

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3414

The sky was just beginning to brighten.

Divine martial imperial capital.

While everyone was still paying attention to the carefree mansion, a piece of shocking news came from the Imperial Palace.

The imperial capital was instantly in an uproar.

The people of Jade Dragon Mountain were all dead!

This included the sky Eagle emissary who had defeated all the heavenly gods.

What was even more shocking was that the man surnamed mu had already broken through to the Yang God Realm!

These two pieces of news were like a sudden clap of thunder, shaking the entire capital.

“Sun god? How did this guy become a sun god? This is impossible!”

After receiving the news, Hong Tianyi, who was paying attention to the carefree mansion, stood in place for a long time.

By the time he came back to his senses, his expression had already become somewhat crazy.

He couldn't believe it, nor could he accept this news.

In his mind, that mu fellow had always been a perverted little bandit, shameless, unbearable, and mediocre in strength. However, this fellow had actually broken through to the Yang God Realm, far surpassing him, the number one genius of the hundred territories.

“Yang God Realm? How could he be so fast?”

The rest of the young men were also in disbelief.

After all, just a few months ago, this fellow had still been a puny God.

Such a speed of improvement was heaven-defying and unprecedented!

“Perhaps Emperor shenwu had made a deal with him!”

“That's true! I was wondering how this kid could resist Jade Dragon Mountain with his strength. Now I see!”

They pondered for a while and understood.

Everything was part of Emperor shenwu's plan.

“Brother Hong, you don't have to be upset. This kid will only be in the limelight for a while. He's obviously just a target that Emperor shenwu pushed out. After killing the sky Eagle envoy, the people of Mount Jade Dragon will not let him off.”

“Yup! A person like the sky Eagle Messenger must have a soul token. Jade Dragon Mountain should know about it by now, and they might be on their way here.”

“With this perverted Bandit’s innate divine ability, how could he be a match for the experts of Jade Dragon Mountain? when the people of Jade Dragon Mountain arrive, he will die, and he will die a miserable death.”

They looked at Hong Tianyi and comforted him.

“I know, I’m just not happy!”

Hong Tianyi looked at the carefree mansion and took a deep breath. His face was extremely gloomy.

“Sun god?”

“He’s already a sun god?”

In the flying Phoenix residence, mu hanyan was sitting in the hall, cultivating with her eyes closed.

When she heard the news, she couldn’t help but open her eyes in shock.

That day, that fellow had not revealed the news that he had advanced to the sun god Realm.

“How can it be so fast? It’s not easy to break through to the sun god Realm. It takes time to prepare, so where did he get the time?”

She furrowed her brows and felt a little confused.

That fellow had probably obtained Emperor shenwu's five yang spirit pills yesterday.

But in less than a day, he had advanced to the sun god Realm. This was too fast and unbelievable.

"Forget it. How he advanced to the Yang God Realm is none of my business!"

After a while, her brows relaxed and she was no longer entangled in this.

"He killed the sky Eagle Messenger, stupid! Wouldn't it be better to trap him? this way, he can stall Jade Dragon Mountain. Now that he's dead, the people from Jade Dragon Mountain are definitely on their way to seek revenge. How can he stop them with his strength as a newly-advanced sun god?"

Then, she sneered.

In her opinion, her husband-to-be's behavior was extremely stupid.

"It's none of my business, just let him do as he wishes!"

A moment later, she recollected her thoughts and closed her eyes again, continuing to absorb the medicinal power of the elixir in her body.

"Sun god? How could this bastard be so fast?"

In her rented cave, su lingsu was also surprised when she heard the news.

A few months ago in the Tangshan region, this bastard had just reached the nine-star level. Now, he was already a sun god.

“Then I can’t do anything to him?”

Then, her pretty face fell and she wanted to cry but had no tears.

When she came, she had taken a few of her master’s treasures, which contained the power of the sun god Realm. She could have suppressed that bastard, but now that he had advanced to the sun god Realm, her little trick would not work.

“But it’s fine. He’s already killed the people from Jade Dragon Mountain. There’s going to be a good show to watch.”

She thought of something and suddenly grinned in joy.

She couldn’t wait for it to be as lively as possible. It would be best if all the people of Jade Dragon Mountain came to kill her. This way, she might be able to force out the true identity of this bastard.

In Shen ‘du, the news spread rapidly, causing an even bigger commotion.

Many of the people from the other forces who were stationed in Shen ‘du also heard the news.

For example, there were spies from Suzaku, the surrounding divine kingdoms, and a sacred land like the heavenly sunflower Palace.

“He’s actually fine. He even broke through to the Yang God Realm?”

In the Jade Lake Pavilion.

The beautiful woman was bewildered.

On that day, general mu and lianyue had sex for a day. The poison was successfully planted and should have taken effect, but now it seemed that it had not. Otherwise, how could he have advanced to the Yang spirit and killed the sky Eagle Messenger of Mount Jade Dragon?

“Don’t tell me ... He found out? Or is it because he’s so talented that he’s not afraid of my poison?”

Her eyes flickered with uncertainty.

“With the death of the sky Eagle Messenger, there will be a big move on Jade Dragon Mountain. I have to send the news back to the palace.”

She thought for a moment and quickly took out a jade talisman.

Soon, the Jade talisman was sent out and disappeared into the void.

At this moment, the Jade talismans were sent out to all the forces in the East continent.

The carefree general of the divine martial Kingdom, as well as the fact that he had killed the sky Eagle emissary, had spread to all the major powers in the East continent.

“General Xiaoyao? That’s right, that array Dao genius from the divine martial Kingdom was originally an unremarkable little pervert. How did he suddenly advance to the Yang God Realm? He even dared to kill the sky Eagle envoy? It’s unbelievable!”

“Hahaha! The divine martial Kingdom is going to be lively!”

The gazes of the East continent were also cast toward the divine martial Kingdom in the East.

They were all gloating and secretly pleased with themselves.

In the East continent, it had been a long time since anyone dared to touch the people of Jade Dragon Mountain, let alone kill them. Now, a little perverted Bandit from the hundred territories had done such a bold thing, which was undoubtedly a hard slap to the face of Jade Dragon Mountain.

Of course, this little pervert would die soon, but the impact on the reputation of Jade Dragon Mountain would not be eliminated.

“Let’s go to the divine martial Kingdom to have a look and join in the fun!”

“It’s been a long time since I’ve seen such an interesting thing. I have to go and take a look!”

Many of them started to move and headed towards the divine martial Kingdom.

With the deliberate spread of these major forces, the news quickly spread throughout the entire East Province.

“Divine martial Kingdom, carefree general?”

In a corner of the East continent, a woman with a hot figure in an ice-blue outfit was sitting in a corner of a restaurant and drinking tea slowly.

Suddenly, she heard a piece of news that made her stop.

“Brother mu ... He became a general of the divine martial Kingdom and even advanced to the sun god Realm?”

As she listened, her beautiful eyes kept widening, revealing extreme shock and disbelief.

In her excitement, her perky chest heaved up and down violently, attracting many fiery gazes from all directions.

“How is that possible?”

She was still immersed in extreme shock.

She couldn't believe that her Little Junior Brother, who used to be frivolous and shameless, had suddenly become a yang God powerhouse and had become the focus of the entire East Province.

“Maybe ... He has a problem!”

She muttered to herself for a long time, deep in thought.

“Bill please!”

A moment later, she threw down a few divine coins, got up, and left the restaurant, heading towards the divine martial Kingdom.
