

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3449

“What’s wrong? I can’t come?”

Mu hanyan’s pretty face was ice cold. When her eyes swept over fairy Lotus Moon, they suddenly sank and a cold light exploded.

Now, when the people of the divine martial Kingdom talked about her, they were no longer as reverent as before. They were all ridiculing her. Naturally, they were talking about the matter between this Lotus Moon Fairy and her fiancé.

In the entire divine martial country, who didn’t know about this?

Fairy lianyue looked over and smiled awkwardly. She quickly turned around and entered the pavilion.

“Also not!” Tang Hao said.

“Follow me!”

Mu hanyan shouted coldly. She strode forward, grabbed his wrist, and rushed into the sky.

“A! This is bad!”

“Yup! Who is general mu? he’s the number one genius of our divine martial Kingdom. Even if brother mu has reached the sun god Realm, he’s no match for him!”

A group of nouveau riches looked on with sympathy.

“Where are we going?”

Tang Hao did not struggle when mu hanyan grabbed his wrist. He allowed mu hanyan to drag him away.

After all, she was his fiancée in name, so he still had to give her some face.

However, after flying for a while, he realized that something was wrong.

This was not the way to Xiaoyao mansion, nor was it the way to her Flying Phoenix mansion.

“You’ll know soon!”

She shouted coldly.

A moment later, she descended to the place where Tang Hao had signed up for the Army.

“Two generals!”

Seeing the two of them land, the soldiers in the camp all bowed.

Mu hanyan nodded slightly, then let go of Tang Hao’s hand.

She glared at him coldly and strode towards a tent in front of her.

Tang Hao grinned. She was even colder than his ice-cold eldest Senior Sister.

However, from this angle, her graceful back view was quite pleasing to the eye.

Her figure was already perfect, and with the fire Phoenix battle armor wrapped around her, her buttocks appeared even more rounded. Her waist was like a water snake, and below it was a pair of slender, white, Jade-like legs. When she walked, it was simply deadly.

After looking at it for a while, the Jade-like person in front of her suddenly stopped.

She suddenly turned around and glared at him with her Phoenix eyes wide open.

There was a hint of embarrassment in his eyes.

Just now, she had been able to sense the gaze that followed behind her.

It wasn't like she hadn't experienced this kind of gaze before. She knew her own charm. As long as she went out, nine out of ten men would look at her like this. She was used to it.

However, when it came to this guy, she was a little unhappy and felt uncomfortable all over.

“What are you looking at!”

She angrily rebuked.

“What's wrong with me looking? I didn't touch it!” Tang Hao said.

“You ...”

She glared at him and was instantly furious.

Her bright and beautiful face was also flushed red with anger.

“You still want to touch it!”

She gritted her teeth and sneered.

She took a deep breath, her full chest rising and falling.

“I’m just thinking about it!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Hmph! Shameless! Since that’s what you think, you can go and touch your Senior Sister when we get back!” “Shut up!” She shouted angrily and glared at him. Then, she turned around and continued walking.

Scumbag!

She didn’t feel relieved and cursed in her heart.

He went to the Jade Lake Pavilion every day to fool around with that demoness of the sunflower Palace, and even kept a beautiful Senior Sister in his own residence. What kind of person was this?

“Come in!”

She walked to the front of a tent and entered.

There was a teleportation array inside.

After the teleportation, Tang Hao arrived at the divine martial Kingdom.

“Do you see that? That’s the city of my Flying Phoenix Army!”

Mu hanyan took the lead and flew towards a majestic city in the distance.

There were ten divine generals in the divine martial Kingdom, each leading an Army and each of them had their own city.

“You still haven’t told me why you asked me to come.”

Tang Hao followed him.

“Let’s go snatch the treasure!”

Mu hanyan said.

“Treasure?”

Tang Hao’s eyes brightened.

“I’ve just received news that a high-grade gold-iron vein has been discovered in the hundred territories. His Majesty has ordered me to seize it.” Mu hanyan said.

“Then why did you call me?”

“Didn’t we agree that if I need your array Dao, you must help?”

“I did say that, but where would I need to use array Dao?”

“The Vermillion Bird country should know about this and will send people to steal it. When the time comes, you might be of use. Don’t worry, I’ll protect you and won’t let you die!”

As she spoke, she turned around and looked at him with a teasing look in her eyes.

Although this guy had advanced to the Yang spirit realm, his Foundation must be unstable because he had advanced too quickly. In addition, he came from a poor background, so he must not have many magical powers. He was just an embroidered pillow!

He looked like a yang God expert, but he was actually useless.

If he had to face the sun god from the country of Suzaku or other forces, this guy’s life would be in danger.

“Good! Then you have to protect it well! It’s best to be a personal bodyguard!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Close? Shameless!”

She glared at him again, snorted, and turned her head away.

Soon, the two of them landed in the city.

He saw a large number of people from the flying Phoenix Army. They were all women, and they were all dressed in armor. They looked valiant and heroic. However, their armor was much more normal, and they were basically all covered in armor.

The women were slightly surprised to see him.

But very quickly, his expression returned to normal, somewhat indifferent.

Of course, they knew this person, and they also knew the true relationship between him and their general.

Many of the women's eyes were filled with disdain and contempt.

"There's no time to waste, let's go!"

When they arrived at the main city, mu hanyan immediately activated the God city, tore open the void, and shuttled through it.

At this moment, somewhere in the hundred territories.

Near an abyss, a majestic city was hidden in the void.

A few figures stood on the city wall and looked into the distance through the cracks in the void.

“It’s about time!”

A man in green armor said.

“Don’t panic, general. The sky Wolf emissary has already sent word that Emperor shenwu has handed the task to divine general feifeng. I’m sure she’ll be here soon.” A black-robed man beside him said.

“That’s good!”

The general in green armor nodded.

“I say, your Mount Jade Dragon is such a big Holy Land, why do you still use such methods? It’s just a small divine martial Kingdom, why can’t we just push it over?”

On the other side, a man said.

He was dressed in a silver robe and had a refined and handsome face. He had the aura of a scholar.

Judging from his aura, he was a mid-stage yang God.

“That’s right. Why did you ask us to come here? I really don’t understand what you people from Jade Dragon Mountain are thinking!”

Another person spoke. It was a tall and thin man with a sinister face and an evil aura.

His cultivation was slightly weaker, only at the three-star realm.

“That’s right. I can’t figure it out either. If your Mount Jade Dragon wants to deal with the divine martial Kingdom, why do you need to use my Vermillion Bird kingdom?” The general in green armor was also confused.

Among the eight people here, he was the divine general of Suzaku and the black-robed Messenger from Mount Jade Dragon. The other six were famous evil cultivators from the East continent who were also recruited by Mount Jade Dragon.

This made him very puzzled.

The magnificent Jade Dragon Mountain, a great Holy Land that dominated the East continent, actually needed to rely on others to deal with a small divine martial Kingdom?

This sounded ridiculous!
