

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3441

“Pill elders, what’s wrong?”

Tang Hao said with a smile as he looked at the pill elders.

“Cough! It’s ... Nothing!” Elder Yan dan coughed dryly, his old face turning even redder.

“The last light went out, so I won, right?”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Yes! We’ve lost, we’re convinced!”

Old crone Yan dan nodded.

“Your Excellency, now that you’ve won, you don’t have to hide your identity anymore, right? You have to make us understand why we lost!”

“Yup!”

The other pill elders said.

As they spoke, they kept sizing up this person.

If this person was really at the three-star sun god Realm, it meant that he was not very old. He was at least one generation younger than them.

Losing to a junior was too embarrassing.

“Pill elders, there’s no need for this!”

Tang Hao shook his head and refused.

He was too lazy to make up his identity.

“Then you must be from outside the East Province, right?”

Elder Yan dan said.

“It can be considered so!”

Tang Hao nodded.

He was from the immortal world, so he was naturally outside the East continent.

As expected!

The group of pill elders all nodded.

In the East continent, there was no such person. Only those big forces outside the East continent that could shake the divinity could have such a young Supreme Alchemist!

“I wonder which force sent him. He’s only at the three-star sun god Realm, but he already has the strength of a Supreme Alchemist. It’s too frightening!”

“I haven’t heard of it either. It’s probably just released and hasn’t spread yet. Aren’t they here to travel around the continents and make a name for themselves? our pill Sea Mountain is their first stop.”

They discussed in low voices.

“Pill elders, I’ve won, so it’s time to talk about the conditions we agreed on!”

Tang Hao said.

“This ...”

Pill elder Yan was stunned, and his face instantly turned the color of pig liver.

The other pill elders all turned to look at him.

“What’s wrong?”

Tang Hao was surprised. “Don’t tell me the Grand dan Haishan is going to go back on his word?”

“This ... Of course not!”

Elder Yan dan hurriedly said.

“No, no, no! We won’t go back on our word!”

The other pill elders also waved their hands in a panic.

What a joke!

How could they go back on their word!

There were so many people outside now and the entire East continent probably knew about it. If they went back on their word, then what credibility would his pill Sea Mountain have?

They would never do such a shameful thing.

“What’s the matter then?”

Tang Hao said.

These people probably didn’t know what he wanted!

“You also know that a force like my pill Sea Mountain is very special, different from those Holy Lands and sects. It’s not something that can be easily given to you. It’s very troublesome to do it.”

Elder Yan dan laughed bitterly.

“For me?”

Tang Hao was shocked when he heard that.

What was he saying?

Give him the pill Sea Mountain?

What did he want the pill Sea Mountain for?

After some thought, he remembered that when they were discussing the conditions, this person had made a big promise.

“No need! I don’t need it either!”

Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled. “I told you, I only want one treasure!”

“I see!”

“That’s great!”

The group of pill elders all heaved a sigh of relief.

“What treasure?”

Elder Yan dan hurriedly said.

“That one!”

Tang Hao pointed at a Short Mountain not far away.

“You want ... That ruined cauldron?”

Elder Yan dan looked over and was stunned for a moment. “But this cauldron is useless. It can only produce some spiritual essence.”

“Who said it’s useless!”

Tang Hao smiled.

“Isn’t it? We’ve all tried, but there’s no reaction at all. In the past thousands of years, countless people have tried, many of them were alchemists from outside the East continent.” Elder Yan dan said.

“I’ll know if it’s useless after I try!”

As Tang Hao spoke, he moved toward the mountain.

“Let’s go and take a look!”

The group of pill elders followed.

“Just let him take it, we already have a lot of myriad elixir essences anyway!”

“He won, so we have to let him take it!”

Along the way, they discussed in low voices.

Tang Hao took a deep breath when he reached the foot of the mountain, then stepped forward.

He stretched out his hand and pressed it on the mountain wall.

“The Shennong cauldron ...”

He was a little excited when he sensed the aura coming from the mountain.

Weng Weng Weng!

In the mountains, the Shennong cauldron began to tremble.

The ground rumbled and shook.

“This ... How is this possible?”

The five pill elders “eyes widened in shock.

They could not believe their eyes.

The cauldron that had not moved for thousands of years was actually moving at this moment!

“Who is he?”

They looked at Tang Hao again, and their expressions were even more shocked.

To be able to awaken this ancient divine cauldron as soon as he appeared, either this person had an extremely heaven-defying aptitude to be able to conquer this cauldron, or this person had a connection with this cauldron. No matter which possibility it was, they were both extremely shocking.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

Soon, the mountain began to explode, and brilliant divine light bloomed out from within.

“What’s that?”

“It’s the abandoned cauldron ... What happened?”

The entire pill Sea Mountain was shocked.

The group of alchemists all flew in that direction.

Before he even got close, he heard a boom. In the next moment, a huge green divine light shot into the sky from that direction, straight into the clouds.

At the same time, a shocking aura of plants and vegetation filled the air.

“My cauldron ... Why is it moving?!”

“My furnace too!”

Then, they felt the pill cauldrons and pill cauldrons in their rings start to vibrate. Many of them even let out a soft hum.

It was as if ... It was responding to the green divine light that had appeared.

“My cauldron!”

At this moment, a pill elder in front of the divine light suddenly called out. A light flashed in front of him, and a pill furnace flew out.

This was his pill furnace, but it didn’t respond to his summons. It had appeared on its own.

Then, the pill furnace buzzed and trembled, and a weapon spirit appeared on it. It knelt down toward the green divine light.

“This is ...”

The pupils of the group of pill elders shrank as they watched the scene unfold.

This was submission!

What kind of cauldron was that?

As soon as it appeared, it could make all the square furnaces appear and show their allegiance!

This was too shocking!

They had never heard of any pill cauldron in the world that could produce such a phenomenon!

“This cauldron’s origin must be heaven-defying!”

A pill elder cried out as he stared at the Azure light.

His eyes were wide open, and there was a hint of fanaticism in them.

A cauldron that could make 10000 cauldrons submit must be the ancestor of all cauldrons. It might not even be an exaggeration to say that it was the number one cauldron in the world.

“No wonder. I’ve tried a few times, but there’s no reaction at all. He doesn’t like me.”

Some of the pill elders laughed wryly in their hearts.

It wasn’t that the pill cauldron was useless, but that it simply looked down on his aptitude.

“Come!”

Tang Hao suppressed his excitement and beckoned at the ancient green Cauldron in the divine light.

The human race’s Supreme treasure was the faith of countless alchemists. How could it remain in slumber in the firmament? he had to bring it back, back to the human race!
