

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 672

Tang Hao went to many places that morning.

He went to various villages and towns to look for a place with many ponds so that he could set up the fish farm.

There were no ponds in Dragonrock Village or Tang Village, so they were not suitable.

He also went to Cai Village, but it was equally unsuitable.

In the afternoon, he found a pond in Jade Town.

That was the biggest pond he found, and it was surrounded by vast farmland. Beyond that was a mountain range.

Moreover, Jade Town was not far from Dragonrock Village and the Haotian Health Products factory.

“This place is not bad!” Tang Hao got out of the car and took Ma Fangfang around the pond.

“It’s still a little small. We have to buy the entire piece of land and expand it!” Ma Fangfang said, “We have to dig a few more ponds, set up a fence, and all kinds of breeding facilities. The scale has to be big.”

Tang Hao nodded and said, “It’s decided then!”

He took out his phone and contacted the mayor.

Tang Hao knew Mayor Wu from a long time ago when Hu Dahai went to Dragonrock Village to cause trouble. Haotian Health Products had dealings with him.

Soon, Mayor Wu arrived with a group of town officials.

After hearing Tang Hao's idea, Mayor Wu's eyes lit up with excitement.

"This is a good idea! We'll definitely support you however we can. You want to dig the pond, right? No problem! As long as the dues are paid, I think the villagers will have no objections."

"That decides it. I'll send someone over tomorrow to discuss and sign the contract," said Tang Hao.

"OK!"

After the negotiations, Tang Hao called the survey team to chart the terrain.

After work, he sent Ma Fangfang home. It was already past four in the afternoon.

"It's still early! Can you stay with me a little longer?"

She looked at Tang Hao and said reluctantly.

"I'll just sit for a bit!" Tang Hao hesitated for a moment and said.

She smiled mischievously and said, "What else can I do! Don't tell me... you want to eat me?"

Tang Hao instantly became embarrassed.

“I don’t mind that though!” She smiled coyly and winked at him. Then, she opened the door and walked inside.

“I’m going to take a shower!”

Once inside the apartment, she bent over in front of Tang Hao to remove her stockings. Then, she carefully unbuttoned her coat.

Her coat fell on the floor.

Her back was facing him. Her movements were deliberately slow, but they were full of temptation. The setting sun shone through the window and on her body, as though covering her with a golden aura.

This scene was as beautiful as a painting.

Tang Hao was stunned.

Taking off her shirt, she turned around and smiled alluringly.

Then, she slowly walked into the bathroom.

Soon, the sound of running water could be heard.

Ten minutes later, she stepped out of the bathroom wrapped in a towel.

She dried her hair, walked toward Tang Hao, stretched out her hand, and said gently, "Hao! Nap with me for a while! I'm so tired. I just want to hug you and have a good nap."

When they came to the bedroom, she pulled Tang Hao and lay down on the bed.

It was getting dark outside.

The unlit room also gradually became dark. No one made a sound inside.

She lay there, curled up, and fixed her eyes on Tang Hao.

Tang Hao was also curled up there. The two of them looked at each other, but neither of them moved.

After a long time, she felt sleepy and yawned.

"I've been really tired recently. There's a lot of work!" She said.

"Then you should take every chance to rest," Tang Hao said tenderly.

"OK!" She replied and closed her eyes. Then, she moved her body a little, snuggled toward Tang Hao, and hugged him with a pair of delicate arms.

"Don't move! Stay like that and let me hug you properly. You can leave after I fall asleep, OK?" She said coyly.

"OK!" Tang Hao responded softly.

She pursed her lips and smiled. She buried her head into Tang Hao's arms, closed her eyes, and did not speak again.

After some time, she finally fell into a deep sleep.

Tang Hao looked at his watch and saw that it was only five o'clock.

He gently got up and covered her with the blanket. Then, he went to the kitchen and cooked a few dishes for her. He placed them on the dining table and covered them.

He left after leaving a note.

He went to the company to meet Liu Yan and chatted with her for a while. Then, Tang Hao picked up Qin Xiangyi and had dinner together.

After accompanying her to cultivate for a while, Tang Hao brought her into the magatama pocket world.

"Wow! What a big pond, so many fish!"

Qin Xiangyi said excitedly when she came to the side of the pond.

She picked up a handful of feed and scattered it. She became happier when she saw the fish swarming over.

"Don't worry. There's enough for everyone!"

She mumbled and scattered another handful of feed.

“Lil Tang! Why don’t you build a house here? A small hut will do! I also want a swing. It’ll be fun!

“Also! We need a big bed. A waterbed! Get the best one!”

Tang Hao almost did a spit take when he heard about the water bed.

“What! I want to try it, why not? Besides, you’ll benefit from it too!” Qin Xiangyi lifted her chin and shot him a glance.

Tang Hao was excited. He had never tried doing it on a water bed.

“OK! We’ll buy one after we go out!” Tang Hao said decisively, “We’ll buy the biggest one!”

After feeding the fish together and taking care of the plantation, the two left the pocket world. Tang Hao immediately took out his phone and browsed for a water bed.

“I want this one!” Qin Xiangyi leaned against his chest and pointed at one of the models.

“OK! We’ll take this one. The biggest one!”

Tang Hao quickly checked out.

“Look at how excited you are!” Qin Xiangyi glanced at him.

Tang Hao rubbed his nose and felt a little awkward.

“OK! It’s already late. Let’s go to bed!” She stood up and stretched. Then, she bent over and whispered into Tang Hao’s ear, “Hurry up and carry me in, silly!”

Tang Hao’s urges flared. He immediately carried her by the waist and went into the bedroom.

The next morning, after Tang Hao sent her to the factory, he went to the company and brought a group of people to Jade Town. There, he discussed with the villagers and signed the contract.

Then, they discussed the construction plan of the fish farm.

In the afternoon, the construction team came to dig the pond.

In the next few days, Tang Hao was busy with the fish farm. At night, he cultivated and raised fish with Qin Xiangyi.

Finally, the mother fish used for crossbreeding laid eggs.

The baby fish hatched ten hours later. When they were bigger, Tang Hao noticed that the fish looked similar, but the colors of the scales were different.

There were three-colored ones, two-colored ones, and even fish with only one color.

Tang Hao guessed that it should have something to do with their pedigree. The more colors there were, the better the fish would be.

Fed with ginseng and lingzhi, those fish grew several times bigger in a day. When they were the size of a palm, Tang Hao slaughtered a few and tasted them.

Indeed, the three-colored ones tasted the best. They were slightly inferior to the purebred spirit skates, but they were nonetheless extremely delicious.

'That decides it!' Tang Hao quickly made up his mind.

He also planned to hire a few experts to decide on a name and get the certification.

That way, the fish could be sold.

The experts would be giving it a scientific name, but Tang Hao would still call it "Fantasy Fish."
