

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3477

"I heard that it's Emperor Shura. In order to take revenge on the divine martial Kingdom, he massacred the entire purple Qilin mountain!"

"It's the Shura Emperor! No wonder!"

This kind of news quickly spread throughout the imperial capital.

No one doubted it.

It was perfectly normal for the Shura Emperor to do this.

In the battle a month ago, hundreds of thousands of Shura soldiers and 23 yang God experts had died. The Shura Emperor would definitely seek revenge.

"Also, general mu has returned. His Majesty wants to confer him the title of King!"

"King? How is that possible? it's fake, right?"

"It's not fake. The divine decree has already been passed down, saying that general mu has outstanding military achievements and will be conferred the title of King Xiaoyao."

"Hiss! For real? He's the first Wang with a different surname in our divine martial Kingdom, right?"

Very quickly, another piece of news spread, shaking the entire Imperial City.

That general mu was actually going to be conferred the title of King!

This was unbelievable to the world!

No matter if it was the divine martial Kingdom or other divine kingdoms, only the royal family would be conferred a King. There were very few conferred Kings with other surnames.

General MU's military achievements were indeed outstanding. It was him who set up the formation and massacred the Asura Army. However, wasn't the formation given to him by His Majesty?

Although he had made great contributions, it was not to the extent of being conferred the title of King, right?

Many people felt that this reward was a little too much.

"It's only been a short while, and he went from general to King. That's too fast!"

Many people were even more amazed.

After entering the divine Kingdom, general MU's strength and status had skyrocketed. It was unbelievable.

"Do you think Her Majesty likes this kid?"

"Hey! His Majesty's preferences are normal, and he has a lot of concubines. "

"That's strange. Why is His Majesty so good to this kid? Don't tell me he's an illegitimate child?"

“Al! That’s possible!”

Quite a few gossipers started to make up stories.

“Emperor!”

Flying Phoenix mansion.

Mu hanyan sat in the hall and listened to the discussions outside, her brows furrowing slightly.

She was also a little surprised.

“It seems that my guess was right. That array ... Is indeed his. Otherwise, His Majesty would not have been conferred the title of King.” She muttered to herself with her red lips pursed.

“He’s about to be crowned King!”

Then, she let out a soft sigh.

She was the No. 1 genius of the divine martial Kingdom. Her strength and status were unparalleled among the younger generation. But now, it seemed like she was going to be surpassed by this guy.

And this guy was her fiancé in name.

“It seems like I have to speed up and rush to the three-star or even four-star realm as soon as possible.” She muttered to herself, “let’s set off now to find some treasures. I can’t let that guy surpass me.”

With that, she stood up.

She had always been proud and would not be willing to be surpassed by others.

She was a flawless-level genius, how could she be surpassed by someone with such an ordinary background and talent!

She left as soon as she said she would. She took off her clothes and changed into a set of valiant Fire Phoenix Armor before soaring into the sky.

“That guy...Is actually going to be conferred the title of King?”

In a mansion in the imperial capital.

When Hong Tianyi heard the news, he was dumbfounded.

He just sat there for a long time.

In the end, he revealed a dejected expression.

If it was in the past, he would definitely not be convinced. However, ever since he had seen that fellow's strength at the banquet in the Imperial Palace, he no longer had any thoughts of making an enemy of that fellow.

“King? General mu? Oh! That puppet of Emperor shenwu!”

“Didn’t they say that he was born a perverted Bandit? with such an unbearable identity, he can also be conferred the title of King? What was wrong with Emperor shenwu? Have you gone senile?”

Within the imperial capital, there were still many people from various forces.

Ever since that battle, the divine martial Kingdom’s might had increased greatly. Many forces had sent people over to befriend the divine martial Kingdom.

The moment these people heard the news of King title, they were all extremely surprised.

In their impression, this man with the surname mu was just a puppet. In other words, he was a hired thug that Emperor shenwu had trained.

Therefore, they didn’t pay much attention to it.

From the looks of it, general mu was rather important in Emperor shenwu’s eyes!

Many people turned their eyes to the carefree mansion.

At the carefree mansion.

Tang Hao had returned a long time ago to visit his Senior Sister.

Then, he returned to his Pavilion and began to organize the treasures he had plundered from the purple Qilin mountain, as well as the things on Qing Yang, Wu tuo, and the others.

There were indeed a lot of things, and it took him a little effort to put them away in different categories.

However, there was nothing good.

This was normal. After all, purple Qilin mountain wasn't a top force, and high holiness Qingyang and the others were only mid-stage yang gods.

After he was done, he was about to take out the divine furnace to refine the corpse when he heard the discussion outside.

"King?"

He had a strange expression on his face.

What was the use of having this Xiaoyao Wang?

This Emperor shenwu was really too much. It was useless to give him an undeserved title. He might as well give him some treasures.

"Forget it, just let him be. Freedom King seems to be more famous than the freedom divine general." Tang Hao smiled and accepted it.

After inquiring about the outside world, he activated the divine furnace and began to refine it.

After the refining was completed, it was time to devour.

Among the seven yang gods, three were in the middle stage and four were in the early stage. This had increased his cultivation by a large margin.

Just as he had completely refined the five people from Jade Dragon Mountain to death, a few light banging sounds were heard from a Hall in Jade Dragon Mountain.

The five soul plates shattered one after another.

“What? Qingyang and wutuo are both dead?”

A moment later, on the other side of Jade Dragon Mountain, great Senior Spirit Dragon received the news. He suddenly stood up with an extremely shocked expression.

He was well aware of Qingyang and Wu tuo’s strength. They were already very powerful experts in the middle stage of the Yang spirit realm. Even if they encountered a Seven Star great venerable, their lives would not be in danger. How could they die?

“Where did he die?”

His face darkened as the referee asked.

How did the people of the sect die three times in succession during this period of time? how many Venerables had died?

“This ... I can’t find out for the time being, but according to the high holiness, Lord Qingyang and Lord Wu tuo should have gone to the divine martial Kingdom to deal with that brat surnamed mu. They said they wanted to seize the divine array in his hands!”

“What? The divine martial Kingdom again?”

Great Senior Spirit Dragon's expression changed.

Then, he clenched his fists and his expression became extremely ferocious, as if he was about to devour someone.

Divine martial Kingdom!

It's the divine martial Kingdom again!

How many people from Jade Dragon Mountain have you killed?

He really had the guts! Did they really think that Jade Dragon Mountain would not dare to fight them to the death?

He took a deep breath and tried to calm himself down.

He wasn't a reckless person and wouldn't kill his way into the divine martial Kingdom in a moment of rashness. Wouldn't he have fallen into a trap if he did that?

He didn't know how many formations were set up in the divine martial country, so he didn't dare to take the risk.

"Good! Very good! Emperor shenwu, you've got guts. And the force behind you, I, Jade Dragon Mountain, will remember this. Just you wait!"

He sneered, sat back down, and began to plan.
