

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3466

BOOM!

A deafening explosion.

The entire land, as well as the void, trembled violently.

At this moment, everyone on the battlefield felt their hearts tremble, and they couldn't help but stop.

They subconsciously looked around, trying to find the source of the sound.

Suddenly, an extremely bright divine light shot up from the ground and engulfed the entire battlefield.

Everyone's body froze, unable to move.

A terrifying power locked down the void.

"What's going on?"

Their minds could still move, and they were all extremely shocked.

The sun god powerhouses were the most shocked.

This was because they realized that even with their strength, they were completely suppressed and couldn't move at all.

'How ... How is this possible?'

"Oh my God ... What is that?"

In the distance, many people who were about to leave stopped and turned to look at the city wall, dumbfounded.

There, a shocking pillar of light rose from the earth and into the sky. It was hundreds of millions of feet high, and within the pillar of light, there were countless golden divine symbols floating. They were ancient, profound, and complicated.

And within the light pillar, everything was frozen.

Everyone on both sides of the battlefield was frozen in place. Even the God's blood that was splattering was frozen in the air.

Everything looked so strange!

"Time God art ... Or void god art?"

Holy maiden Tian kui mumbled, still in a daze.

She couldn't believe her eyes. There were hundreds of thousands of people, countless spiritual gods, heavenly gods, and dozens of yang gods!

There was even a six-star realm expert among them.

How could such a powerful formation be stopped in one move?

Even if a nine-star sun god were here, he wouldn't be able to do it by using time or space divine arts.

"It's a formation ..."

"What kind of formation is that?"

Exclamations of shock rang out from all directions.

People from all sides were shocked.

They had never heard of a formation that could suppress hundreds of thousands of troops and dozens of sun god powerhouses from two countries.

It was simply heaven-defying to the extreme!

"This ... This is impossible!"

In the Shura Kingdom's commander's city, Emperor Shura's spiritual will was also sealed.

However, he could still see the situation in front of him ...

This scene made his hair stand on end.

Suppressing the entire battlefield in one fell swoop and imprisoning an Army of hundreds of thousands, what kind of terrifying magical power was this!

This formation must have come from the power behind the scenes!

“Not good!”

His heart sank, and he had an ominous premonition.

The divine martial Kingdom chose to use such a powerful formation at this time instead of earlier or later. They must be plotting something big. His Shura Army would probably suffer heavy losses.

“This is ...?”

On one side of the void, a few figures were hiding. They looked ahead and were also extremely shocked.

They were the people from Jade Dragon Mountain.

The one leading them was great venerable spirit Dragon.

He was the one who planned this war. From the beginning of the war, he had been hiding here and watching, trying to find out who the mastermind was.

Initially, he was a little disappointed as he thought that the Black Hand had given up on the divine martial Kingdom. However, he didn't expect that at the last moment, there would be such a shocking reversal!

“This formation is too complicated. I can’t see through it at all.”

“I think it must be a killing formation. The divine martial country is going to use this formation to turn the tables.”

They squinted their eyes and looked at the formation. The more they looked, the more shocked they were.

This formation was the same as the heaven-defying bewildering formation from before. They could not understand it at all.

Although he had obtained the bewildering formation from Jade Dragon Mountain, he had yet to fully understand it.

“Someone’s coming out!”

“Who is he?”

In the formation, in the frozen void, a figure suddenly appeared. Divine light shone around him, and countless golden talismans swirled around him. His face could not be seen clearly at all.

He took a step forward, and his figure flashed, sweeping out a thousand feet.

Wherever it passed, the Asura soldiers’ bodies shriveled and their faces aged.

With another step, one figure after another shriveled. They did not age, but became smaller. In an instant, they became children, then babies.

Si si si!

In the distance, everyone sucked in a breath of cold air.

This was the divine power of time reincarnation!

In the immortal Dao, this was one of the top few divine arts of the great Dao. Even in the divine Dao, it was a rare and powerful Divine Art.

Before they could recover from their shock, the figure moved again. With a step, boundless divine flames spread out, enveloping the Shura soldiers and burning them to ashes.

With another step, boundless lightning appeared.

Then, it was the sword light and the water waves ...

With every step he took, different forces emerged around him, dazzling the eyes of the people in the distance.

At the same time, they were more and more shocked.

They had never seen such a strange and strange formation.

How could a formation contain so many divine abilities?

They really couldn't figure it out.

“Heavens! This can’t be ... The 3000 great Dao!”

Someone groaned in disbelief.

The 3,000 great Dao referred to all the great Dao and laws contained in the heaven and earth. For example, they would master one of them at birth. For example, the Lei clan was born with the divine power of the Thunder Dao. The other clans, such as the Yan clan and the Bing clan, also had their own divine power.

Other than innate divine abilities, they could also cultivate and master other divine abilities or devour the divine crystals of other clans and families to master their innate divine abilities.

However, generally speaking, it was already very good for a person to master more than ten divine powers. It was rare to master more than a hundred divine powers.

Master all divine powers and merge the 3000 great DAOs?

That was completely impossible!

It was the same for formations. It was impossible to merge 3000 great Dao in a formation!

But now, such an impossible thing seemed to be happening right in front of their eyes.

The figure kept moving around in the array, and with every step, a different great Dao emerged.

The Asura soldiers had all died under these different DAOs in different ways. Some were burned to ashes, some were killed by tens of thousands of swords, and some were turned into dust out of thin air

...

This scene made everyone's blood run cold.

Very quickly, more than half of the Shura Army had fallen.

The figure flickered and finally arrived in front of a sun god powerhouse.

He raised his hand and pointed at the sun god's forehead.

BOOM!

Boundless flames of anger rose and instantly enveloped the sun god. Then, under everyone's horrified gaze, the sun God's body was burned to ashes.

The man waved his hand and put away the broken body and the divine crystal.

Then, he swayed slightly and swept toward the next sun god.

Another finger touched his forehead.

Kala! Kala!

The sun God's body was instantly frozen.

Then, with a bang, it exploded into pieces.

He flicked his sleeve and kept the body, then swept to the next person.
