

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3459

“His Majesty has arrived at Xuanji!”

A long shout came from the inner hall.

In an instant, everyone stood up and bowed to the head of the hall.

“Your Majesty!”

Then, they called out in unison.

“No need to be so polite!”

Emperor shenwu strode over and sat on the Dragon Throne with the purple-robed man following behind him.

“Everyone, there’s no need to be so formal today. Let’s drink to our heart’s content and celebrate the birth of another sun god venerable in our divine martial Kingdom. Moreover, it’s a young venerable! This is worthy of congratulations!” Emperor shenwu raised his wine glass and shouted.

“This is the Fortune of our divine martial Kingdom!”

“It’s Your Majesty’s good governance. Your Majesty is wise!”

Below, many people shouted and started to flatter him.

“Hahaha!”

Emperor shenwu burst into laughter again.

Although he knew it was flattery, it still worked.

“Come, let’s toast!”

He raised his head and drank the wine in his cup.

Everyone in the hall raised their cups as well.

“Sect Master Wang, your purple Qilin mountain has really gained face this time. Two Venerables in one sect, this number one sacred land’s position can’t be shaken!” Emperor shenwu put down his wine glass and looked to his left.

On the left side of the front of the hall was the purple Qilin mountain, which was the most conspicuous.

“Hahaha! It’s all thanks to his Majesty’s great blessings!”

The sect leader of the purple Qilin mountain said with a smile.

Not far away, the other sacred land lords were all stunned.

In the past, although the purple Qilin mountain was strong, they still had a chance to surpass it. Now that there was a sun god supremacy, it would be very difficult for them to make a comeback.

And the more powerful the violet Qilin mountain became, the more resources that belonged to them would be divided, and their strength would gradually weaken.

Emperor shenwu smiled and shifted his gaze to the young man beside him.

“You’re the star of tonight’s show. You can tell me what you want. As long as it’s not too much, I’ll satisfy you.” Emperor shenwu said with a smile.

Sect Master Wang was overjoyed. “Yuan ‘er, quickly thank His Majesty.”

“Your Majesty ...”

Then, he looked at Emperor shenwu and was about to ask for some benefits for the purple Qilin mountain.

“Your Majesty, I do have a request,” Zhou Yuan said.

“Speak!”

Emperor shenwu said with a smile.

“I wish for Your Majesty to issue a divine decree to nullify general feifeng’s engagement. Then, I wish to have a battle with general mu. I wish to witness general MU’s abilities. I hope your Majesty will allow it!”

Zhou Yuan bowed and shouted.

Emperor shenwu’s face froze.

Sect Master Wang was also stunned.

Then, his face twitched, feeling resentful that he had failed to live up to his expectations.

At this time, the sect's interests should be the most important. How could he give up the sect's interests for the sake of love?

"A good show is coming!"

The rest of the people in the hall were happy.

This Qilin son was the main character of the night and the future pillar of the divine martial Kingdom. Even Emperor shenwu would have to consider his offer the moment he spoke.

Whether he agreed or not, it would be a good show.

"This ..."

Emperor shenwu frowned and looked hesitant.

General feifeng's engagement was personally given by him, so how could it be changed so easily?

Furthermore, this matter was not over yet. Jade Dragon Mountain still had other plans, and that mu brat was still the best shield.

“Your Majesty, you’ve chosen general feifeng as your fiancée to block Jade Dragon Mountain for her. But you’ve chosen the wrong person. With all due respect, that general mu is extremely shameless and despicable. How can such a person be general feifeng’s fiancé?”

“Your Majesty, didn’t you hear that after you bestowed the marriage, that general mu still loiters around the Jade pool pavilion, fooling around there every day? Moreover, he made it so that everyone in the imperial capital knows about it. Such a shameless person will only bring shame to His Majesty and general feifeng’s reputation!”

Zhou Yuan walked out from behind the table and stood in the middle of the hall as he shouted.

He had a stern and righteous appearance.

As he spoke, he turned around and glared at Tang Hao.

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a burst of noise in the hall.

“That makes sense!”

“That mu guy is indeed shameless!”

Many people agreed.

Emperor shenwu’s face darkened when he heard that.

How could he not know about these things?

“This kid ...”

He glared at Tang Hao.

You can go to the Jade Lake Pavilion, but why do you have to make such a big scene? do you have to show off that you're particularly good in that aspect?

Speaking of which, this kid was really amazing!

How could he hold on for so long?

It was unbelievable!

The more he thought about it, the more he thought about it.

“Your Majesty, please issue a divine decree and cancel the engagement!” Zhou Yuan shouted again.

Emperor shenwu came to his senses.

“Little brat Zhou, since you know that I have a purpose in bestowing this marriage, then what about after I cripple you? Are you going to stop Jade Dragon Mountain if they come?” He said in a deep voice.

“Your Majesty, that's exactly what I was thinking. After you cancel the old engagement, you can marry general feifeng to me and let me defend Mount Yulong.”

Zhou Yuan shouted.

When Master Wang heard this, his face changed.

That was Mount Yulong!

The great Holy Land that shook the East continent!

Wasn't it courting death to go against them!

"Your Majesty, you can 't!"

He hurriedly shouted.

"Sect master, isn't it just Mount Jade Dragon? even that mu guy isn't afraid and is safe and sound. I'm a genius of Mount purple Qilin. Why should I be afraid? doesn't that mean I'm not even as good as a little pervert?"

Zhou Yuan turned around and shouted.

"Your Majesty, please grant me this!"

He then turned to Emperor shenwu and bowed.

Emperor shenwu was in a dilemma.

What this brat Zhou said actually made sense. There were quite a number of people who supported him. If he were to reject him outright, he was afraid that it would chill the heart of this genius. When word got out, the world would criticize him for being the shenwu Emperor.

However, if he agreed, wouldn't that disrupt his original plan?

"Your Majesty, how about this, let me fight with that mu first, and if I win, Your Majesty will issue an imperial decree."

Zhou Yuan said.

"Alright!"

Emperor shenwu pondered for a while before he nodded.

Although that mu brat's Foundation was poor and his divine arts were not good, his cultivation was high. After that incident, he had broken through to two-star.

With his two-star cultivation, he would not lose to Zhou Yuan no matter how bad his divine power was.

Although Zhou Yuan was talented, he had just advanced to the Yang God Realm, so his cultivation was much weaker.

The two of them should be able to fight, and that mu brat would not lose either. This way, they would be able to easily resolve the current problem.

"General mu, what do you think?"

Emperor shenwu raised his eyes and looked to his right. His gaze fell on Tang Hao.

“Your Majesty wants me to go, how can I refuse!”

Tang Hao sipped a glass of wine and smiled.

“Alright!”

Emperor shenwu slammed the table and shouted, “let’s do that!”

“Hahaha! A good show is coming!”

Many people in the hall were overjoyed, gloating over his misfortune.

How could a fake product made from medicine be a match for the genius of the purple Qilin mountain!

There was no need to think about the result. It would definitely be a one-sided abuse. That mu guy was finally going to suffer!
