

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3468

“He won just like that?”

When the divine light dissipated and they regained their freedom, divine general flying dragon and the others looked around in a daze.

Everything that happened just now was like a dream.

“You guys ... Can send the news back now!”

Tang Hao said to them.

“General mu!”

When they saw it, their expressions changed.

It really was general mu, and this great formation must have been bestowed by His Majesty. No wonder the people of the imperial capital said that this person was his Majesty’s closest confidant.

“I’ll send someone to bring the news back to His Majesty. ”

Divine general Feilong said excitedly.

This was an unprecedented victory!

From now on, the divine martial Kingdom would rise up and no power in the East continent would dare to look down on them.

He laughed carefreely, feeling elated.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded, then turned around and headed back to his tent.

He had just killed so many people, he was going to be busy.

Hundreds of thousands of spiritual gods, heavenly gods, and the twenty-three yang gods. Once he refined and devoured them all, it would be enough to help him reach seven-star.

Moreover, these people had a lot of things on them that needed to be sorted out.

Divine martial Kingdom, imperial capital.

A cloud of worry shrouded the area.

Everyone in the city was in a state of panic because they had just heard that the North could not hold on any longer and the city wall was about to break.

As soon as the city wall was broken, the Asura country's people would rush in and attack the imperial capital.

Many people packed up their things, waiting for the chaos to break out of the city so they could escape.

“Any new information?”

“Why isn’t there any news yet?”

In the palace, Emperor shenwu paced back and forth anxiously.

Earlier, he had received news that the Northern Territory would not be able to hold on for much longer. Divine general flying dragon and the others had already made preparations to retreat. This had left him extremely anxious, and he had activated the great formation of the Imperial City ahead of time.

However, with the sturdiness of the great formation of the Imperial City, it could only resist the Shura country. If the west and south were also broken, the three countries would gather in front of the Imperial City, and the Imperial City would be in danger!

“Your Majesty!”

He didn’t know how many rounds he had made, but suddenly, a loud shout came from outside the hall.

“What’s wrong?”

Emperor shenwu looked outside and shouted impatiently.

“The people from the North are here!”

The purple-robed manager quickly entered the hall and shouted.

“What? So fast?”

Emperor shenwu shuddered and almost fell to the ground. His face turned pale.

The fact that they had collapsed so quickly meant that their opponents were too powerful. The divine martial Kingdom’s Army was probably doomed.

“Of course it’ll be fast! Isn’t there a teleportation formation between our imperial capital and the Northern Territory?” The purple-robed manager was stunned.

“I’m saying ... Eh! Forget it, tell me quickly, how many of them came back?”

Emperor shenwu said after he composed himself.

“One!”

“What? Just one?”

Emperor shenwu was stunned. His eyes rolled back and he almost passed out.

There were more than 100000 troops in the Northern Territory and eight sun gods. Only one had returned?

His divine martial Kingdom was going to be annihilated!

“Yeah! Just one! A Messenger! He said he has good news!” The purple-robed Chief Steward said.

“What? Good news?”

Emperor shenwu was stunned. His expression changed instantly and he looked pleasantly surprised. “Did he block it?” Ah! Why didn’t you say so earlier? you gave me a fright!”

As he said that, he patted his chest in fear, his face still filled with lingering fear.

At that moment, he really felt like the sky was falling.

“Your Majesty, it’s you who didn’t have time to let me say it!” The purple-robed manager said with a bitter smile.

“Alright, alright, alright! Hurry up and tell me!”

“Your Majesty, this is the news from the messenger.”

The purple-robed manager took out a scroll and presented it to him.

“Why go through so much trouble to get a scroll?” Emperor shenwu took it and muttered to himself. Then, he opened the scroll and glanced at it.

With just one look, his entire body trembled and he was dumbstruck.

Then, his eyes widened and he brought the scroll closer to his eyes. He read it word by word carefully as if he couldn’t believe what was written on it.

“What do you mean I’m wise? under my leadership, we annihilated the Shura Army and even F * cking killed the Shura divine general and the other yang God powerhouses ...”

He frowned.

He could recognize each of these words, but when they were arranged, he couldn’t recognize them at all. The writing was completely baffling!

Annihilate them all?

He even killed the Asura godly general?

Damn it, did he look like a fool? Who would believe this kind of nonsense!

“Who asked someone to send it over?”

He closed the scroll and said angrily.

“General Fei Long!”

The purple-robed Chief Steward said.

“A ... A flying dragon!” Emperor shenwu was taken aback. His anger was instantly dispelled, and he looked puzzled.

He knew divine general Fei Long very well, and he would never lie, but what was going on?

No matter how they thought about it, with the Northern Territory's strength, it was impossible to stop the Shura Army, let alone annihilate them all. This was simply impossible!

"Could it be ... That kid?"

Suddenly, his mind stirred as he thought of little mu, who he had sent over.

But that's not right. That kid's array Dao is a bit powerful, but it's not powerful to the point of annihilating the Shura Army, right?

"You go and call the messenger over. I have something to ask him!"

Emperor shenwu said after a moment of silence.

When he called for a Messenger, he asked around and carefully understood the situation in the Northern Territory.

"What? There's such a heaven-defying formation in this world?"

After hearing this, he was dazed and shocked to the extreme.

Just by listening to the description, he could imagine what kind of world-shaking formation it was!

That kid was awesome! He actually had such a powerful formation hidden in his hands. No wonder he said he was 100% confident when I asked him before!

"Your Majesty, wasn't this the formation you bestowed?"

The messenger asked in surprise.

“Oh! Yes, yes! However, I didn’t know that the formation was so powerful!”

Emperor shenwu coughed and said.

That kid was smart and definitely didn’t want to expose the news of him having such a great array, so it would be better for him to claim it and explain it to the outside world.

“Oh!”

The messenger immediately understood.

The power of such a great formation was too terrifying and would not be used easily. It was normal that His Majesty was not aware of it.

“Hahaha! Good! That’s great! Go back and tell general Fei Long and the others that the entire Army will be rewarded, heavily rewarded!”

Emperor shenwu laughed out loud, overjoyed.

With such a great victory, the crisis was immediately resolved.

When the news reached Suzaku and Fenglin, they would immediately retreat and ask for peace.

Moreover, when the news spread throughout the East continent, the divine martial Kingdom's reputation would soar and it would become a first-rate force. It would no longer be a small divine Kingdom like before.

"That's right, where's general mu?"

He stopped the messenger who was about to leave the hall and asked.

This was a precious treasure, and he couldn't be neglected.

"Oh! General mu is still at the main camp. "

The messenger said.

"I'm fine! You can go back now!"

Emperor shenwu said as he waved his hand.

"This kid should be in seclusion. There are hundreds of thousands of Shura soldiers and more than 20 sun gods. It'll be enough for him to devour for a while. His cultivation should be five or six stars." He muttered to himself, his mind somewhat aghast.

He was the one who suggested going to the Northern Territory.

At that time, he had been puzzled and did not know the boy's purpose. Now, he understood. The boy had gone to the North for the hundreds of thousands of Shura soldiers and the group of sun gods.

And in the end, this kid did it.

“This kid is truly a terrifying figure!”

He mumbled to himself as a sense of awe rose in his heart.

This kid was definitely the most powerful young man he had ever seen in his life. He was unfathomable!
