

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3485

“That’s impossible!”

The masked man’s eyes were wide open, filled with shock.

Why couldn’t he break this shell with his full-power attack?

“What’s so impossible about it?”

A sneer.

Tang Hao was already there. He raised his hand and struck.

The masked man suddenly woke up and hurriedly caught it.

Ah!

With a scream, he was sent flying backward. His palm was blasted open, and divine blood splattered everywhere.

“This guy ... Who the hell is he! He’s clearly a seven-star cultivator, so how can his battle prowess be comparable to that of an eight-star cultivator?”

He was more and more shocked.

Under the mask, his face was twisted with fear.

Those who were strong enough to skip levels were all monsters.

This guy was not simple!

“Stop! If you kill me, aren’t you afraid of revenge? No matter who you are, you can’t afford to offend the Prince behind me.”

He shouted, trying to intimidate his opponent.

Tang Hao only laughed when he heard that.

Then, he slapped out again.

Peng Peng Peng!

In just a short while, thousands of palms came down, blasting the masked man inch by inch.

He bombarded her until she didn’t have the strength to regenerate and was on the verge of death. Then he reached out and touched the space between her eyebrows, digging out the divine crystal.

“First-grade, not bad!”

He raised the divine crystal, put it in front of his eyes, and examined it. Then, he nodded in satisfaction.

This was not an ordinary first-grade item. Its quality was even higher, close to the flawless-grade.

After suppressing his physical body, he began to search his soul.

“I see!”

A moment later, he understood everything.

“A troublesome opponent ...”

He mumbled to himself and frowned.

That perfect-grade genius was much stronger than him. He had reached the nine-star realm a long time ago, and the quality of his divine crystals was much higher than his. Not to mention the treasures, that guy was full of treasures, like a strange Treasure Mountain.

He was at a disadvantage in every aspect.

“It’s okay. He won’t be coming over now anyway. By the time we meet him, I think he’ll be an eight-star or a nine-star by then. ”

After a while, Tang Hao shook his head and relaxed.

He took out the masked man’s item and checked it. He erased all the aura so that he wouldn’t be tracked.

“And that group of Devils, kill them all!”

He withdrew the formation and left the Black Lotus Mountain.

When he found a demon, he would track it down and wait for an opportunity to kill it.

The strength of these Devils wasn't much. A few of them were in the middle stage, and the rest were in the early stage. It was easy to kill them, and it didn't take much effort.

"I'm finally done!"

After suppressing the last one, he found a barren mountain and began to refine it.

A day had passed by the time he had finished devouring.

"The hundred territories was fine, but it has become like this!"

He set off for the divine martial Kingdom. Along the way, he basically couldn't see any divine light. There was no one in each city as they had all finished running.

In the past, these cities would be extremely lively.

Although the hundred territories was a desolate land, there were many people.

He sighed with emotion and rushed back to the divine martial Kingdom and the imperial capital.

At this moment, in the imperial capital, many people were discussing what had happened in the hundred territories, and there were all kinds of speculations.

“Why hasn’t Mount Yulong made a move yet?”

After staying in his carefree mansion for three days, he couldn’t sit still anymore.

Staying in this place could not increase his cultivation. There was nothing to study about array Dao and alchemy Dao. As for the ancient books that he had collected, he had flipped through them all, but he could not find any clues about the treasure.

After sitting there for three days, he couldn’t help but think of Mount Yulong.

Previously, Jade Dragon Mountain had sent him to his death wave after wave, forcibly helping him to improve his cultivation to the current seven-star.

He had not seen them for a while, and he was starting to miss them.

“There’s also the Asura divine Kingdom. They don’t even know how to take revenge. This way, I’ll have a chance to take action!” He was still thinking about the Asura divine Kingdom.

The Asura divine Kingdom was not like the divine martial Kingdom, which had a large estate. Even though 23 sun gods had died, there were still more than 20 left.

“Since they’re not coming, I’ll go find them. I’ll also look for godly medicines and treasures.”

After sitting for another day, he could no longer bear it. He suddenly got up and left the manor.

“Let’s go to Mount Jade Dragon first and find out more about the situation. We’ll also plant some spies in order to understand the situation on Mount Jade Dragon in a timely manner.”

As he muttered to himself, he left the imperial capital and headed in the direction of Mount Jade Dragon.

Jade Dragon Mountain was located in the southern part of the East continent. It was the sacred ground closest to the divine martial Kingdom.

One was in the central region, while the other was in the North. They were a bit further away.

There were still four great saint lands, but they were very far away from the divine martial Kingdom, so it was rare to see them.

“What a great Mount Jade Dragon!”

He rushed to the vicinity of Mount Jade Dragon and looked forward. He saw the giant dragon hovering in the sky.

Below the Dragon, there were many huge pillars that were tens of millions of feet tall. They lifted the Dragon up, giving it a majestic aura.

It was Tang Hao's first time seeing such an imposing sect.

Squinting his eyes, he could see the vast and dense palace complex on the dragon's back.

“It's really imposing!”

He looked at it carefully and couldn't help but exclaim in admiration.

“That’s right. This is Mount Jade Dragon, the Holy Land of our East Province! In terms of magnificence, the other Holy Lands are nothing in front of Jade Dragon Mountain!”

Someone beside him replied.

There was a City area nearby. People came and went, and it was very lively.

Many people, like him, were looking at the giant dragon in the distance, revealing the same expression of surprise.

“In terms of sect, this Jade Dragon Mountain is indeed the best. But in terms of prestige and power, it’s not.” Someone suddenly said.

“The power of jade Dragon Mountain is one of the best!”

Someone immediately retorted.

“One of the best? It’s far from good!” That person shook his head and laughed, “all these years, war god mountain and dark sky Palace’s reputation has risen greatly. As for Jade Dragon Mountain, not only did their reputation not rise, it even fell. It’s not as good as it was at its peak.”

“It fell? Why do you say that?”

“Don’t you all remember that a while ago, the heavenly Eagle Ambassador of Jade Dragon Mountain was killed and a group of sovereigns were trapped in the divine martial royal capital? At that time, many forces in the East continent would have rushed to the divine martial Kingdom to watch the show!”

“Ever since this incident, Jade Dragon Mountain’s reputation has dropped by quite a bit. Following that, five of their strongholds were massacred, but the murderers were not caught, causing them to lose face.

Finally, the Asura, Vermillion Bird, and maple forest kingdoms besieged the divine martial Kingdom. It can be said that they have completely lost the face of Jade Dragon Mountain!”

The man chuckled and spoke with fervor and assurance.

From time to time, his words revealed his contempt for Jade Dragon Mountain.

“That battle ... Was instigated by Jade Dragon Mountain?”

Someone asked in surprise.

“Of course. Otherwise, why would the Three Kingdoms join forces to besiege a small divine martial Kingdom? no, you can’t call it that now. The divine martial Kingdom is different from the past. They have a mysterious force as their backing. They’re very impressive!”

That person laughed.
