

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3524

Tang Hao stopped.

His eyes were fixed on the distance.

Along the way, he had checked every corner of this world and every trace of aura. Finally, he found a clue.

Although he couldn't find the source of the life force, he found the distribution pattern of the life force.

Some areas were thicker, while some areas were thinner.

When the places with the strongest life force were connected, they formed a regular dodecagonal shape.

This was obviously a formation!

"This origin spirit God ancestor really knows how to play!"

Tang Hao chuckled.

This wasn't an ordinary formation. It wasn't set up by formation disks or formation flags. It was a natural formation.

The so-called treasure should be in this natural array. It had been hidden by the origin spirit God ancestor using some method.

It was probably natural, and there were no traces of man-made work. That was why no one had been able to find it after so many years.

"Let's go and take a look!"

He quickly swept over and entered the formation. He began to investigate carefully, not letting a single blade of grass, tree, sand, or stone slip by.

"There it is!"

After making a round, he finally landed in a mountain range.

The distribution of these mountains was also very strange. It looked messy and without any rules, but in his eyes, there was a hidden mystery.

This was also a natural array.

"This is how it should be!"

He stared at it for a while, then landed and started to walk in the mountain.

After a few twists and turns, he suddenly felt the void around him change and he stepped into another void.

There was only an ancient stone Hall floating in the air.

In the hall, a piercing green divine light burst out.

He squinted his eyes to take a closer look and saw that it was a jade-green divine Pearl. Its exterior was covered in a mist that seemed to have substance, which was the source of life outside.

“This is the treasure!”

Tang Hao’s eyes grew warm. He was overjoyed.

This treasure was undoubtedly the treasure left behind by the origin spirit God ancestor. It was also a Supreme treasure of the Dao of plants and vegetation.

With this treasure, he could transform his own herb garden and cultivate yang grade divine herbs.

“Eh? Where is he?”

“How did he disappear?”

Outside, the seven people from Jade Dragon Mountain were shocked.

He was still in the mountains just now. How did he disappear in the blink of an eye?

“There’s no sign of tearing the void apart!”

“Where did he go?”

They revealed themselves and stared at the mountain with bewilderment.

“Don’t tell me ... He really found something?”

A high holiness said in disbelief.

As soon as he said this, someone subconsciously opened his mouth to refute, but he felt that this was a little ridiculous. How could that kid really find the treasure left behind by the origin spirit God ancestor?

However, when he thought about it carefully, he hesitated when he saw the actions of the kid just now.

It seemed that the kid had discovered something. No matter what it was, it must be something that no one else had discovered.

“It can’t be ... True, right?”

“Could it be that the treasure is in this mountain?”

Gradually, their expressions changed, and their eyes became fiery and greedy as they looked at the mountain range below.

As long as they could obtain the treasure, they would be able to create a new Yuan Ling divine world on Mount Jade Dragon and continuously cultivate yang level divine herbs. The strength of Mount Jade Dragon would also be able to improve rapidly and dominate the East continent.

“Hahaha! The heavens are really blessing our Mount Jade Dragon!”

Some of the Jade Dragon Mountain High holiness laughed out loud, his face filled with ecstasy.

“I still remember that kid’s route. Follow me!”

After he finished speaking, he lowered his body and fell into the mountain.

The Group of Seven people circled the mountain for a while and disappeared.

“Why did they all disappear? what the hell is going on?”

Behind them, the two geniuses, Cang Ming and the God of War, were a little dumbfounded.

They were all waiting for Jade Dragon Mountain to make a move!

However, after waiting for a long time, the people from Jade Dragon Mountain did not make a move. Now, the people from Jade Dragon Mountain had disappeared together with that kid.

“Could it be that there’s something mysterious in this mountain?”

The genius of war god mountain, Feng Bai, rubbed his chin and began to ponder.

“F * ck! It can’t be!”

Suddenly, he slapped his thigh and exclaimed.

He had an unbelievable guess.

That mu guy had found a hidden void, and this void was most likely the place where the treasure was hidden!

“This ... What the hell? that idiot can really find it?”

He really didn’t want to believe it.

He felt that he was the smartest. If he couldn’t find it, how could that guy find it?

“No, I have to hurry in!”

Then, he became a little anxious.

That was the ancestral God's treasure!

If it fell into the hands of Jade Dragon Mountain, he would not be able to get it again.

"Not good!"

On the other side, the genius of Cang Ming mountain, Wang Feiyu, also realized this.

The two of them rushed out almost at the same time, heading towards the mountain.

The next moment, the two of them met face to face and were both stunned.

"Aiya! Brother Wang, what a coincidence!"

"Eh? Isn't that brother Feng?"

The two of them laughed it off with a tacit understanding.

"Let's go down together!"

"Alright! Good!"

The two of them laughed and fell down.

But in the dark, they were all on guard against their opponents.

They knew that they all had the same goal. They all wanted to be the Oriole behind Mount Yulong.

They had already memorized the route earlier, so they followed it.

At this moment, the seven people from Jade Dragon Mountain had already arrived in front of the stone Hall.

"Kid, stop!"

"That's the treasure of our Jade Dragon Mountain!"

They looked at the hall and shouted sternly.

In the hall, the jade-green Pearl hung high in the air. Beside it, there was a white-robed figure who was reaching out his hand, making a grabbing motion.

"A treasure from Mount Yulong?"

He paused and turned around.

“Of course! This is the treasure of Mount Jade Dragon. And you, kid, will die Here today!”

The few people from Jade Dragon Mountain shouted. Their expressions were fierce and their killing intent was strong.

“Brat, we have to thank you. If it wasn’t for you, how could we have obtained this Supreme divine item? don’t worry, in order to repay you, we’ll let you die a little more quickly.”

There were even people who laughed evilly, their faces filled with ecstasy.

“Oh, really? Then I really have to thank you properly!”

Tang Hao smirked.

“Kid, you’re still laughing! Do you think that we only have this many people? How was that possible? In order to kill you, we’ve invited many people!” The leading high holiness sneered and flicked his sleeve, sending a scroll flying out.

Whoosh!

The scroll unfurled, and several figures stepped out.

“Hahaha! Little brat, you didn’t expect this, did you?”

The Shura Emperor took the lead and walked out, laughing loudly.

Then, Emperor Vermillion Bird laughed.

After them, there was a great senior from Jade Dragon Mountain and a dozen or so high-ranking senior.

The group of people stood in a straight line, exuding a powerful aura.

“Three seven Star great paragons and 19 high paragons!”

Tang Hao counted them.
