

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3505

“What urgent matter?”

Tang Hao said in surprise as he took the Jade talisman.

It should have been three months since mu hanyan left. What could she be looking for him for at this time?

“How would I know!”

The woman in the white dress said unhappily.

She glared at him, fuming.

This bastard, he went to the Jade Lake Pavilion again while the young lady was not here. It was said that it was even more sensational than the previous times. He even came out with one dragon and five phoenixes. Now the streets of the Imperial City were full of this news. It was so embarrassing.

“The Chen family ...”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow when he opened the Jade talisman.

It said that he had to rush to the Chen family as soon as possible, but this Chen family seemed a little unfamiliar!

“The Chen family is located in the far west of the East continent, near the sea. Their strength is not simple. Although they can't be compared with the seven sacred lands, they are still first-class in the East continent. Their family head is an eight-star sun god.”

The lady in the white dress said.

“Extreme west? Why did she go there?” Tang Hao was surprised.

This was across the entire East Province.

“Because miss knows the Chen family, that’s why she’s going there. You should hurry!” She urged.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded.

Since he had nothing to do recently, he could go and take a look. Who knew, he might be able to bump into some opportunities. Moreover, mu hanyan was still his fiancée in name, so he had to go.

After he returned to the residence, he informed his Senior Sister and sent a message to Emperor shenwu before he set off.

After leaving the divine martial country, he headed towards a divine city.

There was a teleportation formation there.

There were many teleportation formations in the East continent, but they were all set up outside the divine Kingdom and in some neutral Divine Cities.

After taking the teleportation formation and traveling for half a day, he finally arrived at the Far West region.

He then inquired about the Chen family's location and rushed over.

Chen family, in a garden.

Three figures were sitting in the pavilion.

One of them was wearing a white muslin dress and had a graceful and exquisite figure. The other had a face that was extremely beautiful and flawless, with a peerless appearance.

She was just sitting there, but she was as beautiful as a painting.

It was mu Hanyan.

Beside her sat a woman in a green chiffon dress. Although her appearance was also quite outstanding, it seemed somewhat dull in contrast to her.

Opposite the two girls was a man in white. He was handsome and had a gentle temperament.

"This cave abode's formation is really troublesome!"

The man's sword-like brows furrowed as he shook his head.

“Yup! We’ve invited many array Dao experts, but none of them were able to break it.” The woman in green chimed in, her tone a little vexed. I finally found an ancient God’s cave dwelling, but I can’t enter it. What a pity.”

Mu hanyan nodded, her brows furrowing slightly.

More than half a month ago, she had been searching for opportunities in the sea and had accidentally discovered an ancient array. Behind it might be an ancient cave mansion or ruins.

But it was a pity that the formation was too powerful, and she couldn’t break in.

Even the Chen family had failed after several attempts.

Perhaps, he could crack it!

She muttered in her heart, but a figure appeared in her mind.

“Rong ‘er, big brother Chen, I’ve invited a person. He might have a chance to crack it.” After a moment of hesitation, she spoke.

“Oh? Who was it? Sister hanyan, do you know any other powerful array Masters?”

The man said with a smile.

The green-veiled woman also looked over curiously.

“He, you should know him. He is my fiancé in name.” Mu hanyan said.

“It’s him?”

That man’s face instantly froze.

Of course, he knew about this fellow. Although his Chen clan was located on the western coast, which was thousands of miles away from the divine martial Kingdom, news from there could still be transmitted here.

He had long heard that sister Hanyan had been bestowed a marriage by Emperor Shenwu and that she had found a shield.

After that, many sensational events happened.

“It’s him!”

Chen Rong ‘er snorted and revealed a look of disdain.

It was said that this guy came from a very bad background. He came from the hundred territories, which was even more remote than the divine martial Kingdom, and he was a shameless lecher.

“Hanyan, why did you ask him to come? So many masters couldn’t break it, how can we count on him?” She said in disdain.

Then, she revealed an angry expression and said, “Speaking of him, I’m so angry. What’s wrong with your Emperor Shenwu? If you found someone to block an arrow for you, you should at least find someone better. He has to be of good character and looks. What’s the big deal with finding a pervert!”

“Hanyan, doesn’t your divine martial Kingdom have the support of some powerful force now? you’re not afraid of Jade Dragon Mountain anymore. It’s time to cancel your marriage. Otherwise, what if that perverted Bandit uses the marriage as an excuse to take advantage of you in the future?”

“This ...”

Hearing this, mu hanyan hesitated.

Although she didn’t have any feelings for that guy, she didn’t think about canceling the engagement. In her opinion, this engagement didn’t seem too bad at the moment. The two of them wouldn’t interfere with each other and lived in peace.

“Yup! Sister hanyan, this kind of pervert is not worthy of you. Even if he’s fake, he doesn’t have the qualifications!”

The man also said angrily.

“This matter ... We still have to depend on His Majesty. After all, he was the one who opened his mouth.”

Mu hanyan could only decline.

Following that, she laughed.”Rong ‘er, you don’t have to worry. He doesn’t interfere with my business and won’t take advantage of me. Besides, would I let him take advantage of me?!”

“That’s hard to say. Hanyan, you’re so beautiful and charming. Which man can resist it? didn’t you see my brother, the young master of the Chen family and a famous genius in the East Province, is so fascinated by you?”

Chen Rong 'er laughed. As she spoke, she looked at the man teasingly.

“Ahem!”

The man immediately felt embarrassed. He put on a stern face and rebuked, “Rong 'er, what nonsense are you talking about! When did your brother lose his mind!”

“Still pretending!”

Chen Rong 'er laughed and then whispered into mu hanyan's ear, “hanyan, why don't you tell Your Majesty to break off the engagement and marry into the Chen family? look at my brother's conditions, he'll beat that pervert in a second. Let's not talk about his looks, his talent, his strength, they're all top-notch.”

“You little girl, what nonsense are you spouting!”

The man immediately rebuked.

But in his heart, he was secretly happy.

He had the same idea.

This was also the Chen family's idea.

In the past, he had admired this person to the extreme. However, due to the prestige of Jade Dragon Mountain, his Chen clan didn't dare to have any ideas about this person. Now, the divine martial Kingdom had suddenly risen, and a mysterious great power had appeared behind them. They no longer feared Jade Dragon Mountain. This was his chance.

As long as it worked, it would be killing two birds with one stone for his Chen family.

This was a flawless-level genius. As long as he could marry her, it would be equivalent to having another flawless-level genius in the Chen family, and his strength would increase greatly.

Furthermore, he could use her to form a marriage alliance with the divine martial Kingdom and use this opportunity to form a relationship with that mysterious power.

To be able to cultivate a seven-star to fight against a nine-star, the force must be extremely powerful. No force in the East continent could compare to it.
