

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3420

“Still no movement?”

Early morning, Flying Phoenix mansion.

Mu hanyan opened her eyes and glanced in the direction of the carefree mansion as usual.

There, it was still as lively and crowded with people.

The carefree mansion was also silent.

She retracted her gaze, her mind calm.

She was already used to this situation. For the past ten days, she had to take a few glances at the other side every morning to understand the situation.

“There’s no movement!”

Outside the hall, the woman in the white dress was sitting with her chin in her hand, looking in the direction of the carefree mansion.

“It’s been fifteen days. It’s been seven days since that group of array Masters went in, but there’s still no movement. Right now, the outside is in an uproar. It’s very lively. I heard that many array Masters have come these days.”

She mumbled, “young lady, what kind of array do you think is set up in the Xiaoyao mansion? How could he be so powerful? The entire East continent and the entire array Dao world are watching the carefree mansion!”

“Since when did His Majesty have such a powerful formation?”

As she said that, she revealed a look of confusion.

“Who knows!”

Mu hanyan shook her head and said indifferently.

She was also quite puzzled about this.

As one of the ten divine generals of the divine martial Kingdom, she was quite familiar with the background of the divine martial Kingdom. If there was such a powerful formation, she would have heard of it long ago.

However, she had never heard of such a powerful array in the divine martial country.

“It seems that guy won’t die!”

The woman in the white dress said in disappointment.

She naturally did not want that mu guy to live. She always felt that even if he was a scapegoat, that guy did not have the right to do so. He would only tarnish her young lady’s reputation.

“It seems that His Majesty has planned it well, so he can not die ... This is good. At least he knows his own identity and will not overstep his boundaries. It is not a bad thing to marry him just like this and end the thoughts of Jade Dragon Mountain!”

Mu hanyan said.

“I didn’t know that His Majesty is so powerful. He can even compete with a sacred land like Mount Jade Dragon!”

The lady in the white dress looked towards the palace and exclaimed in admiration.

If Emperor shenwu was here, he would have vomited blood.

He was sitting at home, but the pot fell from the sky!

“Impossible! That’s impossible! How can there be such a formation?”

“How can such an unsolvable formation exist in this world?”

Inside the array, the group of ten people was still trying to find a way to break the array.

They didn’t look as confident as before. All of them were a little dispirited, with deep eye sockets and pale faces. They looked exhausted.

During this time, they also met the six Venerables who had entered earlier.

The first time they saw it, they were all shocked.

The six yang God powerhouses huddled together in a daze. Their wills were weak, as if they had been subjected to some inhuman torture.

At that time, they were all very curious and didn't know why.

But now, they somewhat understood.

This was because they had also begun to realize that this was an unsolvable formation. Their only fate was to be trapped here until their lifespans ran out.

“Give up. This array ... Is impossible to break!”

Another day passed, and some people began to give up. They sat down and leaned against the wall, staring blankly into space.

But there were also people who became more and more fanatical because of this.

The formation beneath their feet was definitely the most powerful bewildering formation they had ever seen. It was unparalleled!

This kind of array must have come from the hands of the ancient gods. If they could study something from it, it would benefit them for life, allowing them to go further on the great Dao of array.

Just like that, the days passed by.

The outside world was getting more and more lively.

It wasn't just the divine martial imperial capital; everyone in the East continent was discussing this matter.

Everyone knew that there was a heaven-defying formation in the carefree mansion that had trapped many array Masters from Mount Jade Dragon.

For a time, all parties were in an uproar.

Every day, countless people from all over the East continent would rush into the divine martial royal capital. Many of them were from the array Dao world.

“Master Xuanji is here!”

“Master Hong Tao is also here!”

“Look! It was Grandmaster Tian He! He’s here too! Isn’t he someone from Suzaku?”

On this day, many people poured into the imperial capital, and the formation was not small.

Following their arrival, the four corners of the imperial capital were in an uproar.

Everyone in the world recognized these people. They were all famous array Masters in the East continent, especially master Tianhe, who was the most familiar to them. He was known as the number one array master in the East continent and had profound array skills.

“Brother Tianhe, long time no see!”

“Hahaha! Brother Xuanji, we haven’t seen each other for many years. I didn’t expect to meet you here!”

These Masters came to the carefree mansion and met with each other.

After exchanging some pleasantries, they all looked up at the carefree mansion in front of them.

“The carefree mansion ... Hmph!”

Master Tianhe stroked his long beard and couldn't help but snort. He was a little annoyed.

The owner of this mansion, the little perverted Bandit surnamed mu, had stepped on him, a master of arrays, to get to his position. For this reason, he had been laughed at by the people of the divine martial Kingdom and the Vermillion Bird kingdom for a long time.

“This little pervert can actually advance to the Yang God Realm, there's no justice in this! Today, I'll help the people of Jade Dragon Mountain break this formation and send them on their way!”

He sneered in his heart.

The reason why he came here was not only to answer the call of the array Dao world, but also to study this array and to take revenge.

He had a deep hatred for that kid.

He would feel uncomfortable if he didn't get rid of this kid.

“This array in the mansion must have some history, please don't underestimate it!”

“Yup! I’m very familiar with those people from Mount Jade Dragon. They’re all quite skilled, but they’re all trapped inside. This is enough to show how powerful this formation is. ”

The group of Masters watched for a while, then retracted their gazes and began to discuss in low voices.

“Everyone, no matter how powerful this formation is, it can’t be heaven-defying! Today, the experts of our East continent’s array Dao world have gathered here, how could we not break it? I’m not bragging, but this formation will be broken in three days!”

Grandmaster Tian He slapped his chest and shouted.

“Brother Tianhe is right. There’s no array that we can’t break in this world!”

All the grandmasters laughed, all of them high-spirited and full of confidence.

“Follow me, let’s go!”

Grandmaster Tian He laughed as he led the way into the manor.

All the Masters laughed loudly and followed him in.

More than 30 people entered the mansion.

“With so many masters, we should be able to break it this time!”

“Definitely. There are so many masters!”

The crowd watched and discussed enthusiastically.

That group of Masters were all famous in the East continent. It could be said that everyone who was known in the East continent's array Dao world had already entered the array.

They were also the last hope of breaking the formation!

If even they couldn't break it, then there would be no justice!
