

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3451

In the abyss, Flying Phoenix City descended slowly.

Suddenly, the void around them changed and they arrived at another void.

“A formation?”

In the sky above the divine city, mu hanyan’s expression changed.

“Hahaha! General mu, long time no see!”

With a rough laugh, a Black God city appeared in the void in front of them. A general in green armor stood on the city wall.

“So it’s your country of Suzaku behind this!”

Mu hanyan looked over and sneered, her expression disdainful.

This guy was her old rival, a veteran divine general of Suzaku. However, in terms of strength, he was about the same as her. Even if they had set up a formation in advance, they could not stop the flying Phoenix Army.

“General mu, you’re still so confident! Unfortunately, I’m afraid you won’t be able to leave today!”

The Azure-armored warrior laughed loudly.

“Oh, really? That’s not for sure!”

Mu Hanyan laughed coldly.

She raised her hand and divine light surged out from all directions of Flying Phoenix City. It turned into layers of red light curtains that enveloped the city.

“You can be stubborn now, but let’s see if you can still laugh later!”

The Azure-armored warrior snickered.

He then turned around and shouted, “Fire!”

In the next moment, countless beams of divine light shot out from the black divine city.

They were arrows.

The spirit God and heavenly God-level soldiers unleashed their full power.

Peng Peng Peng!

The arrows exploded on the light barrier like fireworks.

“It’s pretty good!”

In Flying Phoenix City, Tang Hao had already sat up.

He admired it for a while, then turned his head and looked to the left.

There, he sensed a faint aura.

There were still people here!

And there was more than one.

It should be the other divine generals of Suzaku. If they didn't attack now, they must be waiting for a sneak attack to break through the defense of Flying Phoenix City.

"It seems that they are indeed here for her!"

Tang Hao raised his head and looked at the graceful figure in the sky.

To the Vermillion Bird country, she did not have as much hatred as this person. This person was known as the number one genius of the divine martial country and had the potential to surpass the divine Martial Emperor's realm.

She was the biggest threat to the country of Suzaku.

"Just in time. I'm still short of a few more heads before I can advance to six-star. They just happened to deliver themselves to my door!"

Tang Hao's eyes flashed with killing intent.

He stood up, and with a flash, he disappeared from the spot.

The next moment, he had already left the city silently.

The formation of the flying Phoenix City was as good as non-existent to him.

“There!”

He locked onto a person’s position and flew over.

In the void crack, a man was watching the battle outside.

He was tall and thin with a sinister face. There was a red divine crystal embedded in his glabella.

“This group of divine martial Kingdom’s girls are quite interesting. I’ll capture a few of them later ...”

He looked around the flying Phoenix City excitedly.

“I’m afraid ... You won’t have the chance!”

At this moment, he heard a cold shout.

“Who is it?”

He was stunned and in disbelief.

There's still someone here?

And he was discovered?

Just as he was in a daze, a black shadow flashed in front of him. A white-robed figure entered the gap in the void and stood there, looking at him coldly.

"Aren't you that ..."

The malicious-looking man took a closer look and immediately exclaimed.

Isn't this the little pervert surnamed mu! He had seen the portrait!

"Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me!"

Then, he was overjoyed.

This guy had killed someone from Jade Dragon Mountain. If they captured him and handed him over to Jade Dragon Mountain, they would definitely get a shocking reward.

"You're really a talent, kid. You actually came to die!"

He laughed out loud and flicked his sleeve, summoning a small world that he carried with him.

When he saw the figure being swallowed, he was overjoyed.

As long as he entered the portable small world, this kid would be a turtle in a jar.

How could a one-star sun god who had been drugged in a short time be a match for a three-star sun god who had been through hundreds of battles?

“Little brat, obediently accept your death!”

In the next moment, he also entered his small world and smugly shouted.

However, the next moment, he was dumbfounded.

As soon as he stepped into this small world, a black shadow flashed in front of him. A cold and indifferent face appeared in front of him.

That pair of eyes was so cold that it seeped into his bones. With just one look, he felt his entire body turn cold, as if he had fallen into an ice cellar.

It was wrong!

He was greatly shocked.

That perverted little bastard couldn't have such a terrifying gaze.

Before he could react, the other party's hand slapped him on the cheek.

Bang!

Half of his face instantly exploded, blood and flesh splattering everywhere.

At the same time, his entire face contorted and caved in. His entire body was like a top, spinning madly as he flew out.

He was stunned again, and his mind went blank.

When he stopped, he covered the half of his bloody face, his face full of horror, and his body trembled violently.

F * ck!

This wasn't some 1-star sun god perverted Bandit. This was clearly an expert close to the late stage!

"Who ... Who are you?"

As he retreated, he shouted in a trembling voice.

"He's not from Suzaku!"

Tang Hao ignored him. He furrowed his brows in surprise.

The man in front of him was filled with evil energy and did not look like a divine general of Suzaku.

"Let's capture him first, and we'll know after searching his soul!"

He snorted lightly and his figure shot forward.

He released his aura and suppressed the void in all directions. Then, he struck out with his palm.

Peng Peng Peng!

Without any mercy, he slapped the malicious-looking man's palm and chest a dozen times, causing them to explode inch by inch. When he was almost done, he reached out and pressed his palm on the man's head.

"I see!"

After searching his soul, he knew the reason.

"This Jade Dragon Mountain actually thinks that the divine martial Kingdom has the support of a Holy Land!"

He sneered.

He really did not expect that putting the blame on Emperor shenwu would trigger such a guess from Jade Dragon Mountain.

"Alright!"

Such a misunderstanding was also beneficial to him.

“He just became a three-star, but he’s still much weaker than the three-star sun god from Jade Dragon Mountain.” He then checked this guy’s cultivation.

He had just entered the three-star level, and his divine crystal was only first-grade. It was nothing in front of a five-star sun god like him, who had a perfect divine crystal.

He took out the divine crystal, put away his body, and suppressed it.

“Five left!”

He tore open the void and returned to the spatial Rift.

Through the soul search just now, he found out that there were five more yang gods in ambush. Only one of them was powerful. He was a four-star realm yang God named lingkong he, the most famous pervert in the East continent.

Apart from this person, the others were all initial stage and weren’t a threat.

“Four-star realm? It can help me reach six-star!”

He looked into the distance, and a cold glint appeared in his eyes.

In the next moment, his figure moved and he quickly swept over.