

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3415

“We’ve arrived at the divine martial Kingdom!”

In the vast void, seven beams of divine light swept over.

They looked into the distance, at the vast land, and their eyes were cold.

On the way, they had already received a lot of information and figured out the whole story.

This made them even more furious.

The one who killed the sky Eagle emissaries was actually a little pervert!

To Jade Dragon Mountain, this was undoubtedly a great humiliation!

Many forces in the East continent were laughing at them secretly. It was said that many people had rushed to the divine martial Kingdom to watch the show.

“This little perverted Bandit surnamed mu is really bold. We’ll catch him later and bring him back to Jade Dragon Mountain to be sentenced to death!”

The green-robed Green Goat high holiness, who had two white beards, sneered, and his body was filled with intense killing intent.

“That’s right. We can’t kill him in the divine martial country. It’s too easy for him. We have to make it public and let everyone in the world see the consequences of provoking our Jade Dragon Mountain!”

Beside him, Wu tuo high holiness nodded.

He was dressed in a black robe, and his figure was even more burly. His cheeks were thin, and his leopard eyes were slightly protruding and squinted, flashing with an intimidating cold light.

“And that Emperor shenwu ...”

“This must be his plan,” the green Goat high holiness shouted. “Otherwise, how could a little perverted Bandit from the Tangshan region advance to the Yang God stage and dare to kill people from Mount Jade Dragon? this is a target he found.”

“Emperor shenwu is quite capable. I heard that he’s already a seven-star martial artist. We can’t do anything to him with the help of the people in the divine Kingdom.”

Wu tuo high holiness shook his head and said.

“I can’t kill him, but I can at least cause him some trouble! When the time comes, I’ll just destroy a few mansions and kill a few more people. I’ll take this opportunity to stir up trouble for the divine Martial Emperor as a warning to him.” The verdant Gazelle high holiness said.

“This is feasible!”

Wu tuo high holiness nodded.

“Let’s go! The earlier we catch him, the earlier we can calm the situation.”

A moment later, the two of them took the lead and flew towards the divine martial Kingdom.

The moment they entered the country, the seven of them unleashed their auras and rushed in without anyone daring to stop them.

After traveling for an hour, the divine martial royal capital was already in sight.

“The sky Wolf emissary greets the Venerables!”

The seven divine lights landed at the city gate, and someone came to welcome them.

“Where is he?”

The verdant Gazelle high holiness shouted.

“He’s in the carefree mansion. I heard that he hasn’t come out since that day.” The sky Wolf emissary bowed.

“Good! Take us there now.”

The green Goat high holiness nodded.

“Please, venerable ones!”

The sky Wolf emissary turned around and led the seven people into the capital.

“Many people have come to the divine Martial Emperor’s residence these days. They’re all from various forces, including the sunflowers Palace and the war god Hall. They’re all waiting around the carefree mansion!” As he walked, he introduced the situation in the city.

“Hmph! They’re pretty fast!”

The two high holiness snorted coldly.

“They’re here!”

The moment this group of people stepped into the city, countless gazes from all directions of the Imperial City looked over.

“Two high holiness and five supremacies ... This is quite a big battle!”

“It’s the two old men, Qingyang and wutuo. They’re not weak. ”

The four sides were all surprised.

Two mid-stage yang gods and five early-stage yang gods. This lineup was a little too extravagant.

That man with the surname mu had just advanced to the Yang God Realm a few days ago. His natural endowments and magical powers were not that great. One high holiness would be enough, but now there were two of them.

“If these two old men attack together, will that kid still have a chance of survival?”

In a private room on the top floor of a restaurant near the carefree mansion, several figures were sitting.

They were all women. One was an old woman, one was a beautiful woman in red, and the last one was wearing a black gauze dress. Her entire body was shrouded in a misty divine light, making it impossible to see her face.

But just by looking at her body, she was extremely enchanting.

At this moment, the old woman was looking in the direction of the city gate and said.

“This Mount Jade Dragon is quite hot-tempered!”

The beautiful woman chuckled.

She was the one from the Jade Lake Pavilion.

“This is normal!” The old woman laughed. “In all these years, when has Mount Yulong ever suffered such humiliation? I was even afraid that they would send a Grandmaster over. That would be really lively.”

“Two high holinesses ... It looks like he’s going to die this time.”

The beautiful woman in red turned her eyes to the carefree mansion not far away.

She sighed softly, feeling a little regretful.

“It’s quite a pity. Such a talented man is one of a kind! I want to have a taste of him!”

The old woman also looked at the carefree mansion and licked her lips.

“It’s a pity. I wanted to see him and see what kind of strange man he was to be able to be with lianyue for so long.” The black-robed woman spoke. Her voice was soft and charming, like the voice of a demon.

Under the misty divine light, she turned her beautiful eyes and fixed them on the carefree mansion.

“Unfortunately, he’s already a dead man!”

After a while, she shook her head and sighed.

“This brat is dead for sure!”

“In my opinion, Qingyang and the others will not kill him here. They will suppress him and bring him back to Mount Jade Dragon.”

People were watching the show in the restaurants and attics near the mansion.

They looked in the direction of the city gate, then at the carefree mansion, and discussed enthusiastically.

“I think it’ll take an hour at most!”

“An hour? You’re overestimating that kid! I think it’ll take at most 15 minutes!”

Soon, they began to argue about how long that kid could hold on.

Some busybodies even opened up betting tables for this, attracting everyone to place their bets.

“Hmph! It’s boring!”

“Why do I need 15 minutes? I can capture that kid in half an hour.”

When they arrived in front of the carefree mansion, the Qingyang high holiness and the others heard the commotion around them and snorted coldly, feeling a little annoyed.

How did those people who had been betting for an hour think of this? how could they look down on the two high holiness of Jade Dragon Mountain?

“Ignore them. Let’s go and capture that brat!”

The green Goat high holiness shouted and took the lead to enter the mansion.

The other six followed.

The seven of them looked very relaxed.

Capturing a brat who had just entered the Yang God Realm was a piece of cake.

As for the formations in the mansion, it was even easier. In front of experts like them, ordinary formations were like paper. Even some confusion and illusion formations could not pose any difficulty to them.

“Eh? Is this ... A bewildering formation?”

As soon as they entered the mansion, they felt the void around them change, and they arrived at a dark space.

High walls surrounded them, and they were dark and gloomy.

“Small tricks!”

The green Goat high holiness looked around with a disdainful expression.

A mere bewildering formation was trying to trap two mid yang God experts?

Wasn't this just a dream?

He didn't even need to think about how to break such a bewildering formation. He just had to release his aura and blow up the entire formation.

“I'll do it!”

He shouted in a low voice and strode forward, his body shining with divine light.

Then, he punched a high wall in front of him.
