

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3484

He left the Black Lotus Mountain, tore open the void, and entered.

He didn't leave. Instead, he hid in the void crack.

His eyes were focused on the inside of the Black Lotus sect.

He had to figure out the identity and background of the masked man.

This guy came for the divine crystal pieces. Sooner or later, he would find Shi Yan. Thus, Shi Yan had to figure out who his enemy was.

Moreover, since this guy knew about the divine crystal fragments, he must know where they came from. He might be able to help Shi Yan find more fragments.

In the main hall of the Black Lotus sect.

The masked man raised his eyes and scanned the surroundings. He then raised his hand and took out a crystal.

The crystal floated in the air and buzzed, emitting a misty light.

A moment later, a blurry figure appeared.

“You found it?”

The man spoke in a low voice. He sounded young, probably in his twenties.

On his blurry face, there was a nine-colored brilliance that was particularly dazzling.

Tang Hao's eyes narrowed when he saw it.

They were divine crystals!

Just like him, this guy also had nine-colored divine crystals.

"It seems like it's him!"

Tang Hao said to himself.

This guy was the mastermind behind the masked man, and he was also a perfect-grade genius who had devoured the fragments of the primogenitor divine crystal.

Moreover, judging from the intensity of the nine-colored radiance, it seemed to be even stronger than his.

It might have swallowed bigger shards than him, or more than one.

"He's obviously not from the East Province. He must be someone from the outside world with a deep background."

Tang Hao muttered to himself.

There was no perfect-grade genius in the East Province.

This also explained why the masked man wanted to recruit a group of evil sects for help. It was because he was from outside the East continent and had no foundation here.

“Your Highness, no!”

The masked man shook his head.

“No? What’s going on?”

The man shouted sternly.

“Your Majesty, the faction that discovered the dwelling is where I’m from, but the divine Crystal Shard has not fallen into their hands. When they discovered the dwelling, it was taken away by someone else, and it seems to have been absorbed.”

The masked man bowed.

“What? Absorbed? How could anyone in the small East continent absorb the primogenitor divine crystal? This is impossible!”

That person, Li Shao, was in disbelief.

“Your Highness, I found out through soul searching. It shouldn’t be wrong. That person might have been lucky, so he could absorb it.” The masked man said.

“Luck? Whoosh!”

That person sneered, obviously not believing him.

“Then, can you find out who that guy is?” he continued.

“Don’t worry, Your Highness. I’ve already sent people to investigate. I’ll investigate it myself later. I’ll find this person even if I have to search the entire East Province.” The masked man said respectfully.

“Good! I’m not worried about you. Contact me when you’ve found the person. ”

That person shouted.

“Yes, Your Highness!”

The masked man responded.

The next moment, the blurry figure swayed and quickly disappeared.

“Hu!”

The masked man finally stood up and heaved a long sigh of relief.

His Highness was too terrifying. He didn’t dare to look at him directly.

“Who is it?”

He kept the crystal and muttered, but he was extremely puzzled.

He didn't believe that the mysterious man was just lucky.

"Forget it, let's check first! Since he was here, he must have left some clues. " He took a step and was about to head out of the hall.

At this moment, he suddenly stopped in his tracks.

With a surprised sound, he suddenly raised his head and looked outside the hall.

Outside, there were rays of divine light emerging out of thin air and flying in all directions.

In an instant, a large array was formed, enveloping the mountain range.

"Who is it?"

He looked around and shouted sternly.

In the next moment, a figure silently appeared in the void in front of him.

"It's you!"

He took a closer look and heaved a sigh of relief.

He recognized this person. He was a four-star sun god that he had recruited.

A mere four-star dared to have designs on him. He must be tired of living!

“Is there anyone else? I knew it, you evil sects are not reliable!” He snorted and looked around again.

He was a six-star sun god. A four-star might not have the guts to do so. He must have an accomplice.

“Who is that Highness just now?”

Tang Hao didn’t answer him. He only asked coldly.

“You saw it?” The masked man was slightly shocked, then he sneered. “That Highness’s identity is extremely noble. I’m afraid that you’ll be scared to death if I tell you!”

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao chuckled.

He wasn’t so timid that he would be scared to death by a name.

“That’s only natural. That person is an existence whose name can shake the entire divine realm. His name is not something you can inquire about.” The masked man sneered.

“Are your accomplices still not coming out? Then I won’t hold back, I’ll kill you first!”

He looked around and shouted.

Bang!

The next moment, he stomped his feet and shot out like a cannonball. The aura of the six-star realm exploded.

Tang Hao's body didn't move. He only raised his hand and sent out a palm to meet the attack.

Bang!

There was another explosion.

The fist and palm collided, and boundless divine light exploded.

The violent shock waves spread out, crushing the mountains in all directions into dust.

The light screen that enveloped the surroundings also trembled slightly from the impact.

"Eh? Your power ...?"

In the next moment, a scream pierced through the sky.

The masked man's eyes widened as he looked at the man in front of him in shock.

His punch was actually easily blocked.

This guy didn't move an inch, as steady as a mountain.

This was obviously not a four-star!

"Is this guy hiding his strength? Or is it not him at all?"

Apart from shock, he was also a little confused.

"Since you won't tell me, I'll kill you and search your soul."

"Die!" Tang Hao shouted coldly. He shook his palm, and his Seven Star realm cultivation burst forth. He pressed forward madly.

Ah!

A cry of alarm.

The masked man's body trembled violently and was sent flying backward.

"Not good! He's a Seven Star great venerable!"

The masked man was shocked.

He was at the seven Star realm. If the formation was further strengthened, he would be at risk of dying.

“No! The void has been sealed!”

Subconsciously, he tried to tear open the void. However, the void around him was suppressed and he could not move it at all.

At that moment, he could only rush out. He stretched out his palm and a golden spear appeared.

Weng Weng Weng!

As he crazily poured in his divine essence, the Golden divine spear trembled violently and burst out with divine light.

Whoosh!

The divine spear pierced through the air and shot forward.

The masked man also rushed forward.

He was confident that his spear would be able to break through the formation.

That was because the formations that could be set up during this period of time were not very powerful. With his strength of the six-star realm, he could break them with one strike.

Bang!

With a loud bang, the divine spear hit the light curtain.

However, what happened next was not what he had expected. Although the light screen shook violently, it was intact.

“This ... How is this possible?”

His body froze and he was immediately dumbfounded. He let out a shocked scream.
