

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3403

“It’s half beast poison and half plant poison!”

“It’s like smoke, colorless and tasteless. It’s the best poison. Once you’re poisoned, it can seep into your bone marrow and is difficult to remove.”

“Although it won’t kill you, it can corrode your divine core and drain your blood and bones. It can also cause pain, itchiness, weakness, and other symptoms. It’s a poison that’s specialized in torturing people!”

“It seems that this Jade Lake Pavilion is not simple!”

Tang Hao muttered to himself as he looked at the Jade bottle in front of him.

Hiding poison in one’s body was not new.

In the immortal world, those women from the evil sects also used this method to lure people. It was not strange to see it in the God World.

The strange thing was, why did the people of the Jade Lake Pavilion want to deal with him?

“It seems like there are many people who hate me in the divine martial Kingdom. I had just left and they had already set up a trap to harm me.” He snorted coldly.

“It’s a pity that this poison is useless against me. Even if I’m poisoned, it won’t have any effect. ”

With a sneer, he kept the poison.

He stood up and walked to the front of the pavilion. He looked at the lake in front of him and fell into deep thought.

The reason he had come to the divine martial Kingdom was to break through to the sun god Realm.

Now, he had achieved his goal.

It was time for him to make the next step of his plan.

“The sun god is the immortal King realm. At this realm, it’s no doubt even more difficult to advance. Even with the abundant resources in the divine world, it’s not easy.”

“There are many types of divine herbs in this world. There are also yang gods and even ancestral gods, but they won’t appear on the market. They’re all cultivated by the various factions. There are also natural ones, but they’re very rare. They’re all in dangerous and dangerous places.”

“It’s undoubtedly very slow to improve by only relying on godly medicine. The only way left is to kill!”

“However, to a yang God, an ordinary divine realm expert is not enough. It’s also very difficult to kill someone of the same level.”

As he muttered to himself, he slowly furrowed his brows.

He had just entered the Yang God Realm. Although his combat power could suppress those of the same rank, it was still quite difficult for him to kill and devour them.

“Someone’s coming ... It’s elder Yu!”

Suddenly, his expression changed and he looked in the direction of the gate.

There was a person standing at the door.

He opened the door.

After elder Yu entered, he quickly headed towards the lakeside Pavilion.

“Little mu, it’s fine if you want to have fun, but why did you go to the Jade pool pavilion?” He was a little anxious and shouted from afar, “let me take a look. Are you alright?”

He tried to grab Tang Hao’s arm as soon as he landed.

“No need!”

Tang Hao took half a step back and chuckled. “You’re worried that I’ve been poisoned, aren’t you?”

“You know?”

Elder Yu was startled, his expression surprised.

“I can see it. Isn’t it like showing off in front of an expert by poisoning me?” Tang Hao took out the Jade bottle and tossed it over.

Elder Yu caught it, and in the next moment, he realized what it was, and his face turned red.

The poison was nothing, but the location was a little awkward and indescribable.

“Kid, you’re good! You can even find this and take it out!” He opened the lid, took a look, and said with a smile, “I heard that you’ve tormented that Lotus Moon Fairy for an entire day. Now, the entire fairy’s capital is in an uproar, and everyone is talking about your amazing battle results!”

Tang Hao smiled.

“Amazing! Amazing!” Elder Yu praised sincerely, “do you know what kind of background fairy lianyue and the Jade Lake Pavilion have?”

“They’re from the sunflower Palace! One of the Holy Lands of the East continent! “They’re most skilled in the Dao of poison, as well as their dual cultivation techniques. You can say that they’re the most powerful in that area. Every single disciple of sunflower Palace has an amazing beguiling technique, as well as a powerful bed spell. ”

“Ordinary men can’t last more than a few rounds with them, especially at the level of Lotus Moon Fairy. You’ve really made the men of the East Province proud!”

“The sunflowers Palace, huh?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself and committed the name to memory.

“The Jade pool pavilion is their base in the divine martial Kingdom. Sometimes, they would take on some bounty missions and secretly poison people. I heard that the Vermillion Bird kingdom had offered a sky-high reward to deal with you, so I’m afraid that you’ll be caught in the Jade pool pavilion.”

Elder Yu said.

“The country of Suzaku? I thought they were from Shen ‘du.” Tang Hao said.

“Shen ‘du? It’s also possible that you’ve offended many people!” Elder Yu said.

“Anyway, it’s good that you’re fine. Ah! By the way, what’s with that tai Qing saintess? I heard you made her run away?”

Tang Hao briefly explained the situation.

“She realized her mistake and was afraid of the divine martial Kingdom’s prestige. That’s why she left.”

“That’s good!”

Elder Yu heaved a sigh of relief.

The Tai Qing saintess’s reputation was still a little well-known, and she also had a yang God master behind her. If they really made a scene, it would be a little troublesome.

“Elder Yu, is there anything else?”

Tang Hao asked.

“No, I’m just here to ask. Be more careful in the future.” Elder Yu said.

“Oh! Do you have any other array books in your array Department?”

Tang Hao said.

He had finished reading all the ancient books on arrays that elder Yu had sent over.

With his array Dao attainments, he only needed to glance at these books and he could grasp all of them.

“You ... You’ve finished reading it all?”

Elder Yu was stunned and found it hard to believe.

“I’m done!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“That’s impossible! Even if you’re a genius, it’ll take you many years to finish reading all of them. It’s only been two months, I think!” Elder Yu shook his head in disbelief.

“Then you can test me!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Good! Come on!”

Elder Yu walked into the pavilion, sat down, and rolled up his sleeves.

He was prepared to teach this kid a good lesson so that he would not be so impetuous in the future.

After half a day, he came out of the pavilion.

His face was a little pale, and he seemed to have lost his soul.

Bang!

He stumbled a few steps, and his head hit the goalpost.

However, he was still in a daze.

“Impossible ... This is impossible!”

“How can such a person exist?”

He mumbled in his sleep as he stumbled out of the carefree mansion.

In the next few days, the outside world was still abuzz with news about him, and the more they spread, the more exaggerated it became.

At first, it was one day, but now it had become three days and three nights.

Some versions were not even one-on-one anymore. Some were three, while others were five. In any case, they were exaggerated as much as they could.

Elder Yu made a trip over and brought over some array Dao books that he had plundered from the outside, as well as some array Dao materials that he had requested.

Using these materials, he created a few formations and set them up around the carefree mansion.

This place wasn't bad. He was also quite satisfied with his current status. Therefore, he was prepared to use this place as a foothold.

After setting up the formation, elder Yu came again a day later.

"It's His Majesty, he wants to see you!"

Elder Yu's expression was a little strange.

"What is it?"

"This ... You can't say, you can't say. When we arrive, His Majesty will tell you!" He quickly shook his head and did not reveal any information.

Tang Hao followed him to the palace.
