

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3442

In the pill Sea Mountain, a beam of green divine light stood tall, connecting the sky and the earth.

The bright light illuminated the entire world.

From all four directions, one cauldron after another flew out, buzzing and trembling.

“What’s going on?”

“What is that thing?”

Outside the mountain, it was also a chaotic situation.

More than half of these people were alchemists, and they had their own pill furnaces and pill cauldrons. At this moment, these pill furnaces all ran out by themselves and rushed into the sky.

” 10000 cauldrons surrendering ... This is the birth of a Supreme alchemy treasure!”

“A pill Dao treasure? Where did such a thing come from in the pill Sea Mountain? could it be related to that mysterious Alchemist?”

They looked at the mountain with their eyes wide open and their expressions aghast.

The 10,000 cauldrons submitted!

If they had not seen it with their own eyes, they would not have believed such a shocking phenomenon.

This was because none of the alchemy books had recorded such a miracle.

However, there were other treasures that had such a miracle, such as swords and halberds. However, these only existed in legends and they had never seen it with their own eyes.

“Hey! Needless to say, it’s definitely because of that person. Otherwise, why hasn’t such a phenomenon appeared in the pill Sea Mountain before?”

“That’s right!”

The world was certain that this phenomenon was the work of that mysterious Alchemist.

They were getting more and more excited.

First, he had single-handedly overturned all the grandmasters of the pill Sea Mountain, and then caused the phenomenon of tens of thousands of cauldrons submitting to him. This person must have a shocking background and was a Supreme existence in the world of alchemy.

After a while, the divine light finally faded.

A small green Cauldron flew over and landed in Tang Hao’s palm.

The five pill elders “eyes were all focused on the cauldron, burning with desire.

However, they were only envious and did not dare to have any thoughts of snatching it.

Firstly, according to the rules, this person had defeated their pill Sea Mountain, so he had the right to take this treasure. Secondly, this person's background was definitely heaven-defying. Even if they had the strength to snatch the pill cauldron, they definitely wouldn't dare to do so.

If he really angered this person, he might bring a disaster to his pill Sea Mountain.

"Congratulations!"

Elder Yan dan was the first to offer his congratulations.

The other four followed suit and bowed as well.

Tang Hao put away the cauldron and returned the greeting.

Then, he turned around and was about to leave.

The purpose of his visit was to obtain the Shennong cauldron. Since he had obtained it, it was time for him to leave.

"Al! Wait a minute!"

Elder Yan dan hurriedly called out.

"What's wrong?"

Tang Hao stopped in his tracks and looked at him.

“It’s like this. Didn’t I say before that if you won, I would give you the pill Sea Mountain? although it was just a joke, you can’t take it seriously. How about this, we give you the position of great pill elder. Of course, you don’t have to really stay here, just a false name. ”

Elder Yan dan laughed.

The other four people were stunned when they heard this. Then, realization dawned on them.

They almost wanted to slap their thighs and exclaim in their hearts that he was amazing.

This move of old man Yan was really brilliant!

By giving him a position, he would be able to tie his reputation to his pill Sea Mountain.

After this incident, not only would he not lose face, but his prestige would also rise and he would be the number one alchemy force in the East continent.

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow when he heard that.

He saw through elder Yan Dan’s intentions with a single glance.

He didn’t refuse, but asked, “”What are the benefits of being the Grand pill elder of your pill Sea Mountain?”

“There are! Of course I do, you definitely won’t reject it!”

Elder Yan dan stroked his beard, a look of confidence on his face."We can give you ten stalks of yang grade divine medicine. In addition, we can add an ancestral divine medicine!"

"Ten?"

Tang Hao's expression changed.

He had spent so much time and searched many dangerous places, but he had only found five.

Elder Yan Dan's first offer of ten herbs had truly shocked him.

His eyes focused slightly and became a little hot.

Ten divine herbs were enough for him to concoct ten yang spirit pills. His cultivation would increase greatly again. Although it was not enough to break through to the four-star realm, it was close.

"Primogenitor divine medicine?"

When he heard this name, his expression changed again, revealing an eager look.

The primogenitor divine medicine was a type of plant that was unique to the God World.

It was said that among the ancestors of the Shen clan, there was one who was the best at growing plants. He had spent countless efforts to study all kinds of rare plants and then used Supreme divine arts to fuse these plants and transform them, creating several new types of plants.

These few plants were also called the primogenitor divine medicine by the people of the future.

Every single one of them was a rare treasure in the divine realm.

Seeing him like this, Yan Dan Elder laughed, secretly pleased with himself.

He had even taken out a divine item like the primogenitor divine medicine, so he was not worried that this person would not agree.

There were only a few of such divine items in the entire East continent. His pill Sea Mountain only had two of them.

“How is it? are you satisfied? If you want anything else, feel free to ask. As long as my pill Sea Mountain has it, we can consider it.” Elder Yan dan laughed.

“Pill elder, you’re so generous. How could I not be satisfied?”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head. “That’s all then. Oh! Oh right, it’d be best if you could get ten portions of the ingredients for the Yang God great pill.”

“Good! No problem! Then please come to my pill Sea Mountain Great Hall to have a seat. The treasures will be sent over very soon.” Elder Yan dan said.

As he said that, he turned to the side and made a gesture of invitation.

Then, the group of people flew towards the main peak in the center and sat down in the main hall.

Tang Hao chatted with them for a while.

During this time, the five pill elders kept trying to find out his identity.

His response was watertight.

“This person is really mysterious!”

“Yup! After asking for half a day, I still can’t get anything out of him.”

The pill elders looked at each other and smiled wryly.

Seeing that they couldn’t find out anything, they didn’t continue. If they made this person unhappy, it wouldn’t be worth it.

Besides, no matter what his identity was, it wasn’t important at the moment. As long as the people of the East continent knew that his pill Sea Mountain had invited a pill Dao Supreme to be the Grand pill elder, that would be enough.

“Pill elder! Senior!”

A moment later, a figure entered the hall with a Jade plate in his hand.

There was a storage bag, a golden box, and a Jade token on the plate.

“This is your identity token. From now on, you are the one and only great pill elder of our pill Sea Mountain. Your status is above the five of us. This is the material for ten portions of yang spirit great pill. Ten yang grade divine herbs have already been placed inside.”

Elder Yan picked up the items one by one and presented them to him.

Tang Hao took the Jade tablet and examined it.

Then, he took the storage bag and opened it. After taking a look, he nodded in satisfaction.

Ten sun god pills were in his hands just like that.

This was not a small gain.

“Finally, this is the primogenitor’s divine medicine! This medicine is called undying. Have you heard of it before, Grand pill elder?”

Elder Yan picked up the golden box and slowly opened it.
