

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3418

“Keke!”

Under the pitch-black high wall, the six people from Jade Dragon Mountain were huddled together, their faces pale.

A few of the Supreme realm experts were even trembling so badly that their teeth were chattering non-stop.

In the void above their heads, a great battle, no, it should be a slaughter, was going on.

Although the venerable from Jade Dragon Mountain had also revealed his divine body and attacked with all his might, he could not resist at all when facing that guy.

With a wave of the dark golden giant God’s hand, countless stars gushed forth, and with the force of ten thousand Jun, the venerable of Jade Dragon Mountain was blown back.

Under the frenzied attacks, cracks began to appear on the divine body, and its aura was constantly weakening.

Ah!

“Ah!” A heart-wrenching scream.

One of his arms was torn off just like that.

Then, in front of them, he stuffed it into his mouth and swallowed it.

Soon, another arm, then two legs ...

They were all torn off, accompanied by screams and splatters of divine blood. It was an extremely visually impactful scene.

Even the two high holinesses trembled when they saw this.

It was too brutal!

This mu guy was really ruthless!

They were also angry, but they were powerless. They couldn't break out of this trapping formation.

"As I expected, that Grand array is very powerful!"

The green Goat high holiness said in shock.

Although the sovereign of Mount Jade Dragon was only a one-star sun god, he had broken through many years ago. In terms of cultivation and divine power, he was far superior to the boy surnamed mu. He should have been the one to bully his opponent.

But now, the situation was reversed. It must be because of the formation.

"Yup! Even if we go in, we might not be able to defeat that kid!" Wu tuo high holiness nodded with a bitter expression.

“It’s all because of that damn Emperor shenwu!”

“He’s hidden pretty well! I’ve never seen him use such a powerful formation before!”

Then, the six of them started to curse Emperor shenwu in unison.

This was the real instigator. Everything had been caused by him.

If it were not for the two great formations that he had set up, they would not have been trapped here in such a sorry state. With their strength, they would have long suppressed that brat surnamed mu and escorted him back to Mount Jade Dragon.

“He’s dead!”

“He’s dead?”

A moment later, they were all stunned and in disbelief when they saw the divine body being completely devoured.

Where did that guy get the guts to kill the venerable of Jade Dragon Mountain?

Then, they shivered and their faces turned paler.

Killing one was killing, killing two was also killing. Perhaps that brat would even make a move and kill them all.

They huddled together, trembling in fear as they waited.

Not long after, on Mount Jade Dragon.

Dragon Soul Palace.

Pa!

A soft sound was heard.

Among the countless soul plates in the hall, one of them had cracked.

The old man guarding the hall suddenly opened his eyes, his expression somewhat shocked.

Why did another soul plate crack?

How long had it been since the last one?

“This ... How is this possible?”

When he saw the broken soul tablet, his body couldn't help but shake. The next moment, he stood up, his face revealing extreme horror.

This time, it was a venerable's soul plate that had shattered.

Furthermore, he was one of the five sovereigns who had gone to the divine martial Kingdom to seek revenge a few days ago.

“How did he die? Did he die in the divine martial Kingdom?”

He mumbled in complete disbelief.

First, it was the sky Eagle envoy, and now, it was a Supreme expert. Was the divine martial Kingdom declaring war on his Mount Jade Dragon?

After pondering for a while, he immediately took out a jade talisman and sent a message to the Dragon head Palace.

“How did he die? Didn’t they say that they were trapped in the carefree mansion’s formation?”

“This Emperor shenwu is so bold!”

Soon, Mount Jade Dragon was in an uproar again.

The sovereigns gathered in the dragon’s head Hall, their anger soaring.

In the eyes of Jade Dragon Mountain, the divine martial country was just a small country. They didn’t even put it in their eyes. But now, two of their disciples had died in this shabby place.

“Great seniors, what are you waiting for? mobilize all your disciples and kill our way into the divine martial country. We’ll wipe them out completely.”

“That’s right. We’ll kill Emperor shenwu and then capture that little pervert. We’ll Flay him alive.”

Someone raised his arm and shouted.

“You can’t! Currently, the divine martial Kingdom was the center of attention in the East continent. There were countless eyes watching them. Just the carefree mansion alone was surrounded by people from various Holy Lands and major forces. If we kill them now, will they let us have our way?”

“That’s right! The people from the sunflowers Palace and the war god Hall won’t let us have an easy time. Even if we want to destroy the divine martial Kingdom, we’ll have to think about it later.”

There were also quite a few people who thought about it and shook their heads.

If it was only Jade Dragon Mountain and the two forces from the divine martial Kingdom, it would be as easy as turning one’s hand over. However, there were too many forces involved now.

If they were to launch a large-scale attack now, the other Holy Lands might stab them in the back.

“Furthermore, if we were to launch a large-scale attack now, it would greatly affect the reputation of Jade Dragon Mountain. We have seven Venerables, two of whom are even superior Venerables. With such a lineup, how would the world think of us if we were unable to break the formation set up by Emperor shenwu and even lost one of them?”

“That’s right. We have to break the array and capture that brat to foil Emperor shenwu’s plan. It won’t be too late for us to deal with the divine martial Kingdom after the storm has passed.”

“That makes sense, but how do we break the formation? We still don’t know what kind of formation it is?”

“Qingyang and wutuo’s attainments in the array Dao are not high. In our Mount Jade Dragon, they can only be regarded as average. When we gather all the array Dao experts and work together, we can naturally break it.”

“Good! Let’s do it this way. We’ll break the formation and kill that kid first, then we’ll deal with Emperor shenwu!”

After some discussion, they quickly came up with a plan.

An hour later, the group of ten left Mount Jade Dragon and headed for the divine martial imperial capital.

These ten people’s cultivation might not be high, and some of them were not even Venerables, but they had profound attainments in array Dao. Some of them were even tyrants in the East continent’s array Dao world, and they were not inferior to master Tianhe.

“This time, I’ll definitely break the formation and capture that brat!”

The people of Jade Dragon Mountain had no doubt about this.

“Five days ...”

The people of the divine martial imperial capital were still waiting.

After the shock and the anxious wait, they were much calmer now.

They were all discussing the formation inside.

Everyone was very curious about what kind of peerless formation could trap the people from Jade Dragon Mountain.

People continued to pour in from all directions of the divine martial imperial capital. They were all here to watch the show, and there were also many array Masters who had come because of the fame.

The crowd gathered outside the carefree mansion, pointing and discussing, but no one dared to step in.

Outside the residence, Tang Hao was sitting quietly in a small pavilion by the lake.

In front of him, the divine furnace was floating.

Inside, golden divine fire was burning, refining a huge divine body.
