

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3486

“So it’s like this! It sounds like Jade Dragon Mountain has fallen into the hands of that divine martial Kingdom. What is the background of that mysterious power?”

The people around him asked curiously.

“This ... Who knows! I don’t know anyway!”

That person chuckled and shook his head. “If someone knew, they wouldn’t be called a mysterious force.”

“That’s true!”

Everyone burst into laughter.

“This divine martial Kingdom will be formidable in the future! Emperor shenwu is a seven-star great Paragon, and there’s also a flawless-level genius. Divine general feifeng will definitely become a great Paragon in the future.”

“Yup! I heard that there are many terrifying formations in the divine martial country. Many sun gods don’t dare to enter easily for fear of being suppressed.”

Everyone’s topic changed as they started to discuss the divine martial Kingdom.

Originally, the divine martial Kingdom was very small and not very famous. The only famous thing about it was that divine general Fei Feng. With his outstanding talent and beauty, he was famous throughout the East continent.

Other than that, there was nothing else.

Who would have thought that in less than a year, the divine martial Kingdom would suddenly rise up and shock the East continent?

Now, even a sacred ground like Jade Dragon Mountain would not dare to attack them easily.

“This Jade Dragon Mountain is really unlucky!”

The man raised his eyes and looked at the giant dragon in the distant sky, gloating at its misfortune.

Tang Hao looked at him from top to bottom.

This was a young man dressed in white. He looked quite similar to him, and his appearance was also quite handsome. His temperament was elegant, and he had the appearance of a genius.

“Brother, where are you from? Why do you sound like you don’t like Jade Dragon Mountain?”

Tang Hao asked.

“Of course. I’m from war god mountain. How could I like Jade Dragon Mountain?”

The young man sneered.

“So he’s from war god mountain!”

“Awesome!”

Everyone exclaimed in surprise.

No matter if it was Mount Jade Dragon or Mount war god, they were both famous great Holy Lands. Without extraordinary talent, one would definitely not be able to enter. Any random disciple from either sect would be a first-class genius outside.

“War god mountain, no wonder!”

Tang Hao was enlightened.

“Two stars of sun god, about the same as mu Hanyan. She should be one of the top geniuses of war god mountain.” He checked again and saw through this person’s true cultivation.

“Al! Why are the people from war god mountain here?”

Someone asked curiously.

“This ... Naturally, I can’t reveal it. Everyone, goodbye!”

The young man laughed and turned around to leave.

Tang Hao raised his brows as he watched him leave.

This guy, could it be that he was also here for Jade Dragon Mountain?

He muttered to himself, his mind feeling a little strange.

He didn't pay too much attention to it. He turned around and landed in a city to the side and began to stroll around.

In this city, one could see some disciples of Mount Jade Dragon from time to time. Most of them were arrogant and haughty. Even without looking at their clothes, one could easily tell from their expressions.

Tang Hao carefully observed these people, choosing his next target.

If he wanted to plant spies, he naturally couldn't find targets that were too easily exposed. However, their strength and status couldn't be too low either. If he found the lowest-level disciple, he wouldn't be able to obtain any information.

It would be best if he had some talent, but not the best.

After a day of observation, he finally found a suitable target.

This was a two-star heavenly God Realm disciple who came alone. One look and he could tell that he was a proud and aloof person. He was the most suitable target he had observed so far.

After confirming his target, he followed the man out of the city.

Not long after he flew out, he suddenly made a move and quickly dragged this person into the void gap, suppressing him in one fell swoop.

A mere two-star celestial God was like a child in front of him, the great venerable sun god. He was completely unable to resist.

Tang Hao only released him after taking control of his soul.

After returning to the city, he continued to search for his target.

One informer was definitely not enough. Once he was discovered, there would be no more. He had to plant a few more.

In the next three days, he controlled another ten disciples of Jade Dragon Mountain.

“That’s the last one!”

He was prepared to gather twelve, so he found another one and followed him out of the city as usual.

“Eh? Not good!”

Just as he was about to make a move, he suddenly saw a few beams of divine light shooting over from the distant sky. They were all at the Yang God Realm.

The disciple in front immediately stopped and bowed to the few people in the distance.

Tang Hao immediately stopped.

The moment he moved, he would be sensed by the group of sun gods in the distance.

“Five people, the aura of the one in front ... Could it be great senior?”

Tang Hao was surprised when he sensed the auras of those people.

One great senior and four high senior. This lineup was a bit too luxurious.

What were these people doing?

This made him very curious.

“That’s ...”

His line of sight followed the five of them, watching them disappear into the horizon.

Just as he was about to take it back, he saw a figure rushing into the sky not far away. He looked in that direction and then escaped into the void.

“It’s that genius from war god mountain!”

Tang Hao managed to see it clearly.

That figure was the genius from war god mountain that he had seen before.

“He’s just a two-star sun god. How could he dare to track a great senior?”

He was even more curious now.

After pondering for a while, his eyes lit up.

The difference in strength was too great. It was impossible for them to kill. In that case, there was only one possibility, and that was for the treasure.

That group of people from Jade Dragon Mountain might be looking for treasures, while that genius from war god mountain might be like the Mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind.

“It’s very possible!”

The more he thought about it, the more likely he felt it was.

A genius who could cultivate to the sun god two stars was definitely not a fool. If there were no great benefits, he would not take such a huge risk to follow a group of great and high venerable rank experts.

“Go! Let’s go and take a look!”

Tang Hao could not hold himself back when he thought of the treasure.

He was too lazy to catch that target, so he turned around and dashed over.

Soon, he found his target and followed him from a distance.

He was very careful and did not let the two groups of people in front discover him.

Just like that, after following them for a day, the five people from Jade Dragon Mountain at the front finally stopped.

They stood in the sky. One of them took out a map and looked at it carefully. Then, he looked down at the ground and compared it with the map.

“It seems to be here!”

He said hesitantly after a moment.

“It seems? What do you mean by that?”

When the others heard this, they were all a little puzzled.

“Some parts don’t look the same. Maybe it’s been a long time, and the landscape has changed.”

The high holiness who was holding the map said.

The others took the map and compared it to the ground below.

“There are some changes, but it’s more or less the same. There’s no mistake, it’s this place.”

A moment later, the great senior nodded.

“Let’s go! Let’s go down and take a look!”

Then, he put away the map and led the way down.
