

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3443

The lid of the box opened, and a golden divine light burst out.

In an instant, the entire Hall was filled with this golden light.

Tang Hao narrowed his eyes.

Even with his cultivation level, he felt a slight tingling sensation when the divine light shone on him.

“What an intense divine light!”

He exclaimed in surprise.

He looked carefully and finally saw what was in the box.

Inside was a shrunken Divine Tree about two feet tall. It was golden in color, and it didn't look like wood, but like colored glass. It was flowing with a divine light that was dazzling.

Around the divine Tree, there were still hazy phenomena.

It was a Phoenix with a long tail. It flew around the divine Tree, and its whole body bloomed with nine-colored light. It was like a dream.

“This is the wood spirit!”

Elder Yan pointed at the Phoenix and explained, "every single one of these primogenitor divine herbs has the power to steal away the Fortune of the heavens and earth. They are Supreme divine items, and from the moment they were born, they already have a consciousness."

Tang Hao nodded. He had heard about that before.

"It's called the undying tree. I heard that even a small piece of wood could bring a dead person back to life. No matter how badly hurt you are, a branch can heal you quickly, even if you have a God Body. "

"This is still an infant. If it's a mature one or a fully-grown one, after devouring it, it's said that one can truly be immortal."

Elder Yan dan continued.

"It is said? Haven't you tried it?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

"Hey! How could he bear to! Even the slightest bump on this godly medicine would make my heart ache to death. " Elder Yan dan laughed bitterly.

"That's true!"

Tang Hao smiled.

This was just a seedling, and he would not be willing to part with it either.

“Good treasure!”

After carefully examining it, he exclaimed in admiration and was somewhat happy.

This was a Supreme divine item. It was too difficult to nurture it to the great success stage. Therefore, he did not wish for it to be truly immortal. What he wanted was its healing effect.

When he was at the eighth tribulation of the sage realm, he could be reborn at will. He could do it now too. He could be reborn even faster, but it would consume more energy.

Each rebirth of the celestial King realm required a huge amount of energy.

With his current cultivation level, he would be extremely weak after being reborn dozens of times and would need a long time to recover.

However, with this treasure, he didn't have to worry about this problem at all.

To him, this was a life-saving treasure.

“I'll take it, thank you!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands in thanks after he carefully kept the divine herb.

“Al! What are you thanking me for? this is what you deserve. Don't forget that you're now the great pill elder of my pill Sea Mountain. ” Elder Yan dan laughed.

A seedling of the primogenitor divine medicine in exchange for the prestige of being the Supreme Alchemist. To his pill Sea Mountain, this was a very good deal.

“Yup! You deserve it!”

The other four pill elders also laughed.

They were all excited. They could imagine how shocked the East continent would be when the news spread, especially the alchemy forces. They would be dumbfounded.

“Great pill elder, if you don’t have any urgent matters to attend to, you can stay a few more days at my pill Sea Mountain!”

Elder Yan dan said.

If this person left now, it would weaken the effect, but if he stayed for a few days before leaving, the world would be convinced.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded.

He had ten yang God pills to refine, so he might as well wait until he was done.

“That’s great!”

Elder Yan dan laughed joyfully, “I’ll bring you to stay!”

He quickly led Tang Hao out of the room.

“Men, come! Quickly, spread this news!”

After they had left, the remaining four pill elders called for a few people and asked them to quickly spread the news.

“What? That mysterious Alchemist has become the Grand pill elder of pill Sea Mountain?”

“Is the pill Sea Mountain for real? are you really giving him the entire pill Sea Mountain?”

Soon, the news spread among the crowd outside the mountain, causing a huge sensation.

No one had expected such an outcome!

The mysterious Paragon of the Dao of alchemy had suddenly become the Grand pill elder of the pill Sea Mountain!

“The way I see it, it’s just in name. With his status, would he even care about the pill Sea Mountain! Why would I really stay here?”

“Yup! He’s the Supreme Master of the alchemy Dao, one of the top figures in the entire divine world. How could he possibly be interested in a place like the East Province?”

Many people thought about it and saw the trick, so they mocked him.

“Woof! So what if it’s just a nominal title? which other power in the East continent can let a Supreme Alchemist be a nominal Alchemist? with this title alone, the pill Sea Mountain will be the number one in the East continent. ”

“That’s right. With this name hanging here, who can shake the position of pill Sea Mountain!”

Immediately, someone retorted with a sneer.

In their eyes, dan Haishan’s move was extremely brilliant.

Originally, after this challenge, dan Haishan’s reputation would take a dive, and it would be very difficult for him to raise his head in the alchemy world. But now, not only would his reputation not fall, but it would also soar.

“He’s the Supreme Alchemist, and the Grand Elder of pill Sea Mountain ... I have to meet him. If I can build a good relationship with him, it’ll be of great benefit to Jade Dragon Mountain!”

Outside the mountain, a silver-robed figure stood in a crack in the void.

He had a tall and muscular body, and his long black and white hair fluttered in the air.

It was the great Senior Spirit Dragon!

He was the one who had entered the divine martial country and confronted Emperor shenwu.

He had also rushed over after hearing the news.

An alchemy Supreme who could dominate the pill Sea Mountain was worthy of him coming over personally to make friends with.

“First, he overturned all the grandmasters of pill Sea Mountain, and now he’s become the great pill elder. This person is really amazing!”

On the other side, a woman in a black dress stood still.

The cold wind from the high altitude blew, fluttering her thin chiffon dress, revealing her curves inside. She was curvaceous and alluring.

A veil was also gently brushed, revealing a small part of her soul-stirring face.

“We must go and meet him. If we can befriend him, it will be a good thing for our Tian kui Palace!” Her red lips opened slightly and let out a soft and charming voice.

Then, she waved her hand and a ray of divine light flew towards the gate of the pill Sea Mountain.

Almost at the same time, several figures and divine lights swept over and gathered in front of the mountain Gate.

They all had the same goal: to visit the mysterious alchemy master.

Soon, the news of their visit reached Tang Hao.

“Great pill elder, do you want to meet him?”

Elder Yan dan, who was leading him around the palace, said in a low voice.

“Great Senior Spirit Dragon from Mount Jade Dragon? There’s even the heavenly sunflower Palace’s Holy maiden?”

Tang Hao listened carefully to the names. There were names from the great Holy Lands and some divine kingdoms. Every name was like Thunder in the East continent.

“See! Of course I want to see him!”

After a moment’s thought, he smiled, and a playful look appeared at the corner of his mouth. “Tell them that I’ll meet them and give them some insights on alchemy. However, they can’t come empty-handed, do you understand?”

As he spoke, he looked at elder Yan dan with a meaningful look.
