

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 765

“Is it really that magical?”

“Can it become as thick and hard as steel?”

The bullet comments flooded the entire screen.

Everyone was excited.

“It’s true, of course it’s true! It’s so damn hard, like a steel bar. I feel like I’m full of energy now! I’ve never felt this good before!

“Wreck my bed? I feel like I can even drill through the Earth!”

The streamer’s face was red with excitement.

Then, he covered his crotch and said anxiously, “I can’t take it anymore. I’ll see you later.”

After he said that, the screen turned black, and the live stream ended.

The audience was stunned for a moment. Then, they rushed out of the door excitedly and went to the nearest store to buy the aphrodisiac.

Of course, some of them also bought the weight loss tea.

After trying it, they were all shocked by the miraculous effect.

Haotian was not exaggerating. The results were indeed miraculous!

Those who had previously clamored for Haotian to get lost from Dongying and swore that they would not give the company a single cent had all changed their minds. They started to praise the miraculous effects of Haotian's products.

"My life has been wasted! Now, I have truly regained my dignity as a man! Thank you, Haotian, for making me a new man!"

"Haotian must be a gift from God to men!"

At that moment, all the nationalistic sentiments were forgotten.

The people started to spread the word, and as more and more people tried the products, Haotian Group grew in popularity.

Soon, Masculine Wind went viral.

On the Internet, all the men were talking about that aphrodisiac.

Men of all ages, from the elderly in their eighties to high school students were buying it.

The product was flying off the shelves in all shopping malls across Dongying.

Stocks were low for the first shipment. They were scattered all over the country, and each store did not receive too many items. Because of that, people were fighting over a box of aphrodisiacs.

In less than a day, the aphrodisiac became popular all over Dongying. It was all over the newspapers and television.

Those who had insulted Haotian before all stopped talking.

After the aphrodisiac, the weight loss tea also became popular.

The miraculous weight loss effect made countless women go crazy.

Young girls and middle-aged women all became die-hard fans of Haotian.

They flocked to different places to shop. Once the product went out of stock, they organized group buys.

“Huaxianese products, 100% authentic! Ten times your money back if it’s a fake!”

Those who bought the weight loss tea and beauty cream showed off on the Internet.

“Did you buy it today?”

That was the standard greeting whenever two women met.

The two products became symbols of love. One would not dare to meet their girlfriend if they could not buy those products.

The three products that became popular first were the aphrodisiac, weight loss tea, and beauty cream. After that, the miraculous effects of other products were also discovered and gradually became popular.

For example, the hair growth tonic was especially popular among middle-aged men.

Male pattern baldness was a nightmare for many men. Now, they could finally take off their toupees and reveal their fresh, thick hair. The hair growth tonic had given them confidence.

Divine Liquor and Vitality sports drink also became popular in Dongying.

Now, all of Haotian Group's products were popular.

"Haotian is an amazing company!"

"As expected of Huaxia!"

In the past, they cursed and boycotted Haotian. Now, they were praising the company.

The company and its products had become a nationwide phenomenon in a few days.

Soon, the first shipment of products was all snapped up.

People clamored and begged for a new shipment.

"Daddy Haotian, Please! Hurry up and give us more. You want money, right? Take it! I'll give all my money to you!"

The news spread back to Huaxia, and the Huaxianese online world was in a jubilant mood.

“Those Dongyingese were making such a fuss earlier. Now, they’re all convinced! Hmph!”

“Those Dongyingese can’t possibly imagine how wonderful our Haotian Group can be!”

Haotian Group was also celebrating its success.

“I told you! There’s no need to worry!”

Tang Hao said to Liu Yan.

Liu Yan could not help but laugh.

“Our products are of high quality and not very expensive. They’ll definitely fly off the shelves,” Tang Hao said with a smile.

Liu Yan said, “Chairman Tang, we have taken over the Dongyingese market. As long as we have a stable supply, there won’t be any problems. The Dongyingese market is quite big with hundreds of millions of people! We can earn quite a lot!”

Tang Hao smiled and said emotionally, “It’s much more fulfilling to earn their money than our people’s money.”

“Yes!” Liu Yan nodded.

After a moment, she said, “The financial quarter will be over in two days. I estimate that our profits for this quarter will be more than seven billion yuan. If we can maintain this growth, our annual profits will exceed thirty billion next year.”

“It’s almost exceeding thirty billion!” Tang Hao was feeling emotional.

Back then, he was looking forward to ten billion. Before he knew it, profits were about to exceed thirty billion.

“Thirty billion? That’s too little. I hope that we can exceed fifty billion next year! Yes, our target shall be fifty billion!” Tang Hao said.

Liu Yan was shocked. Then, she nodded.

Fifty billion was not a big challenge.

Haotian’s financial report in the Dongying market had not come out yet. Next year, Haotian would expand aggressively into other countries to become a multinational corporation. When that time came, the profits would definitely soar.

Then, the two of them discussed the development of the subsidiary company.

“Haotian Health Products and Masculine Wind have no problems. We should pay more attention to Haotian Pictures. The movie industry is a lot riskier than physical products.

“The third movie in the Mao Mountain Taoist Master series has been shelved. We’ll only be releasing one movie in the Spring Festival period.”

As she spoke, Liu Yan frowned and revealed a worried expression.

It was a sci-fi movie. In the current Huaxianese movie industry, domestic sci-fi movies were not well-received.

Tang Hao said, "It's good enough if we can break even. Consider it an experiment. As for the third film of Mao Mountain Taoist Master, the Taoist masters are all busy now. We'll talk about it next year.

"Currently, we don't have that many works. We've built up hype this year for an explosive release next year. We can even release television series in addition to movies."

After the New Year holiday, Tang Hao returned to Provincial City.

That afternoon, he received a call from Ling Wei.

"Hao! Are you back?"

Her sweet voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Yes! I just came back!"

"Then... can you come and pick me up? I really want to see you!" Ling Wei said softly.

"OK!"

Tang Hao hesitated for a moment and agreed.

"Really? Then hurry up! I'm about to get off work!" Her tone suddenly became cheerful and excited.

“I’ll be right there!”

Tang Hao could not help but laugh. He hung up and rushed over.
