

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 698

In the afternoon, Tang Hao went to the company.

He first met up with Liu Yan, and she reported to him on the company's recent development.

"Chairman Tang, even though we have expanded the factory space and increased the production lines, it's still not enough!"

Liu Yan laughed drily as she said that.

"Our products are flying off the shelves. Moreover, they're becoming more and more famous to the extent that they've become household names.

"Take the aphrodisiac for example. According to our market research, three-quarters of adult males are using it. This is an astonishing amount. We're always selling out.

"The hair growth tonic, healthcare tonic, and sobriety medicine are also very popular. There's no way Masculine Wind's production facilities can cope up with the demand. Manager Lin has told me several times that he wants to set up another factory.

"Haotian Health Products and the beverage company are all in the same situation."

Tang Hao laughed drily when he heard that.

He had built an extra-large factory for Masculine Wind when they first started. He did not expect that the demand would outpace the production capacity so quickly.

"Let's build a few more factories then!" He smiled and said.

Liu Yan nodded. "They'll have to be as big as possible. The market is very big, and we can still sell out even if we double the production capacity.

"Besides, we can start to market our products overseas. Many foreign distributors have contacted us.

"However, with our current production capacity, we won't have enough for them."

Tang Hao pondered for a moment and said, "Then we should build even more factories. We'll have to break into foreign markets sooner or later anyway. We can't build our factories overseas because the production process is quite peculiar, so we can only build them in Huaxia."

"OK, I'll discuss it with the managers and come up with a proposal!" Liu Yan said.

After leaving the office, Tang Hao took the elevator and went to the ninth floor.

That was where the newly established Haotian Fisheries was located.

Tang Hao met Ma Fangfang in the manager's office.

"You're back!" Ma Fangfang said happily.

"I just got back! How's the construction of the fish farms?" Tang Hao asked.

"It's almost ready, and we've recruited all the personnel. It can go into operation at any time. Also, the plantation company has sent over the first batch of feed. We're just waiting for the fish hatchlings."

Ma Fangfang seemed very excited when she said that.

Tang Hao laughed when he saw her face.

“What are you laughing at!” Ma Fangfang said angrily.

“You seem very keen!”

“Of course!” She lifted her chin and pursed her lips into a smile. “You’ve given me this opportunity, so I must do my best and not let you down!”

As she spoke, her beautiful eyes were transfixed on Tang Hao’s face.

Suddenly, she stood up and slowly leaned over to give Tang Hao a light kiss on his lips.

Then, she smiled brightly and said coyly, “Not only do I want to be your little mistress, but I also want to be a capable one!”

Tang Hao panicked. He quickly turned around and, seeing that the glass was not see-through, heaved a sigh of relief.

“Don’t worry, no one can see us!” She giggled mischievously.

Tang Hao smiled helplessly. He pondered for a moment and said, “I’ll go over tonight and release the hatchlings. You can get the people to start working tomorrow!”

“At night?”

Ma Fangfang was surprised. She was not sure how to react to that.

“Yup, at night!” Tang Hao replied.

“Oh!” Ma Fangfang replied and did not ask any further questions.

After leaving the manager’s office, Tang Hao went to his own office, sat down in his chair, and searched his phone for the number of the replica maker.

He needed a large number of bronze jars for the new factories. Ling Wei was going to need a lot of them for her new factories too.

After thinking about it, he decided to order one thousand jars. The replica maker smiled and thanked him profusely.

In the evening, after dinner, Qin Xiangyi drank a portion of Liquid of Spiritual Condensation and began to cultivate. Tang Hao left the house and drove to the fish farm at Jade Town.

There was only one guard on duty. Tang Hao showed his identity and went in.

He first came to Pond Number 1.

The pond was very big, and a high fence surrounded it.

He walked around the pond once, then retrieved a freezing ice talisman formation. Once the talisman formation was set up and activated, cold air spread out in all directions. In just ten minutes, the pond water had become icy cold.

After that, Tang Hao went into the magatama pocket world, took out a bucket of fish hatchlings, and poured it into the pond.

After repeating the process several times, there were about two thousand fish hatchlings in the pond.

Then, he scattered fish feed into the pond.

In an instant, the surface of the water boiled. The fish hatchlings swarmed over and fought fiercely for the feed, splashing water everywhere.

“Eat! Eat, so that you’ll quickly grow up!”

Tang Hao grinned, feeling a sense of satisfaction.

After feeding the school of fish, Tang Hao went to the next pond and did the same thing.

After that, Tang Hao went home.

Seven days passed in the blink of an eye.

In that period, Qin Xiangyi was busy moving and preparing for the opening ceremony. Many invitations were sent out.

She was the host of the ceremony this time, and she had invited many business partners and even her former classmates, including Yan Lili.

Tang Hao also sent out several invitations.

During that time, Tang Hao also received the first batch of bronze jars and had them sent to Provincial City.

The fish farm started its operations, and everything went well.

Meanwhile, Liu Yan and the other managers had created a proposal for the new factories. Tang Hao read through it and gave his approval.

Eventually, the auspicious day arrived.

At noon, a grand opening ceremony was held at the new factory. All the influential people from the Westridge political and business circles came to attend.

After the ceremony ended, Tang Hao and Qin Xiangyi saw the people off. They were busy for a long time before they returned home.

“Phew! I’m so tired!”

After entering the door, Qin Xiangyi stretched her limbs, lay down on the couch in the living room, and closed her eyes.

She had been very busy for the past few days. She was not physically tired but mentally tired.

“Sigh! There’s still the dinner party!”

She sighed and rolled around on the couch.

Tang Hao smiled and walked over to sit beside her.

"I'm so tired, Lil Tang! Quick, give me a massage!" She said coyly.

"OK!"

Tang Hao reached out and massaged her back.

"Mmm! It's so comfortable!"

She closed her eyes, enjoying the sensation. From time to time, she bit her red lips and let out a suppressed moan. Her expression was as if she was floating in the sky.

"Do you feel better?" Tang Hao stopped after about twenty minutes.

"Yup! I'm not tired at all now!" Qin Xiangyi flipped over and sat up. "Now, it's my turn to give you a massage!"

She smiled charmingly, pushed Tang Hao down, and started to massage him as though she knew how to.

Eventually, they started to roll around and fell on the floor.

"Are we doing it?"

“We’re already in position, silly!”

“Then let’s do it!”

Their lips gradually approached each other and were about to kiss.

However, they suddenly heard a car driving over and parking in front of the mansion.

Then, someone shouted, “I’m here, Brother-in-law!”
