

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3436

“There’s a madman here to challenge pill Sea Mountain!”

“Crazy? Where did this lunatic come from?”

“I don’t know! No one knows where he came from, but he declared that he would challenge all the level 1 Alchemist grandmasters of pill Sea Mountain. What do you think he is if not a madman?”

“Challenge all the first-level mages? Si si si! He’s really a madman!”

Such conversations gradually played out in all parts of the East Province.

The world was in an uproar.

How many years had it been since anyone dared to challenge the pill Sea Mountain!

Moreover, this person had even declared that he would challenge all Level 1 alchemy grandmasters. He was truly crazy to the extreme!

“Hmph! He was just playing to the gallery! Let’s see where this wild pill master came from, he wants to use this method to make a name for himself!”

“I think so too!”

After the initial shock, everyone laughed and scoffed.

As long as it was an ordinary person, they would know that this was impossible. Even the most powerful alchemy master in the East continent couldn't defeat all the level 1 alchemy grandmasters in the pill Sea Mountain!

This was most likely a farce!

After a few sneers, very few people paid attention to him.

On the pill Sea Mountain.

The atmosphere was more lively than the East Province.

Everyone was waiting for the challenge to begin so that they could go and watch the show.

After all, this kind of thing didn't happen every year. If he missed it, he didn't know how many years he would have to wait.

"I wonder what kind of test those Masters will set?"

"I think that guy won't even win a single one. We'll have a good show to watch then."

Every day, people would look at the mountain and discuss it.

On the mountain, the atmosphere was also quite relaxed and happy. From the top to the bottom of the pill Sea Mountain, no one took this seriously.

In the blink of an eye, the three-day period had arrived.

On this day, in the early morning.

In the misty mist of the pill Sea Mountain, balls of divine light lit up one after another.

Each ball of divine light was dazzling, like the light of stars.

“It’s starting!”

Outside the mountain, everyone raised their heads to look, and they all became excited.

It was a pill lamp used for challenges!

According to the original rules, a maximum of seven lamps would be lit.

However, this time, the madman had declared that he would challenge all of the first level, so he would light 72 lamps.

“It’s all lit up!”

“Seventy-two lamps, this is unprecedented!”

Seeing the balls of divine light light light up, everyone was extremely excited.

Such a Grand occasion would probably only happen once.

“They’re here!”

A moment later, the crowd began to stir.

Everyone looked over and saw a white-robed figure walking over.

He didn’t seem to be in a hurry at all. He was calm and composed, as if he wasn’t going to challenge all the grandmasters of pill Sea Mountain, but rather to have fun.

“This guy!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

This guy didn’t even know that he was about to die!

He had caused such a big scene, so how could the people of the pill Sea Mountain let him go so easily? even if they didn’t kill him, they wouldn’t let him off easily. At the very least, they would suppress him for a few hundred or even a few thousand years.

The figure walked to the front of the mountain Gate amidst the laughter.

“Please enter!”

A man was already waiting in front of the door.

Tang Hao nodded and followed him into the mountains.

“The seventy-two balls of light are all pill lamps, and each of them represents a level 1 Alchemist. If you win, you can destroy the pill lamp in the alchemist’s hand. According to the rules, you have to destroy all the pill lamps to win.”

The man pointed to the divine light in front of them and introduced.

At the end of his sentence, he turned around and glanced at Tang Hao with a strange expression.

He could not understand this guy.

To challenge all the grandmasters of his pill Sea Mountain by himself, he must be a complete lunatic as the rumors said!

But looking at this person’s appearance, he didn’t look like a lunatic!

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded and pointed at the nearest light. “Let’s start from there!”

“That’s master Xu!”

The man who was leading the way looked over and introduced.

“Master Xu?”

Tang Hao was slightly surprised.

He was familiar with this name. He should be the green-robed alchemy Grandmaster that he had met in the alchemy Hall the other day.

“You actually came to my place first!”

At the peak of the mountain, in front of a Palace, master Xu, who was dressed in a green robe, sat cross-legged, looking at the sea of clouds in the distance. He saw two figures rapidly approaching.

He was a little stunned. He did not expect that his first stop would be here.

“Alright! Let me teach him a lesson and let him know the power of my pill Sea Mountain!”

The corners of his mouth twitched as he sneered.

Today’s challenge had started with him and would also end with him.

He would give this arrogant fellow an unforgettable lesson.

“Master Xu!”

A moment later, two figures arrived.

The man who led the way was the first to land. He greeted master Xu and then walked to the side to wait on Him.

“Come! Let’s start! Let me see how capable you are!”

Master Xu didn't get up. He arrogantly lifted his head and looked at Tang Hao.

Then, he raised his hand and pointed at the Lotus seat in front of him.

In the square in front of the hall, there were two Lotus seats, one on the left and one on the right.

The elixir lamp was hanging high in the sky, shining with bright divine light.

Tang Hao scanned his surroundings. He lowered his body and sat on the Lotus seat.

"That is ... Old man Xu's territory!"

"Hahaha! That guy actually challenged old man Xu!"

At this moment, countless gazes from the peaks of the mountains around the pill Sea Mountain were looking over.

Many people gloated at his misfortune.

This old man Xu's skill was above average among them, and he was a troublesome opponent. That guy could have picked anyone, but he had chosen him.

Originally, if he had picked someone of a lower standard, there would have been a little hope of passing the test. But now, he couldn't even pass a single test.

They laughed a few times and then looked away.

Meanwhile, outside the mountain, everyone was also observing.

“I have some impression of that mountain. Isn't it master Xu 's?”

“Right! It was master Xu! Hahaha! This guy actually picked master Xu, he's too unlucky!”

After seeing it clearly, everyone was stunned.

Then, they burst into laughter.

Who was master Xu?

That was the owner of the largest elixir dispensary on the elixir dispensary Street. He had extremely profound alchemy skills and was ranked among the top even among the grandmasters of the elixir Sea Mountain. Otherwise, how could he have made the elixir dispensary the largest?

If he were to challenge master Xu, that fellow would definitely fail the first round.

“Hey! What's there to see? it'll probably end soon!”

“Yup! If he falls into master Xu's hands, will he still be able to survive?”

Everyone laughed.

At this time, they all somewhat sympathized with that madman.

On elixir peak.

Master Xu flicked his sleeve, and a series of scrolls flew out.

“These are the questions I’ve prepared. Pick one. As long as you can complete it, it’ll be your win. How about it?”

He pointed at the Five Scrolls in front of him and said.

“No need! Hand them all over!”

Tang Hao smiled. He reached out and grabbed the Five Scrolls.
