

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3410

“This Emperor shenwu is old and muddled!”

The sky Eagle emissary sneered and looked up in the direction of the palace.

“Our Jade Dragon Mountain wants a marriage alliance to give face to the divine martial Kingdom. Many forces in the East Province have been begging for such an opportunity. They are fighting for it, but they don’t want it!”

“I think Emperor shenwu is at his wit’s end. I’ve heard that many great clans and Dukes don’t dare to take on this job, so they could only find this little pervert!”

“We’ll kill every one he gives us. Let’s see how long he can last!”

He narrowed his eyes and his body was filled with killing intent.

“Then ... Your Excellency, should we make a move now? Kill this mu?” The person in front of the hall said.

“No rush!”

The sky Eagle Messenger laughed, “it’s still daytime! How could he kill people! If you want to kill someone, you have to do it at night, that way it’ll be more artistic!”

“The high Ambassador is right! Let that mu live half a day longer!”

The man in front of the hall was stunned for a moment, then he laughed.

“Go and gather your men. Everyone will follow me to attack the carefree mansion tonight. I’ll see what Emperor shenwu will do tomorrow!” The sky Eagle envoy sneered again.

The marriage was bestowed today, but she would die tomorrow. Emperor shenwu’s expression would definitely be interesting!

“My Lord, will the divine martial Kingdom have experts lying in ambush in the carefree mansion?” The person in front of the hall suddenly said worriedly.

“He won’t. Emperor shenwu wouldn’t be willing to use a yang God powerhouse!”

The sky Eagle Messenger shook his head and said confidently.

If there was really a sun god lying in ambush, once they fought, it would definitely attract the attention of Jade Dragon Mountain and attract the many sun god powerhouses of Jade Dragon Mountain, bringing a great disaster to the divine martial Kingdom.

As long as Emperor shenwu was not a fool, he would definitely not do that.

As for those at the celestial God Realm, he didn’t care at all. No matter how many of them came, they wouldn’t be enough for him to beat.

“Good, this subordinate will go and prepare!”

The man in front of the hall bowed and quickly left.

The sky Eagle Messenger stood in front of the palace, looked in the direction of the carefree mansion, snorted, and stepped into the palace.

At this moment, the God capital outside was in an uproar.

The news of the divine decree had already spread.

The entire fairy's capital was in an uproar again.

No one had thought that the situation would develop so quickly. The divine decree had come down not even half a day after the news had been released.

What was even more unbelievable was that general feifeng had actually agreed to this marriage.

"I heard that they're just looking for a scapegoat to block mount Yulong. It's not a real knot."

"That's still no good. Can't you find a normal person? Wouldn't finding this perverted Bandit Sully general Fei Feng's reputation?"

"I think the people from Jade Dragon Mountain will soon attack the carefree mansion. Let's wait and see!"

The People's discussions were no longer as angry as before.

They had also heard the whole story of the matter and began to gloat.

Everyone in Luoyang turned their attention to the carefree mansion.

They were all waiting for the people from Jade Dragon Mountain to come and make a good show.

In the blink of an eye, half a day had passed.

There was finally some movement in the stronghold on Jade Dragon Mountain.

Groups of people swaggered toward the carefree mansion.

“It’s the people from Jade Dragon Mountain!”

“They’re finally moving!”

Countless gazes from all over Shen ‘du caught this movement.

“The one leading them is the sky Eagle Messenger. He’s personally taking action. It looks like that brat will die tonight!”

“The 108 messengers of Mount Jade Dragon are all first grade geniuses. Each of them is a peak-stage heavenly God. None of the heavenly gods in our divine martial country are a match for them.”

When their gazes landed on the leader, they all revealed a look of awe.

A high Ambassador of Jade Dragon Mountain was not a light figure.

Such a person could break through and become a yang God powerhouse at any time.

With their talent, once they advanced, they would have a great reputation among the Yang gods.

“The sky Eagle Messenger is personally taking action. That brat is dead for sure!”

Hong Tianyi and the others were also watching.

They were all sneering, gloating over his misfortune.

“Miss, you’re not going to save him, are you?”

In the flying Phoenix mansion.

A beautiful figure stood in the void.

The bright moonlight shone down, illuminating a dazzled face.

The night wind blew, lifting up the light muslin on her body, making her graceful and curvaceous figure faintly visible.

She just stood there without moving, like a perfect Jade person.

Behind her, a woman in a white dress mumbled as she looked into the distance at the figures of the troops.

She turned her eyes again, and when she looked at the carefree mansion in the distance, she couldn’t help but show disgust.

How could a little pervert be worthy of her young miss? even if she was a scapegoat, she would have a status, and it was bestowed by His Majesty personally. It would bring shame to her young miss 'reputation.

"No need, he won't die!"

Mu hanyan said, shaking her head.

"You're still not dead? That's the sky Eagle Messenger from Mount Jade Dragon. He has challenged the entire divine martial Kingdom and is unrivaled among the heavenly gods." The woman in the white dress was startled and asked in surprise.

"As long as he's in the carefree mansion, he won't die. Even I can't kill him!" Mu hanyan shook her head again.

"Miss, You must be joking! With your abilities, killing that little thief is a piece of cake."

The lady in the white dress was in disbelief.

"Do you think I went to the carefree mansion today to have a heart-to-heart talk with him? If I could kill him, I would've killed him long ago!"

Mu hanyan smiled indifferently, turned around, and fell down.

"Stop looking, there's nothing to see!"

Her voice came from afar.

As for the lady in the white dress, she just stood there like she didn't hear anything.

She still hadn't recovered from her shock.

She couldn't believe that the little thief had the ability to stump someone like the young lady. What exactly was in the carefree mansion?

She looked at the carefree mansion again, her eyes full of curiosity.

"It's right in front!"

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, the group from Jade Dragon Mountain, more than thirty people, had arrived at the carefree mansion.

"Let's go, follow me in and kill that brat!"

The sky Eagle Messenger shouted and took the lead to rush into the mansion.

"What?"

The moment he entered the manor, his expression changed.

He had thought that there would be a great formation protecting the mansion. There would be a maze formation, an illusion formation, and a defensive formation. However, when he entered, he found that there was no formation at all.

The sky above the mansion was empty and undefended.

“How did this happen?”

He was shocked.

This situation was clearly abnormal.

That brat should know that someone would come looking for him, so why didn't he activate the formation?

A mansion like this would be protected by at least a few great formations. It was just a matter of grade.

“Did that kid run away?”

His mind moved.

This was obviously the most reasonable guess.

“As expected of a perverted Bandit, you're the best at escaping, haha! What a joke!” He laughed out loud.

“There's no Grand formation!”

“He ran away?”

The people behind him also noticed this strange situation and burst into laughter.

He actually ran away, he's too gutless!

"Everyone, what's so funny? why don't you share it with me?"

At this moment, a faint voice came from the front.

Their laughter stopped abruptly.

When they looked over, their expressions changed.
