!”

The old man hurriedly took out a pen and paper and handed them over.

Tang Hao picked up the pen, thought for a moment, and began to draw.

“Could it really be the eye of the formation?”

On the side, the divine generals were a little surprised.

Not only was he able to walk out, but he was also able to encounter the formation core. This luck was too good!

“Go and get this person’s file!”

The Commander-in-Chief turned around and ordered.

“Mu ... Xiaoyao, from the Tangshan region ...”

He took the file and scanned it. He was slightly stunned.

This name sounded familiar, as if he had heard it somewhere before.

“It might really be the eye of the formation. Look at the position, there’s a pattern.”

After Tang Hao finished drawing, the people from the array Department took it and studied it for a while. They were even more excited.

“Commander-in-Chief, please send a Battalion of people to follow us to break the formation.” The old man from the array Department said respectfully.

“Good! Send the people Battalion 8th Battalion to follow the formation division. ”

The Commander-in-Chief pondered for a moment and nodded.

Soon, three people walked out of the formation Department and followed a Battalion of people toward the formation.

“Can it really be broken?”

“It’s hard to say!”

Everyone looked over, feeling uncertain.

After all, the person who had set up the formation was simply too famous. The senses of a puny God probably wouldn’t be enough to break through the formation.

Tang Hao stood at the top of the city wall and watched with them.

He had already given them many clues. As long as those array Masters weren’t idiots and had some skill, there was a high possibility that they could break the array.

Once the formation was broken, he would be able to obtain a large sum of merit points, wouldn't that be wonderful!

Time slowly passed.

On the city wall, the atmosphere gradually became tense.

"It's been half an hour, but there's still no movement ..."

"Don't tell me they're all broken!"

The generals discussed in low voices, their expressions worried.

On the other side, in the camp of Suzaku.

Grandmaster Tian He and the others were extremely relaxed, and they laughed from time to time.

"Do they think that if that little cannon fodder is lucky enough to get out, the others will be able to? Wasn't this just a dream? He even brought a few array Masters with him. You're simply delusional!" Grandmaster Tian He placed his hands behind his back and sneered coldly.

"Master is right, in their dreams!"

The generals of Vermillion Bird complimented.

"It's still too early for them to break the formation. They won't be able to break it without at least ten days to half a month ..."

Grandmaster Tian He raised his head proudly and shouted.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, he heard a rumbling sound coming from the distance. It was like muffled Thunder that shook the world.
