

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3488

“Good treasure!”

The genius of war god mountain slapped his thigh and trembled with excitement.

He had seen many ancestral God weapons, but none of them could compare to the one in front of him.

Ancestral God weapons were also divided into different levels.

Some small divine kingdoms even had ordinary ancestral God weapons, much less war god mountain.

The one in front of him was clearly no ordinary ancestral god weapon.

“Hahaha! I didn’t waste my time!”

He was overjoyed and felt that all his hard work had been worth it.

He quickly headed in that direction.

When he reached the front of the hall, he emerged from the void and reached out to grab the black water tank.

Seeing that the item was about to be in his hands, he was even more delighted.

However, right at this moment, a palm suddenly reached out from the side of the black water tank and grabbed the water tank.

He immediately missed.

He stood there in a daze.

Where did this hand come from?

'What the f * ck? why is there someone hiding at the side?'

What was even more incredible was that he didn't notice anything unusual.

"My baby! Give it back to me!"

He screamed and pounced toward the void with a crazed look.

He was about to go crazy!

For the sake of this treasure, he had gone to great lengths to set up a trap and waited for so long. He was clearly about to get it, but someone had come out of nowhere and snatched it away in front of him.

How could he endure this?

He was going to drag this damn bastard out and ruthlessly kill him!

However, he missed again.

That person had already retreated, and no one knew where he had escaped to.

“Eh? What’s the situation there?”

At this moment, in the sky above the valley, the few people from Jade Dragon Mountain who were fighting with a group of ferocious beasts also noticed the movement from below.

They all leaned over and came over to take a look.

“Not good!”

The face of the genius from war god mountain changed and he hurriedly flew into the void.

He couldn’t expose himself.

Once he was discovered, the old monsters of Jade Dragon Mountain would definitely recognize him.

“Brother Feng, I’ve already obtained the treasure. Let’s go!”

He had just escaped into the void and heaved a sigh of relief when he heard a loud shout that exploded in the air.

He was stunned for a moment, and then his brain buzzed, almost exploding.

It's that bastard!

Not only did that guy steal his treasure, but he also deliberately revealed his identity!

This was simply preposterous!

"Bastard! I can't live under the same sky as you!"

He gritted his teeth and was so angry that his face was crooked.

He, Feng Bai, had dominated the East Province for so many years and had never suffered a loss, and such a big loss!

He immediately swore that he would find this bastard in the future and cut him into pieces.

"Who is it? Who's talking?"

Hearing this, the people from Jade Dragon Mountain were all shocked.

They had thought that they were the only ones here, but now it seemed that at least two people had snuck in, and one of them had even taken the opportunity to steal the treasure in the palace.

"Wind? Oh no, that brat from war god mountain!"

The great senior's expression suddenly changed.

Surnamed Feng, the only person who had the guts to snatch a treasure right under his nose was that brat from war god mountain.

“What? It was him? He’s already down there?”

The rest of the people turned pale with fright.

“Where are you?”

Their eyes lit up as they looked down.

“I found him. He’s over there. He’s trying to escape!”

“We can’t let him escape, catch him! Make his accomplices spit out the treasure!”

They soon found the trail and attacked it with a sharp hiss.

F * ck!

In the void crack, Feng Bai couldn’t escape in time and was hit by the attack. He spat out a mouthful of divine blood.

As he cursed in his heart, he gritted his teeth and continued to tear open the void to escape.

As for the fierce beasts he had released, he didn’t have time to take them back.

This business was simply a huge loss, so much so that he almost lost his underwear!

“He ran away!”

“As expected of this brat, he’s really cunning!”

Seeing that he had fled far away, the people from Jade Dragon Mountain did not pursue him.

They knew the kid’s abilities. He was extremely cunning and had many tricks up his sleeve. Even if they chased after him, they might not be able to catch him.

“This kid ... Not bad. He tricked us. Don’t let me see him in the future, or I’ll definitely suppress him and make him spit out the treasure!”

The great senior coldly snorted, his expression somewhat annoyed.

Being tricked by a junior and having his treasure taken away was not a glorious thing.

“They all say that this kid is extremely sinister and cunning like a fox. Then, these beasts must be his. I even suspect that this treasure map is his.”

He thought of something, took out the map, and angrily said.

The rest of the People’s faces sank, and they were all extremely ugly.

There was really such a possibility!

This map had come at such a good time.

“I’ll remember this brat!”

They cursed and swore as they continued to kill the beasts.

They vented their anger on these beasts.

“My precious!”

At this moment, in the distance, Feng Bai’s heart was bleeding as he watched this scene.

Many of these beasts were painstakingly cultivated and were also one of his most important trump cards.

“That bastard, don’t let me find him!”

Then, he turned his head and ran away.

Along the way, he cursed and swore at that bastard’s eighteen generations of ancestors.

Meanwhile, Tang Hao was still speeding through the air.

An hour later, after making sure that he would not be caught, he stopped and landed on a barren mountain below.

He grinned from ear to ear.

This trip was worth it!

He had also noticed the black water tank at the first moment and recognized its magical features.

He had seen many ancestral God weapons. He had one in his hands, which he had taken from the monster of the Lei clan. It was stained with the blood of the celestial Emperor. It was very ancient, with a sharp and domineering aura.

However, the water tank in front of him didn't have such a domineering aura. Instead, it had a strange aura.

Previously, when he stared at the water tank, it was as if he was looking at a black hole that was about to suck his soul in and devour it.

"I wonder what kind of treasure it is!"

He muttered to himself as he took out the water tank.

When he placed it in front of him and looked at it carefully, he realized that it was not a jar, but more like a large jar, except that it did not have a lid.

"Du du!"

He even knocked on it. The material was also a little strange, not like gold or iron.

After staring at it for a while, that strange feeling came back again, and his mind was in a daze.

“Investigate carefully!”

He collected his thoughts, reached out his hand, grabbed the wall, and immersed his mind in it.

In the next moment, countless images appeared in his mind, flashing continuously.

“Hu!”

After a long time, he opened his eyes and heaved a sigh of relief.

What he had seen just now were the memories of this treasure. Through these memories, he clearly knew the origin of this treasure and its name.

“Sky devouring jar, it’s quite imposing!”

He chuckled and picked up the jar, his eyes full of admiration.
