

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3469

“The northern side has been broken. The divine martial Kingdom is finished!”

Within the imperial capital, there were people running around and shouting.

“It’s really broken?”

“That’s for sure. I even saw someone return from the Northern Territory and rush to the palace.”

“Then we’re finished!”

When everyone in the city heard this, they all sighed.

However, they weren’t surprised because this result was already set in stone. The divine martial Kingdom wasn’t strong to begin with, and it was impossible for them to resist three powerful enemies at the same time.

In the North, there were hundreds of thousands of Asura soldiers and more than 20 yang God powerhouses. It was not easy for them to resist for so long.

“The way I see it, we shouldn’t resist anymore. Since we can’t stop them, we might as well open up the formation and surrender. This way, we can still save the lives of so many people in the imperial capital.”

“That’s right!”

They raised their heads and looked at the light screen in the sky.

With the formation protecting them, they could not escape even if they wanted to.

As they were discussing, the light screen above them suddenly dispersed.

Everyone was stunned.

Was he ... Really going to surrender?

“Emperor shenwu is a smart man! They knew that they couldn’t stop him, so they simply surrendered!”

Many people sneered and had mocking expressions.

“Hey! What nonsense are you still talking about? hurry up and run! If Emperor shenwu changes his mind, he won’t be able to leave.” More and more people jumped up and madly rushed out.

For a time, countless divine lights rushed out of the mansions in all directions of the imperial capital and fled.

“Hmph! These people run pretty fast!”

Emperor shenwu, who was in the palace, sneered at the scene.

“Note down all those who ran away. Those with official positions, remove them all!” He turned around and said to the purple-robed Chief Steward.

“Yes! Your Majesty!”

The purple-robed general manager looked outside with a cold glint in his eyes.

What a bunch of idiots, running away without even getting the information.

He was sneering in his heart.

“Alright! Let’s spread the news! Inform the generals in the East and South as well so that they can be at ease.” Emperor shenwu waved his hand and said after an hour.

The news quickly spread from the Imperial Palace to the entire imperial capital.

“This ... Is fake, right?”

Everyone who heard the news was a little dumbfounded.

Didn’t they say that the city wall was broken?

Why was it the other way around now? he said that he had annihilated the Shura Army and killed all of Shura’s sun god powerhouses. This sounded ... Too fake!

Even if you’re bragging, you shouldn’t brag like this!

It was too exaggerated!

How could the divine martial Kingdom annihilate the Asura Army and the 20-odd yang God experts with its meager resources?

For a time, the imperial capital was in an uproar.

All the people who stayed behind were skeptical.

It was only when news came from outside the divine martial Kingdom and they understood the details did they believe it. They were also dumbfounded.

“Hiss! What a terrifying formation! What a terrifying Emperor shenwu!”

When they came back to their senses, they all looked in the direction of the Imperial Palace, their expressions filled with reverence.

They had such a powerful formation, but they had not used it until the last moment to wipe out the Shura Army. What a profound scheme!

“What? We won, and we even annihilated the Asura Army?”

Those people who had run out early also heard the news and were dumbfounded.

Then, he regretted it so much that his intestines turned green.

With this escape, all their foundations in the divine martial Kingdom were gone.

Divine martial Kingdom, western city wall.

In soaring Phoenix City, mu hanyan stood at the top of the city wall, clad in the fire Phoenix battle armor. She still looked valiant and valiant, sexy and alluring.

However, there was a cloud of worry between her brows, and she looked a little tired.

After fighting for seven days, the situation was getting worse and worse.

Originally, the difference in strength between the two sides was huge. She only had four sun gods on her side, while the other side had eleven, nearly three times.

In addition, the morale of her divine martial Army was low, making it even more difficult to resist.

“I can only hold on for two to three more days at most.”

Looking at the dim light screen in front of her, she muttered with a helpless expression.

As she thought about it, she suddenly raised her eyes and looked in the direction of the Northern Territory.

That side was resisting the most powerful Asura country, and the pressure was the greatest. Once that side was broken, there was no point in defending.

“General, there’s news from the imperial capital!”

At this time, a divine light swept over from outside the city and landed on the top of the city wall, presenting a jade talisman.

“The Northern Territory has been broken through?”

Mu hanyan furrowed her brows and took the Jade talisman.

When she opened it to take a look, her delicate body trembled, and her pair of beautiful eyes widened uncontrollably, revealing extreme shock.

“This ... How is this possible?”

After being stunned for a while, she blurted out.

Her rosy little mouth was wide open and could not be closed.

Her full chest heaved up and down rapidly, but there was a storm in her heart, and she could not control herself.

The information in the Jade talisman was too shocking!

It made her feel that it was ridiculous!

“A great formation, another great formation! His Majesty ... Where did he get such a powerful formation? It’s unbelievable and a little strange!” She mumbled, her heart filled with shock.

Last time at the carefree mansion, His Majesty had set up a bewildering formation that stumped all the formation Masters in the East Province.

Now, he had set up another killing formation and killed hundreds of thousands of Shura soldiers and the group of yang God powerhouses.

Where did he get so many powerful formations?

“Could it be him?”

Suddenly, she had a thought.

As far as she knew, he had been sent to the Northern Territory by the Emperor a few days ago.

As for his array Dao, she had seen it before, and it was quite amazing.

“It’s impossible for him to have created such a heaven-defying formation. No matter how powerful he is, he can’t have created such a powerful formation. It can only be an ancient divine formation. However, the formation technique might have been his, and he obtained it by chance.”

She secretly guessed.

After thinking about it again, she was even more certain of this idea.

“I didn’t expect him to have such a powerful thing. I underestimated him again!”

She laughed bitterly.

Previously, in the Imperial Palace, that person had crushed Zhou Yuan with a single palm strike, which had shocked her. She did not expect to be shocked again today.

“This guy is really a talent, but his character is a little too bad!”

She mumbled, revealing an indignant expression.

Not only did he always go to the Jade Lake Pavilion to fool around, but he also made it known to everyone every time. He was really a bastard!

“General, what’s the news?”

A subordinate asked curiously.

After opening the Jade talisman, the general’s expression was very interesting. At first, he was extremely shocked, then he was bewildered, and finally, he became angry.

“The north side has won! It was still a great victory! Annihilate the Shura Army!”

Mu Hanyan came back to her senses, and a smile finally bloomed on her beautiful face.

The worry between his brows was also swept away.

“What ... What?”

Everyone in the surroundings was shocked and in disbelief.

Soon, the news spread on the city wall of the Western Region, causing a cheer.
