

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 610

The commotion in the stream lasted for a long time before calming down.

The atmosphere became lively once more when Liu Bingyao spoke and sang a song.

Looking at the screen, Tang Hao could feel their passion.

He logged in on his phone, lay on the sofa, and watched the live stream attentively. From time to time, he would fire several rockets.

The live stream ended at eleven o'clock.

Just as it ended, his phone rang. It was from Liu Bingyao.

"Hello!"

Tang Hao picked up the call. "Aren't you going to sleep?"

"I'm going to sleep soon!" Bing Yao said, "I'm calling to thank you. I didn't even thank you personally during the stream!"

"What are you thanking me for?" Tang Hao laughed.

"I still have to thank you. You've spent so much on me. Please don't send me any more gifts," she said dearly.

After a pause, she asked, "Did you watch... it?"

"I did!"

"Is it OK?" She was a little nervous.

"It's not only OK, it's amazing!" Tang Hao said.

"Really?" She was so happy that she almost jumped from her seat.

"Really! It was very good. You acted well too!"

"Thank you!" She said happily.

After chatting for a while, she said reluctantly, "I'll be going to bed. Good night!"

"Good night!"

The next morning, Tang Hao went to university.

"Hey! Did you hear? There's a guy from Z Tech who wants to come here and challenge Tang Hao to a duel!"

"What? Tang Hao? Which Tang Hao?"

"There's only one Tang Hao in Z University!"

“Damn! That final boss? Someone wants to challenge the final boss to a duel? Haha! Idiot!”

Tang Hao overheard those conversations as soon as he arrived at the gate.

He rolled his eyes and took a big bite of his stuffed jianbing. “Do I look like a final boss? I’m so friendly and amiable,” he muttered.

The atmosphere at the gate was quite lively.

“What’s going on? Who’s that guy?” Some students who did not know the situation asked around.

The girls, in particular, pricked up their ears.

“Sigh! His online ID is Flying Fish, and he’s from Z Tech. Last night, he and Final Boss Tang Hao had a rocket battle in Beauty Queen Liu’s live stream. He lost and was so angry that he wanted to have a one-on-one duel.”

When the people heard that, they all showed pitiful expressions on their faces.

“Tsk tsk, poor kid! He wants to fight the final boss? He must have a death wish!”

“That’s right! He wants a one-on-one fight too? That’s even more ridiculous!”

Everyone shook their heads, feeling extreme pity for that guy.

The title of “Final Boss” was not given for nothing. Tang Hao had a wealth of several billion yuan, and not many people would be able to outspend him. Even in a physical fight, not many people could beat him.

‘Whatever Fish that person might be, he’ll be utterly grilled if he dares to come!’

“That Tang Hao is a freak! He spent several million yuan in one sitting. What a beast!”

“That’s right! At least give the rest of us mortals a chance!”

The boys were jealous.

As for the girls, they were all extremely envious.

At that moment, someone noticed Tang Hao and exclaimed, “It’s Tang Hao!”

In an instant, the boys all shut their mouths and did not say anything, while the girls were all excited.

“Tang Hao, does your film company still need actors?”

“Tang Hao, can I be a cameo? At least, pose as a corpse?”

They surrounded him and said excitedly.

When Haotian Pictures was founded, they thought that Tang Hao was just messing around, and no one took it seriously. However, the trailer that was recently released had shocked many people. Haotian Pictures became famous as well.

They rushed over, which intimidated Tang Hao. He quickly stepped back and said, "Sorry, we don't have any future plans for now. We are not short of people."

"If we're shooting another movie and we need extras or crowds, I'll definitely look for you!"

After handling the girls, Tang Hao went to class.

Nothing happened the whole morning.

"Did that guy chicken out?" Cao Fei sneered.

He had a lot of fun last night. He managed to land a few insults.

After the morning class, Tang Hao headed to the cafeteria to have lunch.

At the entrance of the cafeteria, he heard a commotion not far away.

"He's here! That guy from Z Tech is here. He brought a lot of people and was shouting at the front gate!" Someone shouted.

In an instant, the crowd at the entrance of the cafeteria was in an uproar.

"Go, go, go! Let's hurry up and watch the show!" At that moment, wave after wave of people swarmed toward the front gate from all over the campus.

All of them looked extremely excited.

Although they were unhappy with Tang Hao, it was nonetheless a matter of school pride. Tang Hao was from Z University, and the other party was from Z Tech.

When Tang Hao arrived at the front gate, many people had already gathered there.

“Qing Feng guy! If you have the guts, come out and fight me one-on-one!”

Someone shouted through a megaphone.

“Excuse me!” Tang Hao squeezed through the crowd and walked over.

There were more than ten cars and dozens of people. Each of them was tall and well-built. In front of them was a Bentley. Next to it, a guy with yellow hair was shouting through a megaphone.

“Stop shouting, kid. Your grandpa is here!”

Cao Fei squeezed through the crowd and arrived at the center of the scene.

The yellow-haired guy glanced at Cao Fei and showed a surprised look,

“You are Qing Feng? You don’t look like him! You look so lame!”

“F*ck! Who are you calling lame?” Cao Fei was furious.

The yellow-haired guy’s expression changed. He gritted his teeth and said, “So you’re the guy who insulted me last night! Just you wait, I’ll deal with you later.”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes when he heard that. He walked up and said coldly, "I am Qing Feng!"

The yellow-haired guy glanced over and was surprised.

The young man in front of him dressed very plainly in cheap clothes. He did not seem like someone who could casually spend millions on the Internet.

"Are you really Qing Feng?" He said suspiciously.

"I'm the real deal! If you don't believe me, then forget it!" Tang Hao said coldly.

"I believe you!" The yellow-haired guy said. Then, he patted his chest and shouted, "Remember, my name is Chang Yunfei. Have you heard of Chang Corporation? It belongs to my family."

"Never heard of it!" Tang Hao said coldly.

Indeed, he had never heard of Chang Corporation. There were so many companies in Province Z, and he did not know all of them.

The yellow-haired guy was stunned, but soon he became furious.

"I've said it earlier, it's a one-on-one fight! Whoever loses will kneel down and call the other guy Grandpa. Do you dare?" He shouted.

"Fine! You said it yourself!" Tang Hao nodded and said mockingly.
