

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3487

“Hahaha! This group of idiots from Jade Dragon Mountain have indeed fallen into their trap!”

A white-robed figure stood in a spatial Rift.

It was the genius of war god mountain!

At this moment, he was looking into the distance with a proud expression.

All of this was actually planned by him.

He had obtained the treasure map by chance and thought it was fake. He didn't expect to find something when he followed the instructions and found this place.

However, there were many powerful creatures guarding it. With his two-star cultivation, it was not enough to break in.

Therefore, he thought of this method to get the people of Jade Dragon Mountain to help him retrieve the treasure.

If he was lucky, he could even take the opportunity to kill a Supreme from Jade Dragon Mountain, killing two birds with one stone.

Up until now, his plan had been carried out perfectly.

He believed that things would go just as smoothly.

“I am indeed a genius!”

He smiled smugly, his nostrils almost reaching the sky.

Other geniuses were only talented, but he was different. Not only was he talented, but he was also very smart. He could use all kinds of schemes at his fingertips and use them to perfection. Even those with higher cultivation than him would be played around in circles.

He also became famous because of this and became the leader of the younger generation in the East Province.

After being pleased with himself for a while, he gathered his thoughts and continued to wait.

Behind him, Tang Hao was hiding in the void in the distance. He was also waiting.

There were two groups of people in front of him, and their strength was not ordinary. Among the five people from Jade Dragon Mountain, there was a great Paragon. As for the genius from war god mountain, he was not an ordinary person either. His divine abilities and methods were also extraordinary.

Therefore, he had to be very careful.

If he was discovered in advance, his plan would fail.

BOOM!

After a while, a loud noise came from the cloud-covered mountain.

At the same time, there was also a piercing divine light.

Tang Hao focused his gaze and saw a few giant beasts in the mountain range. They were in an intense battle with the Venerables from Mount Jade Dragon.

“What a good fellow!”

Tang Hao was shocked when he saw the strength of the giant beasts.

All of them were late-stage yang gods!

He had seen many beasts at the sun god Realm. There were a few in many dangerous places, but he had rarely seen late-stage beasts, let alone three at once. This was very unusual.

This was because the mountain range in front of them was neither a dangerous place nor a forbidden land.

How could there be three great venerable rank beasts here?

“It seems like ... I made the right decision to come!”

Then, he was overjoyed.

“These beasts are so strong!”

“Motherf * cker!”

From afar, he could hear the scolding from the people from Jade Dragon Mountain.

They seemed to be caught off guard and were beaten up a little.

Although most of the ferocious beasts were weaker than the Protoss in the same level, it was a different story if they were one level higher.

Fortunately, there was a Grandmaster on Jade Dragon Mountain's side. He quickly stabilized the situation and began to fight back.

This battle lasted for nearly an hour.

When the flood Dragon was killed, the other two beasts, one ape and one Tiger, both escaped.

"These two bastards, they run pretty fast!"

The few people from Jade Dragon Mountain cursed and swore, but they did not chase after him.

After resting for a while, he flew down to a Valley.

"This should be the cave of an ancient Almighty, and those three ferocious beasts are the Guardians of this place."

The great senior took the lead and said as he landed.

"Look, there's the aura of a formation over there. The cave abode is in this Valley."

His eyes were like torches, shooting out a piercing golden light to explore every corner of the valley.

In a corner, he discovered the faint aura of a formation.

It was very weak, almost non-existent.

“It should be a powerful concealment array. However, as time passed, it no longer works and leaked out a trace of its aura.” He focused his eyes and carefully examined the corner of the room.

“Great senior, how do we break it?”

A high holiness asked from behind.

“Just directly blast it! There’s no other way!”

The great senior muttered.

He raised his hand and activated his divine energy, forming a giant palm that covered the sky and slapped down.

Buzzzzzz!

When the giant palm reached the bottom of the valley, a golden light burst out and turned into a light curtain, blocking the giant palm.

“As expected!”

The great senior took a closer look at the light curtain and couldn't help revealing a look of ecstasy.

Below the light screen was a Palace, which must have been the residence of an ancient Almighty.

"Let's attack together! There's definitely a treasure inside!"

He laughed out loud, raised his hand, and struck down with his palm.

"Hahaha!"

The other high holiness laughed joyfully and attacked one after another.

"BOOM! BOOM! When you're done and tired, all the treasures inside will be mine!"

The geniuses of war god mountain were still hidden in the void, secretly watching this scene.

He became more and more excited.

Up until now, everything was still going smoothly.

After dealing with the three great venerable level ferocious beasts, these people from Mount Jade Dragon had already consumed a large amount of divine essence. When they break through this layer of ancient great formation, there would not be much divine essence left.

At that time, his chances of snatching the treasure would be even greater.

This attack took more than half a day.

After using up the last of his magical energy to launch a palm strike, a great senior of Jade Dragon Mountain revealed a look of ecstasy and shouted.

“Hahaha! Let’s go!”

The rest of them laughed out loud in joy, their bodies sinking as they pounced into the palace.

After working so hard for so long, it was finally time to reap the rewards.

However, at this moment, countless beast roars suddenly came from the sky above them.

“What’s going on?”

They were stunned and stopped in their tracks as they looked up.

In the sky, countless ferocious beasts were pouncing down. Most of them were at the Yang God Realm, and one or two of them seemed to be at the mid-stage.

“Where did all these ferocious beasts come from?”

They were all shocked.

“Hmph! You’re looking for death!”

Jade Dragon Mountain’s Grandmaster shouted and raised his hand. A giant palm formed and slapped down on the group of beasts.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The other four high holiness also took out their Spears and halberds and other weapons.

“Hahaha! You bunch of idiots, go ahead and fight with my babies. I’ll kindly accept the next treasure!”
The geniuses of war god mountain had already entered the valley.

He had tamed and raised those ferocious beasts. They were one of his greatest trump cards.

Now, it was the perfect opportunity to absorb his attention and act as a perfect cover.

He laughed to himself as he sneaked all the way to the sky above the palace.

“Where’s the treasure? Where’s the treasure?”

He looked around and began to search for treasures.

“There it is!”

After a few breaths, his eyes locked onto a large hall.

There was a large black water tank.

It looked ordinary and even a little ugly, but it exuded a strong evil Qi. He only took one look at it and felt his soul go into a trance, as if his soul was about to be sucked away.

From this, it could be seen that this was a peerless treasure!
