

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 833

Those people were stunned. They stared at Tang Hao blankly.

'Gold? Silver? What the hell?

'Isn't there only one kind of Rejuvenation Pill?'

The crowd around him was also stunned, and their expressions became extremely strange. The golden one was definitely the deluxe version of the Rejuvenation Pill. Each pill cost fifty crystals. That was daylight robbery.

Many people started to laugh.

"That kid is crazy. Isn't he afraid that those people might chop him up?"

"That's right! He wants to pull off his scam at this time!"

The stall owners sneered and prepared to watch the drama unfold.

They could not imagine a good ending for that kid.

Tang Hao smiled and said, "Let me explain it to you. The silver bottles contain regular Rejuvenation Pills. It's very cheap at five crystals per pill."

Those people were shocked.

'F*ck! A Rejuvenation Pill that costs five crystals? That's too cheap! It's not fake, right? Who would dare to eat it?'

Tang Hao continued, "This gold one is nothing like you've seen before. It's the deluxe version of the Rejuvenation Pill. Let me show you, even the pill is golden. The color is called 'tycoon gold.' It's a status symbol.

"Of course, its medicinal effects are also very potent. I recommend you to choose this one."

Those people were shocked.

"How... how much is one of those?"

"This one's a little more expensive. It's fifty crystals per pill!" Tang Hao said.

Those people's expressions changed, and they almost pulled out their swords.

"Fifty crystals per pill? You might as well rob me!" They said.

"Don't get too agitated. It's a little pricey, but it's very effective! One pill alone is enough to save them. If the pill can't save them, I won't charge you money. How about that?"

Those people hesitated.

The kid did not seem reliable. He was most likely a swindler, and the medicine must be problematic.

However, they had no other choice.

No one dared to sell them medicine except for the kid.

“Why don’t we try?” One of them said hesitantly, “If we delay any longer, there’s really no hope!”

The other people in his party sighed dejectedly.

They knew that there was not much hope in saving their friends.

“Alright, kid. Give us three of those pills! Let’s make things clear first. If the pills can’t save them, we won’t give you a single cent. Do you understand?” One of them said fiercely to Tang Hao.

“Understood!”

Tang Hao nodded. “If my pills can’t save them, I can’t possibly take your money!” As he spoke, he took out two more golden bottles and handed them over.

Seeing that, the storekeepers and stall owners shook their heads and sneered.

“Are you kidding me? How can you save those guys with just one Rejuvenation Pill? No matter how you change the formula, it’s still a Rejuvenation Pill!”

“That kid has such a big mouth. If the pill can really save lives, I’ll chop off my d*ck immediately!”

Mr. Chop-Off-My-D*ck from before spoke again.

The people took the bottle and held it in their hands. They were all somewhat hesitant.

No matter how they looked at it, the kid and the pill seemed unreliable.

This kid was too young, and the packaging was too eye-catching.

They poured out the pill from the bottle.

‘Oh my god! It’s shining! What did he mix in it?’

While they hesitated, the qi auras of the injured people became weaker.

They gritted their teeth and stuffed the pills into their mouths. They were about to die anyway, so they might as well give it a try.

“My condolences!”

A few jeers emerged from the crowd.

Those people were already on the verge of death. If they were to consume that strange-looking medicine from an unknown source, they would definitely die immediately.

The storekeepers and stall owners were prepared to watch the drama unfold.

A minute passed, but the injured people were still the same. People in the crowd started laughing.

“I told you that he’s a liar!” Mr. Chop-Off-My-D*ck said as if he had long known that this would happen.

However, just as he finished speaking, a burst of vitality suddenly erupted from the bodies of the injured people. Their bloody scars healed at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In an instant, the mocking laughter in the crowd came to an abrupt end.

The bustling street suddenly fell into a deathly silence.

Silence!

A terrifying silence!

Everyone's expressions froze. Their eyes were wide open as they stared at that scene.

"Oh... my god!"

They cried out in disbelief.

The scene in front of them was truly unbelievable!

How could a Rejuvenation Pill have that much life force and heal so fast? It was not as effective as an alchemical pill, but it was still very effective.

The storekeepers kept rubbing their eyes.

The stall owners' eyes and mouths were wide open. They were completely dumbstruck.

They did not realize that the bottles in their hands dropped on the ground and shattered. They continued to stare ahead in a daze.

“Oh no!”

Mr. Chop-Off-My-D*ck shuddered, and his face turned pale. He could feel a draft blowing past his crotch.

“They’re cured, they’re really cured!”

The cultivators were extremely excited and in disbelief.

They did not have too much hope, but they did not expect the pill to revive their friends.

Their bodies trembled with excitement. One of them had tears streaming down his face and almost kowtowed to Tang Hao.

“Don’t mention it. I’m just a medicine seller. You don’t have to thank me, you just have to hand over the money,” Tang Hao said quickly.

“Here!”

The three people carefully put the men down, hurriedly opened their money bags, grabbed a few handfuls of crystals, and stuffed it over.

“Please take it, our benefactor!”

“This... is a little too much! It’s more than fifty crystals!” Tang Hao took it and gave it a rough count.

“Don’t worry. The extra is for you!”

The man who spoke was a burly man with a grateful expression.

“Well... OK then! Since you’re so enthusiastic, I’ll reluctantly accept it. By the way, take a bottle of this. Although it’s a cheap version, it’s equally as effective.”

Tang Hao took out a regular bottle of Rejuvenation Pills and gave it to him.

That person hurriedly put it away. It was a special treasure.

He finally understood that the kid was not a swindler at all. He was clearly an expert! He was probably a disciple of some master physician!

The other two also stuffed the money over, and Tang Hao gave them some Rejuvenation Pills in return.

At that moment, the people in the crowd came to their senses and exclaimed in surprise.

They had changed their impression of Tang Hao. Previously, they were disdainful and mocking, but now, they only looked at him with respect and passion.

They were all shocked by the efficacy of the medicine. Although it was only a Rejuvenation Pill, its potency was comparable to that of an alchemical pill. It was a miracle medicine.

Fifty crystals?

That was too cheap! One had to know that an alchemical pill could cost up to tens of thousands of crystals.

They could not afford tens of thousands of crystals, but paying fifty crystals was no problem. They only had to skip several meals to afford one.

The pill was like an extra life at a critical moment.

“Hey! Do you still have that deluxe pill? I want to buy as many as you have!”

“I want one too! Give me one! The money is here. Take it quickly!”

They rushed up, took out their money bags, and tried to shove money into Tang Hao’s hands.

Around them, more people crowded in, and the whole street was bustling.
