

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3396

“How is it? Are you satisfied?”

Elder Yu accompanied Tang Hao and walked around the residence.

From the outside, it looked like a very small mansion. However, inside, it was like a small world. Not only was it fully equipped with all kinds of facilities, but there were also many maids and servants.

“Not bad! But these people ... I don't think there's a need for that!”

Tang Hao said.

“I don't like to be served, and I don't have this habit.” He explained when he saw elder Yu's confused expression.

“Oh! Then what about these maidservants? You don't want it either?”

Elder Yu asked in surprise.

In such a large mansion, how could there be no women to take care of it? besides, wasn't this kid a lecher in the past? how could he lack women?

“His looks are too low!”

Tang Hao said, waving his hand.

Elder Yu's face immediately twitched.

F*ck! This kid's requirements are quite high!

"Alright, I'll order people to take them away. Do you have anything else you want?" Elder Yu said.

"There's no need for that. However, bring more array Dao books over. Don't you still have some in your array Department?" Tang Hao said.

"Good, good, good!"

Upon hearing this, elder Yu immediately perked up, looking like a promising child.

After elder Yu left, Tang Hao walked around the residence alone.

He picked a room for himself. It was a small pavilion next to the lake.

Standing in the pavilion and looking around, he suddenly felt a little dazed.

This scene was very much like the Ji family's.

He thought of the sisters, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci.

She had accompanied him for so many years. Although they had not had any further physical contact, she had accumulated a deep relationship.

He had made arrangements for sis Xiangyi and the others to stay in Pangu world, so they would be safe.

He was still a little worried about these two girls.

“The sooner I reach the ancestral God Realm, the sooner I can go back!”

He muttered to himself as he looked at the lake in front of the pavilion.

Emperor Tianhuang was the heavenly way of the immortal world. Only when he reached the ancestral God Realm could he contend with it. After transforming into the heavenly way, his strength had far exceeded that of an ordinary immortal Emperor.

He stood there for a long time, thinking about many people and many things.

After a long time, he turned around and dashed toward the gate of the mansion.

He was going to the various Chambers of Commerce to see if there were any deity great pills for sale.

If there were, he would buy some.

If he didn't have it, he would buy materials and refine it himself.

The earlier he reached the Yang God Realm, the more he would be able to protect himself in the fairy's capital.

After all, his peak nine-star cultivation was still a little low. There were many people at this level in Shen du, not to mention the divine generals and the divine Martial Emperor in the palace.

After he left the mansion, he changed his appearance several times and entered a Chamber of Commerce.

“God pill? No, no, pills of this level aren’t usually sold. They only appear in auctions.”

When he asked, the shopkeeper immediately waved his hand.

Tang Hao did not give up. He went to the other shops to ask, but they did not have any.

At that moment, he could only settle for second best and purchase the materials for the deity great pill.

There were quite a few of them in each shop, but they were quite expensive.

Fortunately, he had a lot of divine coins on him and had been rewarded a lot. He had killed so many people in the hundred territories before and had accumulated a huge fortune.

He bought dozens of them from each shop and made a total of three hundred.

After returning to the mansion, he sat down and began to refine.

The deity elixir was a divine Dao elixir, and it was a zenith heaven immortal level elixir. This was his first time trying to refine such a difficult elixir.

“Just do it the same way I did before, there’s no problem!”

He studied the recipe carefully. The next moment, he opened the furnace, lit the fire, threw in the ingredients one by one, and began to refine.

“It’s done!”

Everything was going smoothly.

Half a day later, a perfect celestial pill fell into Tang Hao’s hands.

The first attempt was a complete success.

This was also because his alchemy skills were too profound and had reached the extreme realm, so no matter what kind of pill it was, he could easily control it.

He continued to make them. After making a few cauldrons, his speed had increased significantly. He could make at least ten pills a day.

In the following period of time, he stayed in his residence and refined the deity great pill.

During this period, elder Yu came over once to give him the array Dao manual.

Many people came to visit, but he ignored them.

In a month’s time, he had refined three hundred sets of materials.

“Four hundred and forty-four ... I’m still lacking quite a bit!”

At this moment, he had more than 400 deity great pills on him.

However, there was still a long way to go before he could break through to the Yang God Realm.

The minimum was 500, so he had to prepare at least 700 or 800.

He left the mansion and continued to purchase materials from the various Chambers of Commerce.

This time, he bought more than 500 sets.

He was prepared to gather 1000 celestial God pills to ensure that he could break through smoothly.

After returning to his residence, he continued to refine.

The hundred territories.

At the mountain Gate of the Tai Qing Palace.

On top of a high mountain, a beautiful figure was sitting by the railing, looking at the sea of clouds in a daze.

Not long after, a tall and sturdy figure swept over and arrived in front of the pavilion.

However, she didn't feel it at all and was still in a daze.

The person stopped and sighed.

“Argh! Master!”

Only then did she come to her senses. She turned around, revealing a beautiful face that could topple cities.

She was dressed in a pure white chiffon dress, which accentuated her Holy and flawless temperament.

“What are you thinking about?”

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace walked forward and smiled.

“N-nothing, I was just in a daze.” Su lingsu lowered her head and tried to avoid his gaze.

“You’re thinking about that thing again! It’s all in the past, so you don’t have to care about it. ”

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace said.

“Master, I didn’t!” Su lingsu said in a low voice.

“Alright, if you don’t, then you don’t!”

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace laughed, feeling a little helpless.

He looked at her and sighed in his heart.

Ever since that incident, she had been out of her mind.

At first, he thought that she had been humiliated by that guy, so he was still holding a grudge. However, he later realized that things didn't seem that simple.

"Master, what's the matter?"

Su lingsu raised her head and said.

"There's a piece of news that I think you'll be interested in." The palace Master of tai Qing Palace hesitated for a moment before she spoke.

"What news?"

"It's news from the divine martial Kingdom. Not long ago, during their battle with the Vermillion Bird kingdom, someone made a great contribution and was conferred the title of general, becoming a prominent upstart in the divine martial Kingdom."

"Sealed general in one battle? It's that powerful?"

Su lingsu's eyes widened in shock.

"This person ... Is surnamed mu!"

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace said word by word.

"Mu? It's him?"

Su lingsu's delicate body trembled as she revealed a look of disbelief.

"It's him!"

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace nodded.

They were talking about that fake perverted Bandit with heaven-defying talent and shocking background, and not that little perverted Bandit from the Tangshan region.

"I want to go to the divine martial Kingdom!"

Su lingsu took a deep breath, her full chest heaving up and down.

Her white fingers clenched her dress tightly, and it was unknown whether she was excited or angry.

"Are you sure you want to go?"

The palace Master of tai Qing Palace frowned.

"I'm going, I still want to settle accounts with him!"

Su lingsu clenched her fist and snorted.
